A NEW SCHEME FOR IRELAND

Discussed By Moderates And Republicans—McSwiney's Death Might Hamper It

London, Sept. 14.—Negotiations for a settlement of the Irish question, which are described as the most promising yet initiated, will be nullified if Terence McSwiney dies, says the Dublin correspondent of the Times. Secret negotiations on a basis of full self-government within the empire have been going on during the last three weeks between most prominent leaders of moderate opinion and influential republicans. The moderates have at last been told, he adds, that nothing further can be done while McSwiney is near death, and if the Lord Mayor dies the last hope of settlement on the proposed basis will disappear. The appointment of an additional under secretary for Ireland has been decided upon by the government. It will be his duty to deal with all problems which may arise in the six counties of the province of Ulster, the unionists strong-hold in Ireland.

Sovietism Advocated At Labor Congress

Windsor, Sept. 14.—Sovietism as the proper form of government for Canada was suggested at the trades and labor congress of Canada at Windsor to-day, during the debate on the report of the executive committee regarding political action. Delegate Peter MacCallum declared himself definitely in favor of "a workers' republic" with a "board or soviet form of government." This brought forth an expression of approval from a spectator in the gallery, a reprimand from President Tom Moore, and various interruptions from delegates. Discussion on the direct action report was unfinished when the congress adjourned for the day.

Wilson's Policies Rejected in Maine

Portland, Me., Sept. 14.—Returns from election precincts in various parts of Maine point strongly to a great Republican triumph—rejection by the people of the foreign and domestic policies of President Wilson and Governor Cox in the first popular test of sentiment of the presidential election year. Parkhurst, Republican, was elected governor.

Women flocked to the polls by thousands and on all sides it was conceded this new voting element held the balance of power.

Bird is Blamed for Telephone Interruption

Brockville, Sept. 14.—To a sand-hill crane is laid an interruption to a telephone near Morrisburg, and incidentally the death of the bird, which measured 5 feet 2 inches in length. Discovering a short circuit on the system, D. Connell, line supervisor, of the Bell Co. at Iroquois, located the trouble one mile from Morrisburg, where the bird was found dead on the wires. It was found that it had swallowed a portion of a fish line, and a postmortem examination revealed that the hook had lodged in its stomach.

Women Masons Are Urged in France

Paris, Sept. 14.—French Free Masons have just had a vigorous fight in a convention held on the question of admitting women to membership in Masonic lodges. The principle was adopted finally by a meagre majority subject to modification when delegates of the Grand Lodge attend the Masonic world conference this winter.

DEATH OF CHARLES CORBY

Belleville, Sept. 14.—Charles Corby died at Los Angeles on Saturday. Deceased was a son of the late Henry Corby of this city and brother of the late Hon. Harry Corby, who was a member of the senate. He was the last surviving son of the family.

The boats will run daily all this week for Toronto and Montreal. The season will be closed with the trip on Sunday next.

SERIOUS RIOTING IN PETROGRAD

London, Sept. 14.—Serious anti-Bolshevik rioting is taking place in Petrograd, it is declared in reports from that city received in Berlin, says a despatch to the Exchange telegraph company from the German capital, filed yesterday. Six of the Bolsheviki commissioners, it is asserted in the advices, have been drowned in the river Neva, while others have been compelled to seek places of refuge.

HOLLAND MAY EXPEL EX-KAISER

Berlin, Sept. 14.—Owing to the former Kaiser's active propaganda to regain the German throne the German government through the German parliament may request Holland to expel him. He is seeking to organize a strong royalist movement, and aiming at the restoration of the Hohenzollerns and ultimately the reconstruction of the Bismarck-made Empire.

ATTACK PROTECTION; PRINCIPLE WRONG

This is the View of the Canadian Council of Agriculture.

Winnipeg, Sept. 14.—The principle of protection was attacked and defended in forceful statements presented here at the opening session here of the tariff commission. The Canadian council of agriculture took the position that the "national protection was wrong," and advocated "a low customs tariff" and "direct methods of taxation." The council of agriculture viewed the "protective tariff" as "the most wasteful and costly method ever designed for raising national revenue."

BOY'S SKULL FRACTURED; WILLIE MCKANE MAY DIE

Willie McKane, aged ten years, son of James McKane, 57 Durham street, met with a serious accident on Monday evening, and is now in the General Hospital in an unconscious condition from a fracture at the base of the skull. He had been in the habit of going for the cows every evening to Polk's farm, and on Monday evening he saddled the horse and went as usual. Some time later the horse reared and the boy was thrown and found lying in the ground unconscious, and it is thought that he got jolted off the horse and must have caught his foot in the stirrup and was dragged some distance. Some hopes are entertained for his recovery.

The Tariff Enquiry Has Opened At Winnipeg; The Manufacturers Fully Present Their Case

Winnipeg, Man., September 14.—Following is a summary of the statement submitted by the C.M.A. to the Committee of Cabinet Ministers at the inquiry into the Canadian Customs Tariff. The statement first points out that, according to the Dominion census, 700,000 people are employed in Canadian factories; that, including families and dependents, the factories support 2,000,000 Canadians; that 80 per cent. of the total annual production of Canadian farms is consumed in Canada; that business and professional men receive part of the benefits of industrial production, and that consequently, there is scarcely a family in Canada, directly or indirectly, which is not affected by industrial conditions. The position taken by the Association is defined as follows:

"As the Canadian Customs Tariff has not been revised since 1907, revision is now overdue. After careful investigation, it may be found that the rates of duty on some articles are too high, and will consequently be lowered; or, in certain other cases, that the rates of duty are too low, and will consequently be raised; or, in other cases, that the rates of duty will be considered fair, and remain unchanged. But all tariff revisions are governed by a guiding principle, and this guiding principle must be either the policy of protection or the policy of free trade. The term 'tariff for revenue' is misleading, because a tariff of even ten per cent, on an article produced in Canada yields revenue, and also affords a small degree of incidental protection.

"In presenting this statement, therefore, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association respectfully begs to reaffirm its advocacy and support of the policy of adequate protection for Canadian industry (the policy which has been maintained since 1878 in Canada by all political parties that have held power).

Moreover, the Association pledges its support to any measures which will hasten the adoption throughout the British Empire of substantial customs preferences for Empire products, corresponding to the preferences now provided in the Customs Tariff of Canada."

Definition of Protection.

The objects of the protective system in Canada are outlined as follows:

1. To diminish, as far as possible, the importation of goods from foreign countries which can be produced at home.

2. To facilitate the importation of raw materials for manufacturing processes, which cannot be produced at home.

3. To encourage the exportation of Canadian goods as finished products.

4. To make Canada self-sufficient by developing and encouraging within her boundaries all legitimate activities that will give occupation to Canadian citizens.

"Support of the protective principle should not be confused with advocacy of a high tariff," says the statement. "The Canadian Manufacturers' Association has never advocated a high tariff; and does not advocate a high tariff now; but it does say that the Canadian customs tariff as it stands today is not a high tariff, and that in comparison with tariffs of other countries it is very moderate."

"During the year ending March 31st, 1920, the average rate of duty on all dutiable importations, less the customs war tariff collections, was 22 1/2 per cent.

SOVIETS MARCH UPON LEMBERG

Afghan Troops Sent to Protect Frontier Against a Bolsheviki Advance.

London, Sept. 14.—Russian Soviet forces, it is reported from Moscow, have taken the offensive on both sides of the Brody, near the old Galician border, and are marching on Lemberg, according to a despatch from Berlin. Polish and Ukrainian troops, it is declared, have been driven back by Russian cavalry.

Bolsheviki Advance on Afghan.

Wrangel Captures Whole Brigade.

Sebastopol, Sept. 14.—Troops commanded by General Baron Wrangel on the Taurida front, northwest of the Sea of Azov, have surprised and captured near Pologol in the Oriekhov region, the 124th Bolsheviki brigade, including its staff and trains, according to reports reaching this city.

Soviet forces on this front are now on the defensive and appear to be exhausted as the result of their recent offensive in Poland. Officers find it more difficult to arouse a sentiment against Wrangel's army than against the Poles, although the former has made heavy captures in men and material. This expedition sent into Kuban, south-east of the Sea of Azov, seems to be a failure, both from a military and political standpoint.

SUMMER RESIDENT LOST IN THE WOODS

A Search Party Found Him Very Exhausted and at Sea.

Charleston, Sept. 13.—Mr. Barnes, who spends his summers at the Green cottage had an experience on Wednesday he will not soon forget. After breakfast he went to the woods back of the cottage for dinner, but failed to appear. Supper time came and still no signs of Mr. Barnes. The family became uneasy and gave the alarm and soon a posse was out in search of him. They took with them some guns and fired shots in the air and were answered by a report from Mr. Barnes' gun. The posse went in the direction whence the shot came and found Mr. Barnes completely lost, tired and hungry, but all prepared to spend the night in the woods.

The government is ready for the strike when it comes. It has been preparing for months. Looks As If Milk Will Be Cheaper

Toronto, Sept. 14.—All Canadian milk condensory factories are to close down indefinitely at the end of the month, because the market is overstocked with their products and there is no demand. Local representatives say they fear heavy losses. The shutting down means that a large quantity of farmers' milk will be on the market this winter.

EXCHANGE GAME FAILED TO WORK

Plan to Pick Up Profit on Silver Coins in Syracuse Foiled.

Syracuse, Sept. 14.—A plot to flood Syracuse with thousands of dollars in silver coins, passing here at full face value, was frustrated on Friday by the action of the Syracuse Clearing House Association in making effective on Saturday current rates of exchange between Canada and the United States. It is declared that fully $50,000 in Canadian half and quarter dollars and dimes have been brought to this city in the last few weeks by persons out to make substantial profits in one of the last of the cities in the State to make the exchange rate effective. Under the ruling of the Clearing House Association at its meeting in the First Trust & Deposit Co. on Friday, half-dollars of Canadian mintage will be accepted here at the value of forty-four cents, quarters at twenty-two cents, and dimes at eight cents.

Growth Under Protection.

The following instances of growth in various basic industries are given to prove that Canada has made great progress since the protective system was inaugurated in 1878: Total trade $149,000,000 in 1879; $2,350,000,000 in 1920; agricultural production from $365,000,000 in 1900, to $1,675,000,000 in 1919; national output of wheat from 16,000,000 bushels in 1870, to 193,000,000 bushels in 1919; value of manufactured products from $309,000,000 in 1887 to $3,000,000,000 in 1917; forest production from $39,000,000 in 1881 to $140,000,000 in 1919; mineral production from $14,000,000 in 1889 to $173,000,000 in 1919; fishery production from $1,000,000 in 1870 to $17,000,000 in 1919.

Arthur Payne, U.F.O. defeated candidate in South Grenville, though he was a supporter of Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, who was elected. John Boyd, Merrickville, paid five dollars to one Levine Matte, on election day in 1919, but claimed that this was to liquidate a debt incurred three or four years before, and he also paid seven dollars to a young man named Roche to drive home thirty miles and ask a number of Liberal voters to vote for Ferguson, since there was no Liberal candidate in the field.

Good progress in the matter of disposing of witnesses was made this morning by Gordon Waldron, counsel for the defeated U.F.O. candidate.

The charge regarding the granting of a bus license was disposed of, there being no evidence to support it. Albert Roche, a lad sent by John Boyd into Ward's township, told three farmers "there was money in it to vote for Ferguson." He told one man he would be remembered by John Boyd. The farmer replied he would vote Payne and be forgotten. Alex Lee swore he was "approached" in a poolroom by Thomas-Kyle of Merrickville, to see if witness would vote for Payne.
