ARRANGING THE DETAILS INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

IN CONNECTION WITH TRANSFER OF THE COLORS.

Of the 21st Battalion to the Princess of Wales Own Regiment of Kingston on June 3rd.

At a meeting of the 21st Battalion Club in the G.W.V.A. hall on Wednesday evening, details in connection with the transfer of the battalion colors were discussed. It was arranged that members of the local club will form the personnel of the escort for the colors at the ceremony on the cricket field on the morning of June 3rd. The president of the club and ex-commanding officer of the 21st will address a letter to the battalion clubs of Ottawa, Toronto and Peterboro, requesting them to send representatives to Kingston for the event, and that places will be reserved for them in the escort. It is hoped that ex-members of the unit will be present from other outside places.

When on service, the 21st Battalion was a unit of the Eastern Ontario Regiment. In accordance with the recent re-organization of the Canadian active militia this unit will be perpetuated in the first (or active) battalion of the local Princess of Wales' Own Regiment, the other overseas battalions affiliated being the 59th and the 253rd. These are slated as reserve battalions.

The ex-commanding officers and trustees of the 21st have been notified that the approval of militia headquarters has been granted for the colors to be taken over by the local battalion. So far as is known, this is the policy to be followed throughout the Dominion.

Major W. E. Kidd, the chaplain of the old unit, was present at the meeting on Wednesday evening, and spoke briefly.

DOCKET OF CIVIL CASES

FOR TRIAL BEFORE JUSTICE MIDDLETON NEXT WEEK.

British Whig Sues the Eddy Company For Failure to Carry Out Agreement—Another Case Over Lease of Store.

The following is the docket of civil causes entered for trial at the non-jury sittings of the Supreme Court of Ontario to be opened there on Monday, the 17th day of May, at 2 p.m., by Justice Middleton.

The British Whig Publishing Company, plaintiffs, and the E. B. Eddy Company, Limited, defendants. The plaintiff's claim is for $5,224.37, damages for failure to carry out an agreement made between the parties.

W. G. Craig & Co., Ltd., plaintiff, and J. F. Gillespie, assignee of insolvent estate of Tripp & Steensburgh (Pleton), defendant. Plaintiff's claim is to rank as secured creditors on this estate by reason of their chattel mortgage.

John J. Johnston et alor, plaintiffs, and the Corporation of the Township of Hinchinbrooke, defendants. Plaintiff's claim is for damages for negligence in not keeping the highway in repair.

Cravford & Walsh, plaintiffs, and C. W. Lindsay Company, Limited, defendants. Plaintiff's claim is for specific performance of an agreement entered into between the parties for a five-year lease of the premises, No. 119 Princess street, Kingston, at twelve hundred dollars a year, or for damages for failure to carry out such agreement.

John W. Snook, plaintiff, and Sarah Snook et alor, defendant. Plaintiff's claim is for a sum of $2,500, amount due for compensation for services rendered by plaintiff to defendants in connection with farm or in the alternative, for wages, and for an accounting.

WRIGHT-HUGHES WEDDINGS.

The Groom is a Nephew of the Hon. N. W. Rowell.

The wedding took place at Sydenham street Methodist church on Wednesday of Miss Nora May Hughes, B.A., daughter of the late Alfred Hughes and Mrs. M. Hughes, 383 Johnston street, and niece of ex-Mayor Hughes, to Douglas Guy H. Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wright, of London, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. T. G. Brown. Mr. Wright was regimental sergeant major of the 3rd Divisional Artillery in France. He is president of the returned soldiers' club at Queen's University, where he is attending the science faculty. Mr. and Mrs. Wright left for Toronto and London, and will then go to Cobalt, where Mr. Wright has a position for the summer months. Mr. Wright is a nephew of Hon. N. W. Rowell.

Leeman-Wright Wedding.

On May 6th, a pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wright, West Huntingdon, when their daughter, Bessie, was united in marriage to Harry Wilson Leeman, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Leeman, Belleville, formerly of Frontenac county. Rev. John T. Hall, Stirling, officiated. The bride was becomingly gowned in lemon George, the draperies looped with orange blossoms. Her veil was of white tulle banded with orange blossoms, and she carried Ophelia roses. She was attended by Miss Emma Lynn, Quinsboro, prettily dressed in pink silk and carried a sheaf of pink roses. The groom was assisted by Murray Wright, West Huntingdon, brother of the bride.

DEPRIVED OF PICTURES

Penitentiary Prisoners Cannot Have Relatives' Likenesses in Cells. There is a great deal of dissatisfaction among the prisoners at the Portmouth penitentiary over an order recently issued. For years the prisoners have been allowed to have certain photographs hanging on the walls of their cells. The old rule was that they could have small pictures of mother, father, wife or other members of the family. Now all pictures are prohibited.

Many who are interested in the men confined to that institution feel that in many cases it is hardship to enforce the rule as many men had to remind them of the dear ones at home.

H. M. Mowat, M.P., came from Ottawa to attend Queen's convocation, and was extended an invitation to a seat on the platform by Principal Taylor.

Gasoline goes up. The retail price here will likely be from forty-seven to forty-nine cents a gallon. At present it is from forty to forty-two cents a gallon.

As a result of the railways not observing daylight saving, some of the Toronto visitors for Queen's convocation arrive an hour after the proceedings opened.

The Prescott Presbyterian church has tendered an unanimous call to Rev. W. M. Omond, M.A., B.D., Kingston, to become its pastor in succession to Rev. K. W. Barton, resigning.

We will rent you a piano, and at end of six months if you feel like purchasing instrument we will allow the six months rental on purchase price, and arrange easy terms on balance. C. W. Lindsay

J. Courland Elliott, B.A., has been granted an ad eundem degree of Bachelor of Arts, at the University of Saskatchewan, G. R. Stillwell, M.A., Queen's is also granted an M.A., ad eundem at the same university.

A large brass tablet bearing the names of those of the parish who served in the late war will be unveiled at the morning service, on Sunday at St. Paul's church, Brockville. Archdeacon O. G. Dobbs, Kingston, will unveil and dedicate the tablet.

There was rather a slim attendance of students at the proceedings of convocation at Queen's, Wednesday afternoon, but the usual offering of "coppers" as the members of the staff took their seats on the platform was not forgotten.

KEENLY-CONTESTED GAME

Army and Navy Veterans Defeated R.C.G.A. at Indoor Baseball.

The Army and Navy Veterans and the R.C.G.A. played a game of indoor baseball in the Kingston Mill-lary Indoor Baseball League at the armories, on Wednesday night, and after a very keenly-contested match, the Army and Navy veterans won out by a score of 15 to 13. Following is the score by innings.

Army and Navy..... 9333015—15
R. C. G. A. 150150—13

This match was played for the championship of the second series of indoor baseball. The winners and the veterans have to meet again for the championship for 1919-20. As the first period, the outcome of this match will be watched with keen interest, as being the closing game of the season, should be a big drawing card. The date of the game will be announced later.

ENLARGED TILL MONDAY

Case in Which Women are Charged With Interfering With Military Man In the absence of Magistrate Farrell, who was called to Toronto, on Wednesday, Ald. R. E. Kent presided on the bench at the Police Court, on Thursday.

Mary Lloyd and Mrs. Harold Huffman, were charged with having "unlawfully interfered and obstructed one, William Lowry, in the discharge of his duties as a militia man, in making an arrest."

The case was adjourned till Monday, as that Magistrate Farrell could hear it.

A KINGSTON MAN MISSING

WILLIAM LAMBERT MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED.

Attended Party at Home of a Friend on Montreal Street—Left There at Late Hour to Go to His Home.

Where in William Lambert, an employee of the locomotive works, who resided at 443 Princess street?

Mr. Lambert disappeared on Saturday night last, and so far no trace of his whereabouts have been secured. He is married, with a family, and as his wife and family cannot account for his sudden disappearance, they have asked the police to try and find him, but thus far the police have not been able to locate the missing man.

From what can be learned, it appears that Lambert who was a hard-working industrious man, spent Saturday evening at the home of Patrick McEwen on Montreal street. It is stated that he left Mr. McEwen's home about 11 p.m. to go to his home. He did not reach home, and where he went is a mystery.

The missing man is well-known to many Kingstonsians, and everything possible is being done to locate him.

In Marine Circles. The steamer Clinton, which has been unloading coal at the Locomotive wharf cleared for Erie.

The steamer Cataract was in port Thursday on her way west.

The steamer Wyoming was in port Thursday on her way to Montreal.

The steamers Buena Vista and John Randall were in port Thursday from Fairhaven. Both vessels are loaded with coal, and cleared for Rideau Canal ports.

Col. D. D. Young is Safe. A cable received from the British mission in Vladivostok by the Canadian Red Cross states that there is no truth in the report that Colonel D. Douglas Young had been killed and the Red Cross train captured. The cable states that the train with Col. Young in charge left Chita on May 5th on its way to Vladivostok.
