for all people. He will be consequent-

Home From Trip.
Frank Quinn, messenger at the member of the Whig staff.

A Disastrous Fire.
Zion's Hill was visited by a disastrous fire on Wednesday as a result of which the fine dwelling of William James Tufts, son of Councillor W. B.
Tufts, Thurlow, his barns, wagon house and drive shed were completely swept away, and scarcely a vestige of them remains. From the drive shed was rescued an automobile and wagons. The contents of the barn, including forty tons of hay, 525 bushels of oats newly threshed and other grain were lost. Twenty-one pigs were burned to death and all the farm machinery in the drive shed was destroyed. There was a large pile of wood also destroyed. The loss will aggregate over $12,000.
The dwelling was of frame construction and was palatial.
