HAD A FINE LIST OF EVENTS FOR CHILDREN.

The Princess Street Methodist Church Sunday School Had a Real Fine Time on Tuesday.

Princess street Methodist church Sunday school held its annual picnic to Brophy's Point, Tuesday afternoon, where a crowd of over three hundred people enjoyed the lovely Resident Engineer, Napanee, and afternoon weather. After the steamer Wolfe Islander reached the picnic grounds, games were played until supper time. This was one of the big events and, although there was cured satisfaction. After the jolly The lowest or any tender not neces- spread on the grass, the races were run, followed by a scramble for candy and peanuts. Rev. J. A. Waddell, W. Gilmour and G.
