GANANOQUE

(From Our Own Correspondent.) May 22 .- A much enjoyed function was held in the lecture hall of Grace church on Thursday evening. when the cast which recently produced the humorous play entitled "Cupid and the Chorister" was entertained at supper. At the close of festivities the crowd repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wison, where a musical evening was en-

The ladies' auxiliary of the local branch of the Great War Veterans Association held a well attended oldfashioned quilting bee at the latter's club room on Thursday afternoon, there being a goodly crowd in atten-

At the close of the work period, tea was served. Under the auspices of the War Workers' League, an enjoyable dance was held in the assembly hall of the mew I.O.O.F. temple. . The pupils of Stone street school have started a commendable project in the cultivation of a plot of ground at the rear of the school in the line of increased production. Their work so far is of a decidedly high class order and reflects credit on all concerned. Capt, McRay, of Welland, is in town, fitting out the Grey Bird. formerly the steamer Capt. Visger. for the use of the Ontario government in the fishing protection service on Lake Erie. When completed he will take the boat to her destination. Lieut.-Col. Gillespie, of Kingston, inspected the local corps of high school cadets on the school campus of Wednesday afternoon.

There was not a very large attendance at the town hall for the continuation of the adjourned meeting of May 12th, for the purpose of arranging details for a local baseball league for this season. These officers were elected: Hon. pres. Mayor W. J. Wilson; president, G. A. Hudson; vice president, James Lattimore; sec, treas., William Pratt; executive committee, Jos. A. Case, Wilfrid Morgan, Joseph Bentham and Garnet Baker. The question of whether the town puts a team in the St. Lawrence League has been dederred for another week to look after the financial end of the matter. Mrs. John Kevin has been undergoing treatment in Kingston Hospital for the past week.

(From Our Own Correspondent) May 24 .- The officers and members of Cambria Lodge No. 126, Sons of England; turned out in force yesterday morning and paraded to Christ church, where Rev. Mr. Spen-

John Angus Bulloch, Market street, noon. The lady was crossing the Drummond, wife of W. H. Drum- had turned off Princess street and by her many friends. The funeral while the child had her elbows business, although most of the former can ill-afford the loss of the time, as all are busy. A well-known resident of the North Ward, during the latter part of the week, to get ahead of the 30c a gal-Ion tax on beer, obtained a small keg but on taking it home to place in his barn, his wife made serious objection, and in the mix up which en sued, Chief Chevis was notified, and appearing on the scene confiscated keg and contents, and commandeer ed a wheelbarrow to transport it to police headquarters, pending an investigation of the case before the police magistrate. John Mallette is building a handsome thirty-five-foot cruiser for C. C. Skinner, which will be fitted out on h.p. Scripp engine, and make a fine addition to the local motor fleet. Mr. Bryant, of Collingwood, has the Gananoque Reporter. Miss Loretta O'Connor, of Toronto her father, T. D. O'Connor, Charles six months at Miami, Florida, have ardly" manner. arrived here and opened up their summer home, "Suits Us," on Hay Island.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Haigh and Dr. J. E. Haigh, of Philadelphia, Pa., ar- ing by Bert Couper, organist and rived during the past few days to spend the summer at their cottage on Tremont Park.

has entered Kingston Business Col- (Shelly), "O Worship the King" lege to take a commercial course. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kent and Miss Kent, of Montclair, N.J., are spending a week here getting their summer residence. "The Poplars," at Lindsay early date. Mrs. Dr. C. H. Bird, for the past month undergoing treatment at St Vincent de Paul Hospital, Brockville, has returned home to recuperate. Mrs. Alfred Kenny and family, Victoria avenue, left for Oshawa during the past week to join Mr. Kenny, who located there some time ago.

A Memorial Service. Pickering, C. J. Graham and Ensign Easson. Miss Mildred Pugh accom-

A VESSEL WENT AGROUND

BLE AT POPLAR POINT

Steamer Released by Donnelly Wreck ing Company, and Was Able to Continue On Her Way-Marine Notes Around Harbor.

The steamer Nevada ran aground after a month's illness. The deceased on Friday near Poplar Point, on was born at Jones' Falls but lived in ing Company was notified, and on He was an engineer for Rathburn Saturday succeeded in pulling the ves | company, of Deseronto, for thirtysel off without damage, and she was five years and assistant engineer at able to proceed on her way to the the Royal Military College for over

The steamer Holcomb loaded | The deceased was a Roman Cathcorn at Richardson's elevator and olic in religion, belonging to St. cleared for Cardinal.

The steamer Buena Vista was in of the Sacred Heart, a charter memport Monday, on her way to Fair- ber of St. Patrick's Society and a

The steamer Missisquoi had to He is survived by a widow and Monday, on account of breaking her son, of Oswego, N.Y., and Mrs. Alfred shaft on Sunday night. The steamer James, of New Rochelle, N.Y., by a had arrived from Cape Vincent and | nephew, Rev. Father Karney, of the side of the wharf to tie up for the niece, Sister Mary Thecla, of the night when the wheel struck a float- | House of Providence, Kingston. The | Kingston hospital on Sunday and the expected that the vessel will be on morning to St. Mary's Cathedral. her run on Tuesday. Passengers for by way of Wolfe Island.

The steamer City of Ottawa, from to Montreal on Sunday.

here on Sunday to Port Corborne. The steamer Joyland passed west to Port Colborne on Sunday.

Montreal, to Port Corborne. The steamer Oatland, grain laden from Port Colborne, passed on her way to Montreal. The steamer "Kingston", from To- Kingston's former residents and the ronto, is at the government drydock last surviving member of a very for repairs and painting The barge Arizona from Erie is at Wellington on Sunday. The deunloading coal at the Locomotive ceased was in her eighty-sixth year,

Montreal called this morning on her | She was a sister of the late Mrs. The steamer Belleville arrived this O'Reilly, of Cornwall. The remains morning from Toronto. After loading freight for bay ports she cleared for her return trip.

A WOMAN AND CHILD KNOCKED DOWN BY AUT

An Accident on Sunday Afternoon in Upper Part of City.

Mrs. Orser and her grand-daughcer gave them a much appreciated ter, who reside at 126 Victoria street, discourse in keeping with the Whit- were knocked down by an automobile at the corner of Princess street and At the home of her daughter, Mrs. University avenue on Sunday afteryesterday morning, after being in street when she and the little girl feeble health for some time past, Mrs. were knocked down by a car which mond, formerly of Perth, passed to was going down University avenue. rest, aged and honored, and beloved The lady suffered a bad shaking up skinned. The lady doce not blame The local manufacturers and mer- the driver, as she saw the car and chants are observing Victoria Day by in her excitement to get out of the closing their factories and places of way she stepped back in front of it.

CARRANZA ASSASSINATED

Mexican President Reported Killed By His Own Men. El Paso, May 24.—President Car- Enterprise. In March 1908 she enter ranza, of Mexico, was assassinated ed the Community of the Sisters of his own men, according to a telegram from General Avaro Obregon, the Order she attended the Normal of Mexico City, received by revolutionary agents here. Carranza was killed by troops un- that time until her illness she was der General Rodolfo Herrera, a for- employed in teaching, having sucmer federal soldier of the Diaz re- cessfully taught in the separate the message from Obregon, schools of Glen Nevis, Trenton, Bel-

'he message from the Carranza Being of a sweet disposition, she was followers said Herrera violated the beloved by her pupils, as well as by hospitality he had offered Carranza all with whom she came in contact. completion with a six-cylinder 75 and that the assassination took place Besides her mother, she is survived with cries of "Viva Obregon" from by one brother and three sisters;

Carranza's chief followers, who a professional nurse in New York, been added to the reportorial staff of were with him when he died, ad- and Mrs. John Hinch, Enterprise. The dressed a message to General Pablo funeral took place from the Church Gonzales protesting the assassination of Our Mother of Sorrows. Solemn is spending a short time in town with of their chief. This message was requiem mass was offered for the retransmitted here by Obregon, with pose of her soul by Rev. A. J. Hanhis answer. The Carranza leaders ley, assisted by Rev. D. R. McDon-Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Zaring, of said Carranza has been made a pri- ald, P.P., of Glen Nevis as deacon, New York, who have spent the past soner and assassinated in a "cow- and Rev. F. D. Hyland, Kingston,

Sacred Musical Recital. A sacred musical recital was hel at St. Luke's church on Sunday even choir director. The programme was rendered in a highly creditable manner. The anthems were "Saviour Miss Cassie McGarry, Oak street, When Night Involes the Skies" (Nicol), "We Would See Jesus" (Brackett) and "Father Keep Us in Thy Care" (Sullvan-Hodges), Solos were "How Lovely are Thy Dwell- For Police to Take Irish Prisoners ings," Mrs. T. W. Morris; "O Divine Point, in readiness for opening at an Redeemer," by Mrs. Horton; "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say." Mrs. A. Bell; "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes," D. Couper. Mr. Graves took been caught raiding a house near the solo in the anthem. Handel's here for arms on Saturday and reduet, "Rock of Ages" (Glover), was tended to transport the men declin-

Service at Home for Aged. A memorial service was held at the Presbyterian church conducted the more was then barricaded with trees find her, notify Mrs. W. H. Kriner, Salvation Army citadel on Sunday service at the Home for the Aged on or stone obstructions, and the lorry Lykens, Pa., or me, Harry Buchanevening for the late Peter Edwards, Sunday afternoon. A splendid musi- had the greatest difficulty getting in- an," Harry implores. an old member of the local corps, cal programme was rendered, which to and out of the town. who died during the week. C. H. included a duet by Kate and Elsie Goodhue spoke of the faithful ser- panied on the plane, and an admirvice of the late comrade during the | able address was given by Jack Elder. thirty odd years he had been a mem- | Mr. McCall led in the devotional part

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY. Local Notes and Items of General In-

The Late James Quigley.

The Late Miss E. O'Reilly.

of the C.N.R. train to St. Mary's

Cathedral, where a solemn mass was sung for the repose of her soul. Interment took place in the family

Death of Sister Mary Stella.

gel of Death visited the House of receive treatment, on February 17th.

'hat she would regain her former past season was not in her favor.

open air she began to decline, and for the last few weeks it became apparent that her earthly pilgrimage was about to close. She passed away peacefully at 8 a.m., surrounded by the sorrowing members of her community. Sister M. Stella was the daughter of the late Daniel Kennedy,

Providence. After her profession in school, Ottawa, obtaining a second class certificate in April 1915. From leville, Perth and lastly in Arnprior.

Vincent and Loretta at home, Birdie,

sub-deacon. There were also present in the sanctuary Rev. Father Joseph,

Donald, of Portsmouth, Rev. D. A.

Casey, of Canadian Freeman, Rev. L.

E. Staley, of Railton. The pall-bearers were students of Regiopolis College: Messrs. W. Dungan, F. Naylon,

E. James, A. Eccles, T. Gallivan, C.

WOULDN'T MOVE TRAIN

Sligo Jail. (Canadian Press Despatch)

land, May 24.—After three men had Cheap Rates for Marriage.

giving of such a liberal discount."

per dozen at. Carnovsky's.

early in June.

Five Sizes of Pineapples

Ballinmore, County Leitrim, Ire-

Nolan. There were nurmerous spiritual offerings.

On Friday, the 21st inst., the An-plot, St. Mary's cemetery.

James Quigley died Sunday morn-

Miss Maud Burtch left for Toronto o-day, after visiting her mother

Two drunks who were in the Police court on Monday were remanded until Wednesday. Mrs. T. M. Connor left for Toronto her sister, Mrs. O. Burtch. Sergt.-Major Hall, R.C.E., Ottawa, her way west. The Donnelly Wreck- Kingston the greater part of his life. has come to Kingston and assumes the duties as foreman of works. Pies and cakes come under the new luxury tax, and people buying these foods have to pay an additional five

> Lieut, A. Hughson, of the R.C.E., left on Monday for Petawawa where he will be camp engineer during the Mary's Cathedral and to the League

> > John Glassford passed away in

Miss May Spratt, Queen street, left to-day for Elizabeth, N.J., where member of the C.M.B.A. she will be the guest of Mrs. J. cancel her trips to Cape Vincent on two daughters, Mrs. Francis W. Jack- Clenahan, formerly of Kingston. Sunday night's rain shower, the first in two weeks or more, was welcomed, light as it was. A whole day was in the act of going to the north Redemption Order of Toronto, and a of rain is needed for the crops.

ing log breaking her shaft. It was funeral is to take place on Tuesday remains were sent to Thamesville by James Reid, undertaker, on Monday, On Monday the police were asked Cape Vincent on Monday went over Late Mrs. Henderson, Wolfe Island. to be on the look-out for Edward Mrs. Sarah Henderson, wife of the Sweet, who disappeared from his late William Henderson, Jr., died on home on Wellington street, on Sat-Toronto and Hamilton, passed down May 24th, at her home on Wolfe urday, May 15th. Island, after an illness of six months. Most of the stores were open on The steamers Maplegorge and The deceased, who was sixty-eight Monday. This is the first 24th of Maplegreen from Montreal, passed years of age, is survived by four chil- May in sixty years that Kingston dren, Mrs. P. McDiarmid and Mrs. has not observed in some way. Gov-William Keyes, of Wolfe Island, ernment and civic offices and banks Henry Henderson, of Evans Mills, were closed. N.Y., and Robert, of Philadelphia, It is proposed by headquarters to N.Y. The funeral takes place on hold an annual district rifle shoot in Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock. September in Kingston, when teams > tions throughout the district will Miss Elizabeth O'Reilly, one of compete. Ezra Pero, Westbrooke, appeared before Justice of the Peace George highly respected family, passed away Hunter, on Monday morning, charged with obtaining goods under misrepresentation and was remanded until and members from all the associa-

and her death occurred at the resi-Wednesday morning. The steamer City of Hamilton from | dence of her niece, Mrs. Mandeville. It was announced in Montreal that sugar would retail at thirty cents James Harty, and an aunt of Judge this week. Sugar is now selling here at twenty-two cents a pound, and were brought to Kingston, and the dealers had no word of an advance funeral took place upon the arrival

Mrs. Annie O'Brien, an aged inmate of the House of Providence. passed away at that institution on Sunday. The funeral is to take place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Harrfs, 193 Montreal street.

The old board walks in Tete de

Pont barracks are being removed and will be replaced by concrete walks. Providence, calling to her reward a Mr. Godwin has the contract to lay devoted, promising young religious the concrete. Charles Morden has in the person of Sister Mary Stella. the contract to point all the walls The deceased sister was stricken and has men engaged on the work. with influenza in January last while Rev. J. D. Ellis, in his sermon at teaching in the Separate school of Queen street Methodist church on Arnprior. She came to the Mother Sunday, made fitting references to House, Kingston, for a rest and to the long connection that the late Rev. Dr. Kilborn had with that For some time hope was entertained church. During his college course and his life work as a missionary in robust health and be able to resume China his name has stood as associher duties, but the dampness of the ated with Queen street church. He also retained his connection with the When no longer able to go out in the

ENCOURAGING BUILDING

Montreal conference through this

The Kingston Council Has Shown Its Progressiveness.

The passing by the ratepayers of Kingston of a by-law exempting from axes up to $2,500 for a period of ve years all dwellings erected on acant lots during this year and next. a measure of assistance in dealing th the housing problem that might be adopted in other cities. The Kingston council has shown its progressiveness by submitting such a bylaw and the ratepayers have indicated their approval in a decisive manner by registering a vote of five to one in favor of the measure. The watched with a great deal of inter-The situation not only in Kingston, but in every other municipality in Ontario is such as to necessitate many inducements of this kind before any substantial building programme may be expected. The Kingston authorities deserve credit for their attempt to encourage building operations and for having made a more sincere attempt to deal with the problem than have the councils of St. Mary's of the Lake, Rev. M. Mc-Tricked By Little Girls. New York, May 24.—It is a sad, sad story that two little Irisi Amo of fourteen and ten have been telling in several Wall Street offices. Their father had been killed in the war and they had just arrived penniless from Ireland. They brought some "genuine" Irish lace, made by their grandmother. They hated to part with it, but they did-at $1 a yard. But later the purchasers learned the lace was machine made and could be bought for thirty cents a yard.

many other cities and towns.

Harry Lost a Curio. Harrisburg, Pa., May 24 .- A pathetic appeal has come to the police here from Harry Buchanan of Read-"Largo" was beautifully rendered as manded to Sligo jail, the engine driv- ing, whose bride is missing. The a violin solo by Miss D. Johnston. A er of the train on which the police in- bride is described by the deserted husband as being a "bleached sung by Mrs. Horton and Mr. Rose. ed to move the train. The police were | blonde", twenty-two years old, who forced to keep the prisoners here un- wore a "black scream hat" when she til Sunday, when a military lorry was disappeared, and who has the Lord's The young people of Cooke's sent for. Every road into Ballina- prayer tattoed on her back. "If you

> A Funny Little Pig. Batavia, N.Y., May 24.-A pig Bridgeton, N.J., May 24 .- Rev. J. with three eyes, two snouts, two Messler, a Methodist clergyman, mouths and two tongues, all funchas made public the following no- tioning 100 per cent, was born on a tice : "Owing to the high cost of farm near here, according to a veraliving, I desire to give notice that clous farmer. Neighbors who have a liberal discount of twenty per cent. seen this porcine wonder insist that will be given to all parties seeking | they have not had a drink for a long, to be joined in the bonds of matri- long time.

> mony, providing the fee justifies the Charges that millions of pounds of sugar were being hoarded in Chicago, and that the sugar shortage could be $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50 ended if proper measures were taken, were made by Alderman Adamowski, chairman of the city council Three additional degrees will be committee on the high cost of living conferred by the University of Tor- | committee. onto: L.L.D. upon Gen. Townshend. Friends in Carleton Place were and D.Sc. upon G. H. Duggan, Mont-saddened last week by the news of real and Prof. A. H. Burnstead, Yale the death at the home of her son in Cochrane of Mrs. Annie Penny, relict Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fanning, of the late Cornellus Penny, of Carle-

Carleton Place, announce the en- ton Place. gagement of their only daughter, Rev. S. G. Brown, Almonte, has re-Martha Louise, to Roy C. Gilmour, ceived word that his mother, who Almonte, the marriage to take place lives at Bowmanville, is seriously ill. She is ninety years of age.

TO GUARD INDIAN WOMEN

Chatham Methodists Want Government to Enforce the Curfew Law. Chatham, May 24.-At a meeting of Chatham district of the Methodist Church, a resolution was passed asking the Government to render assistance to the officials of Walpole Island Indian reserve, in an effort to protect the morals of the young Indian women of the island, especially to-day, after spending a week with to enforce the curfew law which prohibits white men from visiting the reserve between sunset and sunrise. The delegates also deplored the spreading of the smoking habit

PROTECT YOUR FURS

Now that the warm weather has arrived, it's up to you to get busy and put your Furs safely away from the ravages of the moths, etc. We can supply you with the proper materials for protection, such as Wayne Cedared Paper Wardrobes, Wilson's Moth Bags, Camphor Flakes, Moth Balls and Ofl of Cedar.

Corner Princess and Montreal Streets. Telephone 41.

Better Shoe Shop For Men and Women 184 Princess St.

Meeting the demand for Women's Low Shoes, in Brown Calf, Black Kid or Patent Colt.

> WHITE CANVAS PUMPS AND OXFORDS In high, medium or low heels, now in stock. MEN'S OXFORDS in all the newest styles. Shoes of the best quality.

THE SAWYER SHOE STORE

It's Easy to Pay the Abramsky Way

Real Service at ABRAMSKY'S. We have just recorded the biggest Spring Business in our his tory. There's a Reason-Genuine Service serving you with the best merchandise and newest styles at lowest prices, on liberal CREDIT TERMS. Better come here and learn for yourself why it pays to trade with Abramsky's.

Just Arrived

A large shipment of wonderful Summer Dresses, Voiles and Silk, combined in the latest creations. Prices from $13.50 to $22.50

One visit will convince you of our honest to goodness values.

J. ABRAMSKY

Across from Public Utilities.

263-265 PRINCESS STREET

"HAVE YOUR PURCHASE CHARGED"

DRINKS FOR SUMMER

Guaranteed to equal any Drinks Made in Canada. ORANGE CRUSH ...... Made from pure Fruit LEMON CRUSH ...... Made from pure Fruit

(Direct from California) There is nothing added to the Fruit Juices but Carbonated Water. Belfast Ginger Ale, Dry Ginger Ale, English Ginger Beer.

Phone 304 for a case.