Coming to the Grand.
Attraction de lux at the Grand Monday, May 24th. Do not forget this engagement.

The Shee-Grand Opera Concert.—Co-appearing on this date is one of the finest and only company of its kind on the American continent, consisting of the finest artists, and arranged in such order that an evening of solid enjoyment can be expected. Gems from favorite operas, such as the Sextette from Lucia De Lammermore the beautiful prison scene from Faust, the Mesererie from Il Trovatore and in addition to this the artists will sing popular airs. How many times have you heard beautiful opera singers, and the thought struck you "if I could only hear the singers in English." We are fulfilling this desire and in addition musical solos will be rendered by famous musicians on the piano, violin and violoncello. A word about these artists. Mdm. Lorette Beck, Grand Opera Soprano studied under Blanchard the famous metropolitan coach, and was under contract with this celebrated coach to appear in different operas in Spain. Mdm. Beck is not a stranger to Kingston audiences, having appeared on a previous singing engagement here. Now you have an opportunity to hear her in operas, one cannot say too much about Madam's voice. She has a voice of marvelous range, full of pathos and sweetness. J. J. Shea the celebrated musical director who for five years directed Ben Hur, and has a reputation of being one of the most finished violinists in the American continent will render violin solos. Mme. Sauve, concert pianist, studied under the eminent organist, M. Arthur Litondal and has accompanied such celebrated artists as Signor Borrona and Miss Blanche Gauthier. Mme. Alice B. Shea concert soprano, and studied pupil of McGill university, and studied singing under Martin Davies, and Joseph Saucer. Mde. Shea has given her services gratis for two years to the convalescent soldiers in Montreal and sang for the Prince at St. Anne De Bellevue Hospital during his visit there. Andre DeHaff the celebrated Belgium baritone, has appeared at the Antwerp Opera House, Belgium, numerous concerts in Belgium and France, also in New York. Amand Gauthier is possibly one of the finest bass singers of the day. J. E. Fisher, Irish tenor, is well known to all lovers of music. Last but not least Mde. Decarie Bourruso violinist and pianist. The Trans-Canada Theatres in booking this attraction through their entire circuit feel they are giving their patrons one of the finest engagements they have been able to procure this season, at a price well within the reach of every theatre enthusiast.—Adv.

At the Strand.
One of the most amazing air accidents in the history of aviation forms the sensational climax of a new Paramount-Artcraft picture, "The Grim Game," starring Houdini, the most famous handcuff king, which is coming to the Strand theatre next Monday. According to the story, Houdini in an airplane is pursuing a murderer, who is trying to escape in another machine. At a height of 3,000 feet Houdini is supposed to glide above the other machine, let himself down into the cockpit beside the murderer by means of a rope, and throttle him. All went well with the stunt, the two machines circling one above the other and a third, containing Director Willat and the photographer, about a hundred yards away, until Houdini was just about to loose his hold on the rope. Then suddenly a gust of wind lifted the lower plane into the upper one, and their propellers locked. They dropped like rockets, revolving nose on nose, with Houdini still dangling on the rope and the two aviators making frantic efforts to control their machines. Death seemed certain. But a few hundred feet from the ground, with both propellers gone, one of the aviators by a miracle, succeeded in falling into a glide, and, though the other crashed nose-on into a field, the only injuries sustained were slight bruises.—Adv.

At Griffin's.
Tonight will be the last opportunity to see the two delightful stars Doris May and Douglas MacLean in their popular new picture "What's Your Husband Doing." The story concerns a hilarious melange of young and suspicious husbands and wives at "Honey Suckle" Inn a notorious roadhouse, and Mrs. Ridley, played by Doris May, drinking her first champagne, gave her husband a tip and the police broke in at the last minute and packed the whole party off to the country jail. What follows is too rich to reveal gratis. Suffice it to say that a combination of Miss May's fair face, Mr. MacLean's nerve, and a golf playing judge bring about a happy ending. We would advise patrons to see "What's Your Husband Doing," as it furnishes the most wholesome and entertaining evening of screen comedy possible. The second episode of "The Lost City," will also be shown for the last time tonight, and no person should miss it as this chapter out-rivals the previous one in thrills.—Adv.

Marks Company At Grand.
Miss Arlie Marks and her associate players delighted a large audience at the Grand last night in a repeat performance of the great New York success, "The Brat."
Miss Marks' interpretation of the wail of the streets was realistic and called forth applause.
The contest in amateur theatricals was postponed until Saturday evening as some of the contestants were unable to be present. A number of entries have been received for this contest.

County Cases to be Heard.
Next week there will be a busy time in the court presided over by Justices of the Peace George Hunter and J. W. Bradshaw. Two women in Portsmouth complain that their husbands "beat them up." There is a report that the club house at the golf links was broken into and that a number of articles were taken. The Westbrook dog case will be heard on Tuesday.

OBITUARY

Succumbs to Stroke.
At Cape Vincent, N. Y., on May 19th, Mrs. Joseph Breatt, aged fifty-two years, died following a month's illness, due to a stroke. She was born in Sydenham, Ont. The funeral was held Saturday at St. Vincent de Paul's Church. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery. Surviving are her husband, Joseph Breatt; three sons, Lawrence of Point Peninsula; John, of Newton Falls; Raymond, of Cape Vincent; two daughters, Mrs. Leonard Gates, of Cape Vincent and Mrs. Byron Seeburg of Deferiet; her mother, Mrs. John McGowan, of Sydenham, and four sisters, Mrs. John Breatt, Mrs. Hattie Brooks, Mrs. George Leesworth, Sydenham.

WHIG BASEBALL TEAM TO MEET LINDSAY'S

The staff of the C. W. Lindsay company and the Whig baseball team will play a friendly game at the cricket field on Tuesday evening at 6.30 o'clock. The game promises to be very interesting as the piano makers have been practising faithfully. It had been expected that the Whig team would play three games with their newspaper friends on Princess street, but it is thought that the two bad defeats the latter received were enough for them.

Y.M.C.A. LADIES' AUXILIARY.

Splendid Work Done During Past Year—The Officers Elected.
On Friday at 3.30 p.m. the annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A. Women's Auxiliary was held. A very interesting annual business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. John Wright, whose resume of the activities of the past year more than demonstrated the usefulness of such a woman's organization to the association. The general secretary, P. J. Wilson expressed the appreciation of the directors and staff for the untiring effort of the ladies put forth on behalf of the hundreds of men and boys who spend their spare hours at the "Y," and especially for the additions of furniture and the general improvements made.
The slate as presented by the nominating committee and unanimously endorsed by the meeting, included the following officers and committee convenors for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. John Wright; vice-presidents, Mrs. William Jackson and Mrs. F. J. Wilson; secretary, Mrs. R. M. Douglas; treasurer, Mrs. E. P. Jenkins; rooms committee, Mrs. Oliver Chown; buying committee, Mrs. W. H. Hyde, Mrs. J. E. Gow; devotional committee, Mrs. W. Jackson; finance committee, president, secretary, and treasurer.
Plans will be made for extensive redecoration of the rooms on the lower floor of the building.

MEETING OF THE G.W.V.A.

Combined Advisory Committee Brings About Closer Co-operation
The G.W.V.A. met on Friday evening. Comrade Connors presiding. The social affairs of the organization came up for discussion. Next Friday evening St. Luke's Dramatic Society will present "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard." This meeting will be open to the general public. "Flora of the Toy Shop," a high class musical comedy, will be given by the best local talent.
The report of the combined advisory committee of the two veterans' associations showed that the committee is rendering valuable assistance in matters of vital interest to the two organizations and fulfills the desire of all veterans in bringing about closer co-operation between the two societies. Comrade McDonough was appointed as a member of this committee, vice Comrade Warburton.

Sending Ammunition to Petawawa.
On Friday the ordnance corps was busily engaged in removing artillery ammunition from the casements to freight cars. Two carloads will be sent to Petawawa for artillery practice during the summer camp.
