OGDENSBURG, N.Y.

Montreal over a year ago. The last will and testament of Mr. Hall was probated in St. Lawrence county shortly after his death and left a large sum of money for the establishment of an industrial school here, and also for the care and maintenance of the Helen Hall memorial academy, which he gave to the city. Some other public bequests were made. A bequest of $200,000 was left in trust for his widow, Matilda L. Hall, during her life. In addition to this $200,000 Mrs. Hall claims that she is entitled to one-half of her husband's entire estate.

At that time she claimed one-half of the property and asked that the same be set off to her on the ground that Mr. Hall was incompetent to manage his affairs. The case was brought on for trial in Montreal and a judgment was entered in favor of Mr. Hall and against Mrs.
