IT IS DIFFICULT TO STAMP OUT THE TRAFFIC

It Is Up to the United States Authorities to Check the Smuggling of Liquor From Canada.

fits from bootlegging are what they are, and the only deterrent is a fine of $200 or so there will be big money in the bootlegging game and it will be very difficult for the authorities on either side of the international line to stamp out the traffic.

That is the summary of opinions expressed by Ottawa officials as to the situation regarding smuggling of liquor from Canada to the United States, Further, high officials of the Royal, Canadian Mounted Police say that while they are doing all in their power to check infractions of the federal laws on this side, it is really for the American authorities to see that liquor does not reach the thirsty souls beyond the imaginary line 3, 000 miles long.

The situation apparently is that from three provinces in particular to the United States, These are Ontario, Quebec and British Columbia. At the same time a respectable quantity of fiery liquid is finding its way across from the Maritime Provinces and from Manitoba.

Quebec, it is stated, is the mecca. for thirsty thousands of Americans every week-end, and automobiles passing back and forth carry their loads of human and other freight bound for the Sahara across the border. Under these conditions, Canadian police authorities admit that it is practically impossible to enforce the stringent liquor laws at present in force.

The chief reason for the difficulty
