To Number the Houses.
Pembroke council has changed the names of a goodly number of its long proposed and which will prove a boon in many ways.

Hyatt-Carter Wedding.
On Aug. 21st, a quiet wedding took place, when Marjorie, elder daughter of William J. Carter, Picton, was united in marriage with Harry Edgar Hyatt, elder son of the late Mr. John W. Hyatt, about Mrs.
Hyatt, Picton, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. J. Hastie, London, Ont., a valued friend of the groom's family, in the presence of a small party of immediate relatives.

Died in Toronto.
After an illness of some weeks, following an operation for appendicitis, the death of Miss Mollie Call took place at Toronto, Aug. 21st.
The deceased was born in the Township of South Ferrisburgh. After attending Picton High School and secured a teacher's certificate and for some years taught in the public schools. For about six years she was a resident of Picton. The past twelve years were spent in Toronto.

The Late Angus Chassels.
Wednesday the death occurred at Athens of Angus M. Chassels. He had been in ill health for a few months, and for several weeks was confined to his room. Death was due to his advanced years. He took up residence in Athens thirty-eight years ago. Besides his wife he leaves one adopted son, John Chassels, Ottawa, who was taken by Mr. and Mrs. Chassels when three weeks old. The deceased conducted a tailoring business. He was upright and honorable in all his affairs, and commanded wide respect.

In religion he was a Presbyterian, and in politics a Liberal.

Shot From Behind a Tree.
Dr. William Nicholls, who shot and killed a bull which was running amok in the city park Friday afternoon, brought the crazed animal down at the first shot, splitting its heart.
Several military men were in the park with rifles but appeared to be too nervous to get an aim when the bull charged them. Dr. Nicholls kept a tree between him and the animal and when the latter came at him he fired at a distance of seventy feet.

Tendered a Farewell.
On the evening of Aug. 10th an "At Home" was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Elliott, Perth, by the members of the I.O.O.F., previous to their departure for Mt. Forest.
Before refreshments were served, a short programme was provided, and an address was read by Mr. Perry, to which Mr. Elliott made fitting reply.
Mr. Elliott was also made the recipient of a very beautiful gift by members of the order.

Regretted Death at Westport.
On Aug. 15th, Mrs. M. A. Moore, Westport, had passed to the beyond.
Although in poor health for four months, suffering from heart disease, she was always cheerful. The deceased's maiden name was Mary Ann Bell, and she was first married to Thomas Donahue, who predeceased her twenty-five years ago, leaving three daughters of whom two are living: Mrs. R. P. McCann, Westport, and Miss Florence Donahue, Toronto, in the C.P.R. operating staff. Later the deceased was married to Frank Moore, who died two years ago, leaving one son, Charles, Newboro.

Fire on Cedar Island.
Of late, there has been a series of out-of-town fires at places close to Kingston. Portsmouth, Odessa, Inverary, and Barriefield have all been on the fire list. Saturday night Chief Armstrong had another call, when a party telephoned him that there was quite a fire on Cedar Island. Mayor Nickle was notified and after consultation it was decided not to allow the fire department to respond to this call. Campers on the island evidently left a fire. No serious results are reported.

Saved the Situation.
The harbor of Oakville, Ont., was all filled in this spring when navigation opened, and as a good part of their coal supply usually arrives by water, it looked as though the situation next winter would be a serious one. But Henry Chisholm, a coal dealer there, solved the problem. He purchased the little schooner Newsboy and went over to Oswego for a supply himself. He's the skipper of the boat and he has his three sons all Canadian overseas and college men with him. They're the crew.

The Newsboy had a narrow escape on one trip losing part of her cargo in a big blow on Charlotte. Had they been bootlegging, Skipper Chisholm says he would have made a small fortune. At every port they have stopped they have had callers who wanted to buy whiskey. Once when they were becalmed off Charlotte, a launch put out to them and wanted to know if they had anything aboard.

A Splendid Production.
The John Fox Jr.'s famous story, "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," was produced at the Grand Opera house on Saturday before two fair-sized audiences. The company is well balanced and offered a real good drama. George Simpson, who played the part of "Chad" won his way into the hearts of the audience.
Dorothy Dunn, in the role of "Me-Roy" was an able partner. James Kennedy, known as "Squire Middleton," who kept the audience in laughter by his humorous method of conducting a court of justice. James P. Horton, who played the part of "Big Joe Turner," the mountaineer who took in the homeless walk, performed his part exceptionally well.
The Grand Opera House orchestra, which was recently re-organized under the leadership of G. A. Radcliff, made an exceptionally good impression on the audience.

Spelling of Ganoquo.
There has been a controversy at times regarding the spelling and meaning of "Ganoquo." The following letter by Judge H. S. Mc-Donald, Brockville, will put all right on the subject.

In volume 17 of the papers and records of the Ontario Historical Society there is a very interesting paper by Mr. Frank Eames, formerly of Ganoquo, now of Toronto. The paper is entitled, "Ganoquo's First Public School, 1816," and in it Mr.
Eames states sundry names given to Ganoquo at sundry times. However, he does not appear to have hit upon the exact name, although one of them given by him is very nearly correct. It is "Ca-da-no-gue."
"Rocks in running water." I have in my mind as I write, a letter written by Col. Jones at sundry times, 1793, in which he says: "You will direct me at the River Cadanoghque," in the town of Leeds, County of Leeds, and Eastern District of Upper Canada. And again on the margin of his letter he writes "River Cadano-ghqua." This is the real Indian name of the said river. Their reference between this and Mr.
Eames is that this ends in "hue" while Col. Stone's ends in "qua."
