"CORNS"

Lift Right Off Without Pain

Doesn't hurt a bit. Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly the corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with angers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Mrs. D. A. Condie, Smith's Falls was the scene of a pretty wedding, on August 25th, when their niece, Mary Florence, eldest daughter of the late Alexander and Mrs. Condie, Deior-ton, the girls' partner of William Delroy Saunders, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Saunders, Smith's Falls.

Valuable Cows Sold.

Benjamin Webster, Smith's Falls, purchased three valuable cows from George Hutton, Merrickville, for Dr.
H. E. Kendall, Windsor, N.S. The trip of bovines put $750 into Mr.
Hutton's pocket through the sale.
They are pure-bred Holsteins, daughters of Dr. Clark's noted cow at Brookville, a cow having 22,000 pounds of milk to her credit in ten months.

Call For Vaccination.

The Board of Health of Smith's Falls has issued the following warning: "A few isolated cases of small-pox in the girls' parties of Ontario make vaccination a wise precautionary measure. Smith's Falls is a railway centre and people come and go here from all over the country.
This is therefore to call upon the people of Smith's Falls to get vaccinated at once as a measure of protection."

Leaving for the West.

Miss Esther McIlraith, Lanark, has left for Battleford, Sask., where she has accepted a position as major in the girls' department of one of the Mission Homes belonging to the Presbyterian church. Miss Mc-Ilraith has always been a very earnest church worker. As a remembrance of her faithful services the congregation and Sunday School presented her with a beautiful leather Bible.

Gives Trophy to Lawn Bowlers.

Mrs. W. H. Downey, Tenafly, N.J., who is spending the summer months on the St. Lawrence, has donated a handsome silver cup to the officials of the St. Lawrence Lawn Bowling Association to replace the cup given by Hon. J. D. Reid which has been won three times in succession and thereby becomes the permanent property of the Victoria Club, Ottawa.
The cup will be known as the Downey Trophy and will be competed for at the annual tournaments of the association.

Passes to Her Reward.

The news reached Carleton Place of the death of Mrs. G. N. Reid, aged seventy-eight years. The deceased lady was born in Beckwith, in 1842, her maiden name being Jane Stewart, a daughter of the late Jas.
Stewart. In 1862 she married G. F.
Reid, of St. Catharines, Que., and the young couple removed to Carleton Place, where Mr. Reid engaged in the lumber business, and where they continued to reside. About twelve years ago the husband passed away. Mrs. Reid was a sister of A. F. Stewart, Carleton Place.

The Name of Their Young Lives.

Miss Charlotte Whitton and a group of Queen's College girls, among whom were Miss Mary and Miss Katharine McPhail, have just returned from a three-weeks' holiday at Joe Lake, Algonquin Park, says the Toronto Globe. Their trip, which was under the guidance of Miss Whitton's brother, included a paddle of one hundred miles, with twenty-four miles of portages, the enthusiasm of the party over the beauty of the wilderness being voiced by one who exclaimed in a moment of excitement: "Just think, the whole world was like this before man came along to spoil it."

Wedding in Cobourg.

A very charming house wedding took place at "Hilares," Cobourg, the summer residence of Charles W. Kerr, barrister, Toronto, and Mrs. Kerr, on Wednesday, when their daughter, Joyce Alida, became the bride of Carlton H. Rankin, Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rankin, Napanee.
The nuptial knot was tied by Rev.
Dr. A. H. Reynar, Cobourg, assisted by Rev. E. B. Lancelotti, Toronto. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Grace Kerr, and Miss Snider, St. Jacobs. The groom was assisted by Mr.
Morton, Toronto. A reception was held after the ceremony, voiced by Mrs. Rankin leaving later for a trip north. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

Some More Coins Exhibited.

R. H. Peters, 152 Victoria street, has collected an interesting number of coins during forty odd years storekeeping in Enterprise, Camden and this city. He showed the Whig some of the most valuable consisting of a Danish, 1771, one shilling, Ibernia, 1740, one penny, North America, 1781, one penny, Netherland, 1884, 2 1/2 cents, Queenssey, 1885, one double, Hong Kong, 1895, ten cents, Mauritius, 1886, 20 cents, United States, 1864, two cents, and many others.

John Hamilton, Main street, upon reading about the old coins exhibited at the Whig office, showed us today a guinea struck in the reign of George III, and dated 1791.
It is a gold coin worth about $5, but it is now minted and Mr. Hamilton's piece will continue to increase in value as it becomes more rare.

He has also a penny issued in the same reign, 1850.

Has Splendid Place.

Lady Cartwright, at "The Maples," has a beautiful estate on the St. Lawrence, below Kingston. "The Maples" commands what is, perhaps, a finer view of the St. Lawrence River, where it stretches its seven island-studded miles between the shores of the neighboring countries, than is to be found anywhere else.
Lawns and a rose-garden make a lovely setting for the fine old house itself, the thicket and the wilder places being filled with wild flowers of all kinds, the whole place, indeed, bearing testimony to the love of the out-of-doors possessed by the late Sir Richard Cartwright, a famous member of the family which proudly boasts five generations of the Canadian-born.—Toronto Globe.

Small Boy Has Hazardous Ride.

Master Oswald McIlquham, second son of Clyde McIlquham, Carleton Place, had an exciting ride on Monday. He was driving one of his uncle's horses in an open buggy when the lines slipped from him and he found himself sitting in the rig without any means of controlling the horse. The horse started to gallop for home and the little fellow felt he was in a dangerous position and commenced to shout. This only caused the animal to increase its speed, and at last when opposite the public school, Oswald got up and jumped clear out of the buggy, falling heavily upon the hard road. The shock sort of stunned him for a moment but he recovered quickly and seemed none the worse for his exciting experience. The horse went home to the shed.

Profession of Nuns.

A ceremony of reception and profession was held at the House of Providence on Monday last, Archbishop Spratt officiating. There were eight sisters for the first ceremony and eleven for final profession. The names of the young ladies who received the holy habit are: Misses Catharine McIntyre, Montreal; Elizabeth Canning, Lowell, Mass.; Mary Barrow, Tweed; Mary Margaret Mirsan, Tweed; Loretto Doyle, Chesterville; Mary Walsh, Alexandria; Marguerite Murphy, Stanleyville; Marie Prior, Howe Island.

The following sisters made perpetual vows: Sister M. Mildred (Miss Catharine Boyd, Prescott); Sister M. Philip (Kathleen Allan, Prescott); Sister Mary Redempta (Alice Donovan, Montreal); Sister M. Ail-leen (Loyola Malvey, Belleville); Sister M. Vincentia (Alice Vincent, Montreal); Sister Mary Inez (Catherine Manion, Almonte); Sister M.
Ethebert (Kathleen Wilm, Montreal); Sister M. Albert (Ann Gribbon, Waltham, Que.); Sister M.
Madeleine (Margaret Keeley, Rail-ton); Sister M. Eleanor (Elizabeth Shanahan, Montreal); Sister M. of the Sacred Heart (Martha McKenna, of Ottawa.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.
A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.
