Mrs. W. R. Givens and Mrs. Nell Polson, Maitland House, entertained on Tuesday afternoon at a bridge and shower for Miss Elizabeth Cunningham, the young bride of next week. There were four tables of bridge in play and some more people came in for a cup of tea, and for the fun of the "shower," which proved to be the articles found in every good housewife's kitchen, all gathered together in a big clothes basket, gay with gold and white streamers. At the tea table, with its centre of lovely mauve asters, Mrs.
Ashby and Mrs. Arthur Cunningham made the tea with Miss Elizabeth and Miss Agnes Bute, Miss Caroline Mitchell and Miss Flo Cunningham as their assistants. Among those present were Mrs. Stewart M.
Robertson, Mrs. Herbert Steacy, Mrs. Charles Livingston, Mrs. Ross Livingston, Mrs. L. Dunbar Stevenson, Miss Louise Cunningham, Miss Harriet Gardiner, Miss Bud Hazen (St. John), Miss Edna and Miss Dorothy Chown, Miss Helen and Miss Doris McKay, Miss Nora Min-nes, Misses Katie and Nora Berming-ham, Miss Una Polson, Miss Hilda Calvin and Miss Hilda MacLennan (Toronto).

Mrs. William Hart, "Roselawn," gave a charming birthday party on Tuesday for Miss Nadina Hart.
Games and races filled the afternoon and then the happy children sat down on the greensward, under the fine old trees and did full justice to the picnic tea, provided for them by their thoughtful hostess, who had given them such a delightful afternoon.

There was a very jolly dinner at "Sunnyside" on Monday evening, when the guests of honor were Miss Elizabeth Cunningham and Henry Hill. The beautiful room was gay with white and golden flowers, the dinner table being especially lovely.
Besides the two young hostesses, Miss Edna and Miss Dorothy Chown and the guests of honor, those present were Mr. and Mrs. Nell Polson (Montreal), Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Steacy, Capt. Kenneth E. Taylor and Messrs Jack Richardson and Gordon Cunningham and Sherman Hill.

Mrs. John L. Whitting, Clergy street, entertained at bridge on Monday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. J.
K. Kerr, of Toronto, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. Hart, "Rose-lawn." There were three tables in play in the cool flower scented rooms and the lovely prizes were won by Mrs. J. B. Carruthers, Mrs. E. H.
Pense, Mrs. Iva Martin, and Mrs.
Foulkes. At the tea hour Mrs. J. B.
Carruthers and Mrs. Douglas took charge of the polished tea table with its gay nap dragons, and made the tea and poured the fragrant coffee. The afternoon was a very pleasant one. Mrs. Kerr being a very popular and much feted visitor.

The Misses Daly, Albert street, who received on Monday afternoon had a great many visitors who were glad of this opportunity of welcoming Rev. Hugh Spencer and Mrs. Spencer, Chicago, who have come back to visit their old home for the first time in some years. A very hearty "welcome home" it was that they received, Miss Daly made the tea at the pretty table with its centre of nasturtiums, assisted by Miss Kathleen Daly, while Miss Geraldine Daly, who is spending the summer at home, assisted Mr. and Mrs. Spencer in receiving the visitors.

Mrs. Arthur Gildersleeve asked a few of Miss Ruth Gildersleeve's friends to a picnic to-day. E. C. Gildersleeve took the jolly party over to Simcoe Island in his motor boat and the day will be spent in this charming spot.

SHOT OUT OF HIS CAR.
Physician's Close Call in Collision
With Train.
Toronto, Aug. 22.—Dr. W. E.
Pearson, Mount Dennis, Ont., had narrow escape from instant death when his automobile was struck by a C. P. R. freight train. When the engine came in contact with the automobile, the opposite door flew open and the doctor was thrown out free of the train. The automobile was carried a complete wreck, and the engine pilot for about seventy-five yards before the train was brought to a stop. Dr. Pearson was injured, but not seriously.
Criminals are rarely made by circumstances, but are due to birth and environment, says an expert.
One ton of steel is said certainly to supply 1,600,000 pen-ants.
