TOOK MAJORITY OF PRIZES

KINGSTON BOWLERS WERE SUCCESSFUL AT BELLEVILLE

"Grandads Team" Showed Up Well in the Competition—Bowlers Enjoyed Belleville's Hospital Very Much.

Kingston bowlers who attended the second annual tournament of the Central Ontario Lawn Bowling Association at Belleville this week, returned from the Bay City on Wednesday evening very elated because they had been successful in capturing the majority of the prizes. Out of a total of thirty-nine prizes, the local bowlers were able to bring in twenty and returned laden with silverware, cut glass and mahogany.

The outing, according to the local devotees, was very enjoyable and the efforts of Mayor Rigg, Robert Wray, secretary of the association, and other members who could hardly do enough for the members of the various teams. Twenty-eight rinks were entered from Peterboro, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Port Hope, Niagara, Deseronto and Kingston, with a total of 112 players contesting for honors.

H. W. Newman's rink took the honors in the Ackerman competition and captured the beautiful silver cup presented this year by H. Ackerman as well as four Thermos bottles. Dr. R. E. Sparks' rink were runners-up in this competition and were defeated in the last round by Mr. Newman's rink. However, as second prizes they were awarded four handsome mahogany trays. It is worthy of note that Dr. Sparks' rink was known on the green as "grandads team" because all the members have grandchildren who can swing on their knees. Despite their venerable ages, nevertheless, the patriarchs were able to show some of the youngsters on the green a few things about bowling and they put up some of the strongest games that were played.

In the competition for the Ritchie cup J. M. Elliott's rink took second place, being defeated in the finals, and were awarded four silver sugar bowls.

The Kingston bowlers did remarkably well in the doubles competition being sure of the first three prizes, M. Manahan and J. N. MacFarlane are in the finals and will play the winners of the game between Dr. R. E. Sparks and J. J. Baker and R. E. Graham and R. H. Crocker. The first prize is two pyrex plates, the second two enamel stands and the third two smoker stands.

In the singles E. Green carried off the third prize in the singles. The competition for the doubles prizes will be played on the local green.

The Kingston rinks that took part in the tournament were: J. N. MacFarlane, M. Manahan, W. M. Campbell, H. W. Newman, skip, R. H. Stephenson, R. H. Crocker, J. J. Baker, Dr. R. E. Sparks, skip, J. A. Newman, W. R. Givens, R. S. Graham, J. M. Elliott, skip, L. Sleeth, W. Leeson, E. Walsh, E. Green, skip, John Andrews, A. E. Treadgold, F. Crozier, H. D. Bibby, skip, J. N. Munsel, W. Jackson, C. Used to Condemn Engaging Of Detectives at Prison

W. S. Hughes, superintendent of penitentiaries, is at the Portsmouth institution on an official visit of inspection. He arrived from Ottawa Wednesday night and proceeded to Portsmouth to be present at the opening in the morning at seven o'clock. This is his first visit since the dismissal of the hospital officials. Superintendent Hughes was for many years an official at Portsmouth, and was never known to favor the employment of outside detectives, but on the contrary strongly condemned such agencies. It is thought that the superintendent and the minister of justice will now hardly be agreed upon the engaging of spies to operate within the prison.

STORY OF POLICE COURT

WILLIAM H. FRANCIS WALKED INTO THE POLICE NETS.

After He Had Been Indulging In An Overdose of Beer—Arthur Goslin Was Given Suspended Sentence.

According to the story, William H. Francis, a short man, with a pleasing face, got off to the acting magistrate, Ald. R. E. Kent, on Thursday morning. It would appear that he was a much-abused man. He was a party to being intoxicated, but according to his story of it all, he was "pushed" in.

Francis pleaded guilty to taking a punch out of the Ontario Temperance Act, but declared that he had not been drinking whiskey. All he had was simply beer, of the kind that cheers, not near beer, but real beer. And this is how he got it:

As a preamble, the accused told how he had worked hard all day Wednesday. When he came home he found that his wife, unknown to him, had made preparations for a party at his home. Some of the invited guests, knowing well the weather conditions, brought along their own refreshments, in the form of a keg of beer. Francis felt rather hurt over the party being arranged "over his head," as it was, but when he got sight of the beer, he was quite willing to forget and to forgive, and he took to the beer just like a duck takes to water. After he got a good fill of it, he began to see things, and strange to say, landed in the police station. No, a police constable did not take him, he simply walked there himself, to unfold his troubles. He rapped on the door, but there appeared to be no welcome for him. He rapped again, and this time a couple of constables came out to see what was the matter. They found Francis intoxicated, and put him in a cell.

The accused was positive he had nothing stronger than beer, and after hearing his story, the acting magistrate fined him $10 and costs.

Albert Goslin, on remand for several days on a charge of theft, was allowed to go on suspended sentence. The charge against him was not pressed by the lady who reported the loss.

Detectives Questioning Convicts in Penitentiary

Upon further inquiry regarding the statement that detectives have been operating in the Portsmouth penitentiary, it has been learned that a number of visits have been made and interviews held with prisoners. The prisoners, it is stated, were asked questions regarding traffic in Kopsco. After interviewing several men the detectives are said to have departed and returned later, probably working on the prisoner at one end and his family at the other. How many are working within the prison dressed as convicts is not stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Nell, St. Thomas, and Miss Hellen Lamb, Troy, N.Y., are guests at the Randolph for a few days on their way to Toronto to visit friends.
