The band of the R.C.H.A. played delightfully on the wharf at Tete de Pont barracks on Wednesday evening the music being much enjoyed and only by the occupants of the many boats in the harbor, but by the guests of the officers. There was an informal dance as well and refreshments were served during the evening.
Among those present were General and Mrs. Elmsley, Lt.-Col. and Mrs.
W. H. P. Elkins, Col. and Mrs. Stew. H. Col. Stockwell, Col. and Mrs.
Hill, Lt.-Col. and Mrs. Bevan Dunbar, Major, and Mrs. Heber Lafferty, Lt.- Col. and Mrs. Samson, Capt. and Mrs.
Webber, Capt. and Mrs. Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gildersleeve, Mrs.
E. L. Fort, Mrs. G. E. Boyce, Mrs.
W. P. Constantine, Mrs. Charles Hanson, Miss Mabel Gildersleeve, Miss Dorothy Gildersleeve, Miss Beth Small, Miss Margaret Hemming, Miss Cecily and Miss Aileen Rutherford, Miss Kathleen Carruthers, Miss Thomas, (England), Miss and Mrs. Francesca Foulkes, Messrs. R. R. F. Harvey, Fortescue Foulkes, and A. Phillips.

One of the events of especial interest to women in connection with the visit of the Imperial Press party to Toronto, recently, was the tea given by the Toronto branch of the Canadian Women's Press Association at the Sherbourn Club, when the women journalists from the old land and far away Australia were welcomed by their Canadian sisters. The beautiful rooms were gay and re-giant with pink roses, sweet peas and gladioli. Miss Doyle, the President of the Toronto Women's Press club, received the guests and with her were Lady Burgham, Miss Billington and Miss Plaxton. At the tea table were Mrs. J. E. Elliott, Miss Marjory Mac-Murchy and Miss Marshall Saunders.
The noted Canadian writer "Faith Fenton", Mrs. J. Elliott Brown, who will now make Toronto her home, and W. A. Fraser were among the distinguished Canadians present.

Mrs. Edwin McLelland entertained at dinner on Thursday evening at the Frontenac Club in honor of her niece, Mrs. Bayly Ransom. Covers were laid for fourteen; mauves and white chrysanthemums, forming from an artistic centre piece. The guests included Col. Rev. W. E.
Kidd and Mrs. Kidd, Col. Alexander Gordon and Miss Gordon, Lieut.-Col.
Gordon and Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Dohan (Montreal); Miss Dorothy Goodwin, Miss Mae Macdonell, Prof. Grant Cadenhead, Miss Mary McLelland and Miss Margery McLelland.

Mrs. William Harty, "Roselawn," was the hostess of a small, but very pleasant bridge on Wednesday, given in honor of her mother, Mrs. J. K.
Kerr, Toronto. The old stone house, set in the midst of its lovely shaded grounds, was a delightfully cool retreat from the heat and glare of the city, and the guests who sat on the wide verandah, where Mrs. Frances Constantine made the tea at the dainty flower-decked table, were very grateful to their hostess for this pleasant afternoon, and for this opportunity of meeting Mrs. Kerr.

Mrs. T. R. Power and Miss Bessie Power, Earl street, were the hostesses of a bright little tea on Thursday, when the guests of honor were Miss Lillian and Miss Blanche Kent, Mon-real, who have been much feted guests during their short stay in their old home.

street, returned home on Friday, after two weeks' visit to Woodstock, where she went to be with her sister, Mrs. George Shibley, who is seriously ill.
Miss Eva Sullivan and Miss Diamond, Kingston, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bottrell, Bowmanville.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Otton and daughter, Margaret, Woodstock, are spending their holidays with friends in Kingston.
The Misses Grace Weresley and Darlene Runions are spending a couple of weeks in Kingston, with the former's sister, Mrs. Louis Doyle.
Douglas Hunter, Kingston, spent the week-end in Cornwall with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hunter.

Miss Lillian and Miss Blanche Kent, Montreal, are in Kingston.

What Is Your Health Worth?

It is worth thousands of dollars, in fact, no limit can be placed on it.
There are prominent people all over Canada who gladly tell you how they recovered theirs, easily and at small expense—people who never dreamed it was gall stones ruining their health and keeping them unfit. Perhaps you hardly know whether you have these in your system or not.
Have you sometimes a pain in your stomach or side. Many cases notice headache, biliousness or nervousness.
Some more serious have, all these symptoms.
You will be taking a good step towards health and happiness by getting a bottle of "Marlatt's Specific."
For sale at all druggists throughout Canada. If your dealer cannot supply you write for free booklet to J.
W. Marlatt and Co., Toronto, Ontario.
