Must Install Plant.

The Provincial Board of Health has ordered the town of Smith's Falls to install a filtration plant immediately.

Is Now Operating.

The coaling station at Cape Vincent, N.Y., constructed during the last year by the Pyke Salvage company, Kingston, Ont., is now operating, able to supply fuel to all lake craft.

He Goes to Pembroke.

S. M. Brum, teller of the Royal Bank, Perth, received word that he has been transferred to the Pembroke branch. J. M. Craik, Napanee, takes Mr. Brum's place.

Still Looking Forward.

Mrs. Harriet Tomkins, who lives with her son, Frank at Newburgh, celebrated the nineteenth anniversary of her birth on Monday. The old lady seems fit to look forward to anniversaries yet to come.

A Quiet Wedding.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Brownville, N.Y., June 22nd, when Mabel Grace, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Luman, Kingston, became the bride of Arthur Warren of Brownville, N.Y.

Other Complications.

Miss Hunt, Athens, is confined to her bed, a new complication having arisen from the results of injuries received some years ago on a railway accident in New York when she received such terrible injuries.

Robbed of Auto Tires.

Col. Phillips, who resides on Union street, reported to the police that his automobile left standing in front of his home on Monday night had been stripped of three tires. An endeavor is being made to trace the missing articles.

What About Your Order?

For a few days only we will sell about thirty pieces of men's suit lengths, worsted and Scotch tweed, regular prices, $50 and $55, which we will make to measure for $40 and guarantee class fit. Provost Clothing House, Brock street.

Have the Power Property.

Almonte is now in possession of the valuable Wylie power and mill property, and will take steps to have the fact thoroughly well advertised. H. H. Cole and his committee which has had the purchase under its care, will take charge of the advertising.

Case Dismissed.

On Saturday S. Hollingsworth, Athens, appeared before Judge Dowseley charged with obtaining money by false pretences. The action was the outcome of a sale of a horse against which a lien note was held. The animal was returned and the case dismissed.

C.N.R. Freight at G.T.R.

The C.N.R. freight is handled at the G.T.R. freight sheds now. This arrangement was completed on Monday. The travelling auditors of the C.P.R., C.N.R., and G.T.R., have for several days been engaged in arranging the details and transfer from one system to another.

Only Three Appeals.

appeals from the decisions of the court of revision which heard appeals from the assessment as imposed by C. K. Grigg. Two of the appeals are by Messrs. Peter and James McCallum, and the third is by E. H. Knight.

Had Glaring Lights.

The police have issued summonses against five citizens for using glaring lights on their automobiles. Although it is against the rules of the auto traffic to have lights of this type there are many drivers who ignore the rule, and there is trouble in store for those who do.

Transferred to Reserve.

The Canada Gazette announces that lieutenant (supernumerary) and brevet Major T. W. MacDowell, V.C., D.S.O., of the Brockville Rifles, has been transferred to the corp reserve, the Ottawa Regiment (The Duke of Cornwall's Own).

Have Reached The City.

Rev. W. S. Lennon and family reached Queen street Methodist church parsonage this afternoon and found everything ready for their reception. Mr. Lennon will at once assume his duties as pastor of the church and chairman of Kingston Methodist district.

Leaving For The West.

H. T. J. Coleman, dean of the Faculty of Education at Queen's, left today for Saskatoon, Sask., where he will participate for six weeks in a summer school to be carried on at the University of Saskatchewan. Dr. Coleman will later visit the Pacific Coast and go to Spokane, Wash., to see his parents.

Purchased an Interest.

Ernest Collier, Picton, has purchased an interest in the Sand Banks summer resort business and he and Mrs. Collier are now at the Lake Shore House assisting in the management. Several improvements have been made in the popular summer hotel and a good season's business is looked for.

Whig a Dear Old Friend.

Mrs. P. E. 123 Division street, Saginaw, Mich., writes the Whig: "The British Whig is a very dear old friend to me; it is the first paper I have any recollection of as a child. My father received the Whig at our home regularly, a Harrow, Ont., and it also comes to mine over here and there is no paper I enjoy more."

Had Auto Decorated.

An automobile going down to the wharf at the foot of Brock street, created much attention early Tuesday afternoon, owing to its strange decorations and it was ascertained that the decorations were due to the fact that a bride and groom were being whisked off on their honeymoon. In addition to a grand display of white ribbon a string of old tin cans formed a "trailer."

Engagements Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kimmett, Roblin, announce the engagement of their niece, Myrtle Elizabeth Young, to Percy S. Vine, Napanee, the ceremony to take place on Wednesday, June 30th.

The engagement is announced of Carrie A. Philip, Perth, to Robert H. Longmore, Hubbard, Sask., the marriage to take place quietly on June 29th.

Death of a Nonagenarian.

Saturday evening one of Brockville's oldest citizens answered the last call—Reference is made to Wm. Holmes, sr. He had not been in the best of health for some weeks and in the end passed peacefully away. The late William Holmes was a native of Edwardsham, England. He was a nonagenarian, having been born in February, 1830.

Seriously Injured.

A serious accident occurred on Thursday at the Colonial Lumber Company, Pembroke, when Arthur Hopper, an old employee of the company, was kicked by a horse and sustained such serious injuries that his recovery is doubtful. Hopper was stooping under the horse adjusting some piece of harness when the horse kicked him. Two ribs and his jawbone were broken. It is feared that his eyesight may also be injured.

Two Marriages At Athens.

Two interesting events took place in Athens, Wednesday, when two Athenian girls were wedded. Miss Blanche Estella McLean was united in marriage to Dr. Ambrose Gerald McGhie, Cayuga, Ont., at the home of her uncle, T. G. Stevens, and in the afternoon in the Methodist church Miss Frances Betty, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rowsome, was married to Dr. Garner Harrison Wright, Seattle, Wash. Both marriages were of a quiet nature.

Miss Locklin Honored.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alpine Woods, Napanee, was filled to capacity Saturday evening, when students of the N.I.L. met to three words of farewell to Miss Locklin, who has accepted a splendid position in Ottawa. Raymond Fodgers read the address, and Miss Pearl Vanalstein presented her, on behalf of the students, with a beautiful club bag. Miss Locklin, although greatly surprised, made a most appropriate reply.

This Employer Wanted a Lot.

Can you hear this? The superintendent of the local employment bureau has had many problems to solve, but, after receiving this one he took the day off. An employer wrote to him asking for a good boiler man about forty-five years of age, who must be expert at steam fitting, machinery repairing, electrical repairing, carpenter work and plumbing. Moreover he must be capable, reliable and furnish excellent references. All this for $28 a week. Finally as a last qualification, he must be married!

Died in Iowa.

The death is recorded of Reuben S. Howell at Sanborn, Iowa, on May 22nd, aged seventy-six years. He suffered for five months from heart failure. He was born and married in Prince Edward county and went west in 1883. He is survived by his aged mother, who resides at Demorestville, Ont., now in her ninety-eighth year, three sisters, Mrs. Georgiana Parliament, Castlewood, S.D., Mrs. Cole, Cherry Valley, Ont., Mrs. Dora Wilson, Detroit, Mich., and one brother, Frank Howell, of Demorestville, Ont. He is also survived by three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
