LAWN SOCIAL AT MOWAT

TWO HUNDRED PEOPLE GUESTS OF THE SOLDIER PATIENTS

Presentations Made To Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Crothers—A Very Pleasant Event

The lawn social at the Mowat hospital, Tuesday evening was a decided success. Over two hundred people were the guests of the patients of this institution. The lawn was beautifully decorated with streamers of flags and lighted with various colored electric lights. An impromptu platform was erected and seats provided for the guests who enjoyed the delightful programme.

A pleasant feature was the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Crothers, lately returned from their honeymoon, of three beautiful gifts. Mr. Crothers is discipline officer of the hospital. Dr. Mackay on behalf of the staff presented the happy couple with a handsome tea wagon. Mr. Haycock on behalf of the patients presented a dainty sherry set of cut glass. Dr. Hopkins and Mrs. Hopkins gave them a silver entree dish. Mr. Crothers replied in a suitable manner.

George Smith acted as chairman and an interesting programme was given. Salisbury's orchestra, say their verbal selections; Miss Pollard, a solo; Mr. Murphy and Mr. Buckett, solos; Mr. Yeoman, violin selection; Duncan Brown, instrumental; Mr. Andrews and Mr. Hart, a sketch. Miss Barnes and Mr. Hall played the accompaniments.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served to the guests, the patients assisted by the nursing sisters, and ladies of the staff. Much of the success of this event is due to the work of the entertainment committee. Messrs. Andrews, H. Blake, C. Hart, Curragh W. Barnes and Beare. The patients of the Mowat Sanatorium are to be heartily congratulated on their first lawn social this year and the way they entertained their guests.

METHODIST REPORT DISCLOSES GAIN

Encouraging Statistics Presented at Conference—Receipts $1,084,417.

The election of delegates to the ecumenical conference in London next year, by the Montreal Methodist Conference, resulted in the choice of J. W. Knox, Montreal, with a vote of 98 out of 113 ballots cast. Rev. A. A. Radley was elected as reserve and Rev. George S. Clendinning second reserve delegate.

A net increase in membership in the church of 1,393 was reported by Rev. Mr. Shaver. Members received into the conference numbered 4,284; members removed, 2,911. The total membership in the conference today was 42,797, as against 41,404 a year ago. There were altogether 23,901 families. There had been 1,427 marriages by Methodist ministers and 1,863 burials. There were at present 492 preaching places. Total receipts in the year had amounted to $1,084,417, all of which money, in accordance with the system of the church, had been expended.

At a special meeting of the conference branch of the Wesleyan Theological College alumnae, held in Leslie Hall, J. S. Eagleson, Ottawa, was elected president; Rev. Charles H. Brown, Manotick, secretary-treasurer.

Rev. G. A. McIntosh, Ottawa, was appointed secretary of the examining board in succession to Rev. W. S. Lennon. In the matter of recreation and amusements the memorial committee reaffirmed the position taken by the general conference, urging members of the church against entering into any pleasures that might compromise Christian character. The committee expressed conviction that not less, but more wholesome recreation was needed in community life, and recommended that the conference co-operate with the Social Service Council of Ontario in regard to establishing community centres where clean, healthy and wholesome environment should be established. The report on the superannuation fund showed an increase of $3,000 in the year in income.

MEETING OF THE W.C.T.U.

To Send Bale of Clothing to the Indians.

The W.C.T.U. met in the Y.W.C.A. parlors on Tuesday afternoon for their last regular meeting until September. The first vice-president, Mrs. MacCallum presided.

A resolution was passed asking the members to send clothing to complete a bale which the society is sending on June 21st to the Indians. This clothing is distributed to the Indians when they make their annual trip to Fort William. Several quilts have been made by the W.C.T.U. to send in this bale but more clothing is needed and it was felt that the members would gladly respond to this urgent need.

The ladies are planning to assist in the referendum work in the fall. Mrs. Wilson reported that over 3,000 wrappers had been sent towards the support of the Traveller's Aid Work. This fund enables the Society to help and protect women and girls travelling alone to the cities.

Strand Theatre, Kingston, June 9, 1920.

Dear Miss Reader: "Huckleberry Finn," Mark Twain's masterpiece, has been made into a Paramount Artcraft picture. We're showing it the last half of this week. It has a wonderful cast, and has been produced exactly as it was written. All the atmosphere of the Mississippi, of the south before the war, brought back again! It's one of the big treats of the season.—Advt.

At Napanee on Tuesday, the case of Warren Hawley, of Enterprize, charged with abusing and causing bodily harm to a ward of the Kingston Orphans' Home, was adjourned until the General Sessions in December on the account of the illness of one of the important witnesses for the defence. Judge Lavell presided at the Court.

THE R.M.C. MANOEUVRES

A COMMUNIQUE IS RECEIVED FROM KINGSTON MILLS.

The Cadets Met With Strong Opposition From The Enemy, and Were Forced to Retire.

The following communication has been received from the press correspondent's camp with the R.M.C. Field Force: "Kingston Mills Tuesday, June 8, 1920.

"Headquarters yesterday morning received orders to send reinforcements to Washburn, which has lately been threatened with envelopment by the enemy. The command staff of the R.M.C. gave orders for the Field Force to be despatched as quickly as possible. It marched off at 9 a.m. under the command of B.S.M. Adams, who was acting O.C. of the Field Force. Shortly after 1 p.m. the officer commanding the advanced guard, informed the officer commanding that he was held up at the cross roads at 'C 36 C 88' and messages received reported that the enemy appeared to be in force. He asked for reinforcements to enable the advance to brush aside the opposition met with along the Washburn road. Heavy fighting ensued, and in spite of the gallant efforts of the field force, it was found that the left flank was in serious danger of envelopment. Further reinforcements were sent up from the main body to protect this flank.

"There was further heavy fighting and it became evident that the enemy was much superior to our own force. The O.C. determined to carry out his instructions if possible and decided to make a retirement through Kingston Mills and endeavor to reach Washburn, via the Barrieffield road. An orderly retirement was effected in spite of heavy firing from enemy machine guns. The casualties were heavy, but the greatest gallantry was displayed throughout. Two important accidents marked the retirement. A prominent young officer well known to Kingston citizens, was captured, with all of his section. In addition to this one platoon that had been rather bunched on the bridge C 29 C 70 was decimated by the enemy's fire. A strong defensive position was taken up in the vicinity of Kingston Mills, on to which the retiring force held back. As night was approaching outposts were posted and the force bivouacked near the cross roads at D 33 C Central. In case of heavy marching and hard fighting throughout the day the morale of the men was as high as ever and the night passed without incident."

ODESSA DRAMATIC SOCIETY

Presented Two Comedies in St. Luke's Hall Tuesday Evening

On Tuesday evening the Odessa Dramatic Society presented "The Blundering Mr. Brown" and "The Teaser."

B. G. Hanson made a distinct hit as the "Blundering Mr. Brown," while Mrs. J. E. Mabee, as "Mrs. Brown," handled her blundering husband in an admirable manner. The role of Miss Clara Brown was ably played by Miss Marion McClintch, while Bessie Brown was cleverly portrayed by Mrs. Walter Snider. W. S. Clark as Dr. Horton certainly made a hit with the audience.

Mrs. W. S. Clark as Maggie, the servant girl, kept the audience in an uproar. Jack Armstrong, the lucky man, was appreciatively played by Walter Snider. G. H. Renner was the policeman.

In the presentation of "The Teaser," a rural comedy in three acts, there were the same players assisted by J. Schemmerhorn as Dr. Thorp, and S. W. Clark as Ebenezer Randall the villain of the play, whose plans to get Mrs. Marion Fleming's daughter and estate into his possession were frustrated by co-operation of Arnold Hays, played by W. G. Clarke, and the doctor. The dance and songs by Miss Todd (Mrs. Clark) and Urantah Higgins (G. H. Renner) were exceptionally funny.

The part of Mrs. Fleming was played by Miss J. E. Mabee, while Mrs. Walter Snider handled that of Fleming's daughter.

The dramatic ability of the Odessa people was greatly appreciated by the St. Luke's people, judging from the amount of applause. The musical part of the programme was played by On-We-Glide orchestra from Napanee.

After the performance the Odessa Society was served with a dainty lunch by the girls of Mrs. Connor's Bible class.
