RHEUMATISM FOR OVER 16 YEARS.

No Return Of The Trouble Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

108 CHURCH ST., MONTREAL.
"I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists; took medicine; used lotions; but nothing did me good. Then I began to use "Fruit-a-tives", and in 15 days the pain was easier and the Rheumatism much better. Gradually, "Fruit-a-tives" overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. I cordially recommend this fruit medicine to all sufferers."

LOVE and MARRIED LIFE by the noted author Idah McGione Gibson

JOHN WANTS MONEY.
"I'm glad he's gone," said John as Charles left us.
"Why, you told him you'd like to have him stay," I said.
"Well, he bores me to death. I'd have never gone down to the oil fields if you had gotten someone in whom I had confidence to take care of your business."
"You wrote me from down there that Charles had done as well as anyone could do."
"Yes, I think he did," said John reluctantly. "But he's too suave, too gentle—I like to talk and act straight from the shoulder when I do business."
"Does it seem to get you any further than Charles?"
"Oh, I don't know. But I do know this, that his way always lets the other fellow think he's putting it over on you and I don't want any man that I'm doing business with to think that."
"Isn't that a little egotistical, John?" I asked. "Sometimes I am not sure but that it helps in business to let the other man think he is putting something over on you. I would rather put a deal through as you call it than to rub the other man the wrong way and lose out."
"I don't very often lose out, Katherine," said John sulkily.
"Not you in particular?"
"I wasn't speaking of you in particular, John, but I do hate to have you prejudiced against Charles just because his method is different from yours."
"Well, I don't believe he has ever made any money in his life. He has done well if he's been able to keep what his father left him."
"That's where you're mistaken, John. The estate that Charles' father left him was very much in debt and is worth probably a quarter of a million dollars now."
"Good Lord, he's very modest about it! I wouldn't think he had quarter million cents, except that he spends money rather generously if unostentatiously."
"I'll bet, John, that Charles knows exactly how much money you've got."
"No, he doesn't," exclaimed John somewhat ruefully. "because I haven't got enough to talk about. I've been plunging on the market lately more than I should and I dropped a lot of money within the week. And then I had that house on my hands you know, Katherine. By the way, another payment is coming up day after tomorrow. I promised to pay them $5,000 a month until it was paid for, you know."
"I didn't know anything of the kind, John—you didn't tell me anything about it. How long before the house will be paid for at that rate?"
"It cost $75,000 and I gave them $15,000 down—the balance in $5,000 payments."
"But John, I don't think we should own a $75,000 house."
"My dear, I expected you to be a millionaire and, as such, we should have the finest house in town, of course."
"How much money have you already paid on the house, John?"
"Twenty-five thousand dollars."
"Well, I expect we'll have to live in it," I said with a sigh.
"I won't live in it," said John gloomily. "If I'm not able to make the next payment. How much money have you got in the bank?"
"None."
"But, Katherine—you had $5,000 in there the other day."
"I had $10,000, my dear John, and you drew out $5,000 as you said to pay up some debts down at the oil fields."
"I paid that $5,000 on the house. Charles had paid up all the old field debts when I arrived."
"But John, I don't want Charles to pay out his money for us."
"I told him not to be a fool," said John unhesitatingly. "but he said that you were his only relative and he was anxious to save you any trouble. I told him to send the bill into us and we would pay it as soon as we could."
"Reason Becomes Apparent of Now I knew the reason why Charles had told me not to let John have the rest of my money, and I more than ever determined to keep that $2,500."
"What did you do with the money you have been making lately?" I asked in return.
"That has nothing to do with the case. But I can't see where you would have a chance to spend so much money."
"That has nothing to do with the case."
"To-morrow—John Thoughtfulness.

AT SHARBOT LAKE.

FAINT AND DIZZY SPELLS
WEAKNESS AND SHORTNESS OF BREATH
You can generally tell when the heart is affected by the faint and dizzy spells, the shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensations, weak, sinking, all-gone feeling, choking sensation, etc.
Many men and women become run-down and worn out when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first sign of heart weakness. No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy and normal condition as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.
Mrs. C. A. S. Drake, Paris, Ont., writes:—"I have used on towards the second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and find they have done me good. I had those fainting, dizzy spells, once in a while, and also weakness and shortness of breath, and would become so choked up at times I could hardly sleep without sitting up in bed. When walking too fast I would have to stop and try to catch my breath. I feel a lot better since I have used your pills and know that they have helped me wonderfully as I have improved very much."
Price 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto.

Sifton Gives $1,000 to Fund.
Calgary, Alta., May 31.—One thousand dollars has been given by Hon. A. L. Sifton, secretary of state, toward a fund that is being raised by the University of Alberta for the purpose of helping returned soldiers in their studies.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Burnham have returned from Florida, where they have spent the winter. Mrs. A. W. Shanks was visiting her sister, Mrs. Sowden, Toronto, last week. Rev. P. C. Watson is in Kingston for a few days on business, while Mrs. Watson is visiting in Smith's Falls. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Thomson left Monday night for Toronto. John Scott is making good progress with his new house. H. C. Lee is improving his property by the addition of a new verandah.
The milk condensary is in full swing, large numbers of cans of cream arriving on each train. Two churnings were put through to-day. Work on the new bridge, which was delayed for want of material, is now under way. Several piles are down and capped. Traffic was held up for a short time to-day, but is once more normal.
The young people spent an enjoyable time at the dance in Buell's hall on the night of the 24th. Judging from the noise, the younger people had a good time with fireworks. Mrs. M. Shaw, of Brockville, with her baby son, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. M. Pappa.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Cannon and Miss Ada, of Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Camp, of Montreal; R. Robinson, of Toronto. Among those whose homes are here, but who are living away and returned home for the holiday, were Miss Mildred and Miss Pearl Grey, Miss Lillie Allen, Bert Buell and Norman Blakely and family.
