Theatrical

Arlie Marks Coming.
At the Grand next week, with a change of play each night and artistic vaudeville between acts, the Arlie Marks players will open their engagement on Monday night. In introducing the Arlie Marks company, Lindsay E. Perrin believes he has the strongest organization of its kind to be found in Canada. Nothing but plays worth while will be presented. Among the plays to be presented are: "The Girl Out Yonder," "Esmerelda," "White Slave Trader" and "The Brat."

The opening play will be "The Brat," produced here for the first time in Canada at popular prices and was one of the most successful plays of the New York season.—Advt.

"Keeping Up With the Joneses."
The title of a new drama offering which is to hold the boards at the Grand Opera House this evening. The play, which is a combination of music, fantasy, novelty, startling surprises, dancing, and containing a chorus of pretty and fascinating young women, calculated capable of gracing any Broadway stage, is founded on the popular cartoons of Pop Momand, which appear daily in the New York Globe and hundreds of other newspapers throughout the United States. It was Mr. Hill who first conceived the idea of transferring newspaper comics to the stage as attested by the phenomenal success of "Bringing Up Father," etc. The offering is surrounded with a beauty chorus and from all counts is the most sensational hit that has been presented hereabouts in years. The cast is a large one, containing thirty capable people.—Advt.

At Griffin's.
Last night another large audience witnessed the wonder picture "The Lost City," and were amazed and thrilled at the unusual scenes shown, a large den of ferocious lions are seen, into which the slave who turned traitor is thrown, and lastly the heroine is also thrown into the lions, how she escapes will be told in another chapter. This million dollar production of the African jungles has never been equalled in motion picture history for thrills and deeds of daring. It startles, thrills, surprises bewilders and entertains. The success of "The Lost City" wherever shown has been remarkable, and its presentation in Kingston has proven no exception. If you have not already seen the opening chapters of this great serial be sure and come to-night, when along with the above will be shown "The Boy Who Defied the Sea," the popular Thos. H. Ince star, in "Crooked Straight," a typical Ray picture of rare merit. Don't miss this programme.—Advt.

Stevenson's Tale Comes to Strand
"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" is Much Talked Of—Story of Dual Nature.

The sensational Paramount-Art photodrama, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," starring the magnificent young actor, John Barrymore, has been such a huge success at the Regent, Toronto, that it will be shown at the Strand Theatre, Toronto, at this week, as it is the Regent's policy never to show a picture a second week. It will be at the Strand, Kingston, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

asserts his belief that every man has two selves, and that the only way to get rid of a temptation is to yield to it. Carew's guests, John Uterson, a lawyer; Dr. Lanyon, Edward Enfield, a society rouser, persuades Dr. Jekyll to accompany them to a low grade music hall after dinner, where the latter meets and is instantly attracted to, Therese, a dancer.

In a subsequent experiment, Dr. Jekyll produces a mixture that will separate the good and evil in men and provides two separate bodies, each independent of the other. He decides he can live both sides himself, and names one Dr. Jekyll and the other Mr. Hyde. By drinking the fluid he has compounded he becomes Mr. Hyde, a misshapen, hideous man, and by drinking more, he changes into Dr. Jekyll, handsome and good. He directs his servants to give Mr. Hyde full liberty of his house.
