HATS VERY SMALL OR LARGE

Advance Models of Season Show Well-Marked Tendencies and Some Novelties.

The advance hats for spring show many indications of the coming fashions, some well-marked tendencies and The refreshments consisted of ice some novelties. These novelties, from the very fact of their entire newness, are apt to remain novelties and to lack definite influence on the mode. Many of the first spring hats of the season are made up rather to interest and attract the foreign buyer. Later a more consertive charm marks the millinery fashion both in France and America, after they have been modified by the influence of welldressed women.

Several general tendencies may be noted. Hats are either very small or of quite large proportions. This does returning. The Frenchwoman does eliminate existing differences not look well in a very large hat, unrest though it is often becoming to her the hat is small it is almost sure to have a tuft of something sticking out sharply at one side. > Mrs. Thomas G. Gillespie Dead. Mary E. McCaw/ wife of the late Thomas G. Gillespie, died quite unexpectedly at her home in Picton Monday afternoon. Mrs. Gillespie had not been enjoying good health recently but there was nothing to indicate that the end was so near. She had been about the house and had conversed with the neighbors who were frequently in to look after her welfare. She was apparently taking a rest on a couch, her usual custom, when death came. Mrs. Gillespie was the only sister of Messrs, W. W. Mc-Caw, Picton, Leslie McCaw and Ed.
