At The Grand.
"Grumpy," the famous play, is booked for the Grand Opera House to-night. While Cyril Maude himself is not with the company, Edward Lewers, who takes the role of "Grumpy," is an eminent actor, he having played with Martin Harvey, Maude Adams and of late with Robert Mantell, taking the comedy part in his Shakespearean productions. Other well-known members in the company are Gerald Rogers, a Royal Garrison Artillery officer; Bailey Hick, a commissioned officer in the "Princess Pats"; Frank Compton, the London First Rifles; Violet Hall Caine, a niece of the celebrated Hall Caine. This will be among the first of the cities to witness a play which for ten years has been played in one, and which has been played in Great Britain with success as in Australia and America.—Adv.

"Mademoiselle of Bully Grenay."
"The P. B. L., or Mademoiselle of Bully Grenay," is a unique production in so far as it is a true-to-life war-play, epitomizing the spirit of the Canadian troops and the good-natured, good-humored Johnny Canuck, as he did his daily "bit" in France in the spring of 1918. What was the keystone that held the Canadian Corps arch of war-fame in place? What was it that made these boys turn from happy sky-larking youths in rest-billets to-day to such fiends incarnate in no-man's-land tomorrow? It was the spirit of the British army confidently handed over by the old Contemptibles to the Canadians. The play gives again that wonderful spirit, true and natural, for the cast is made up of ex-service men and a matinee, commencing Friday, Sept. 24th. A real fashion plate chorus, with some of the fairest flowers from the world's beauty market, Broadway, is one of the attractive features of the big show. These girls, dressed in costume exquisite and backed by beautiful scenic pictures are a delight to the eye. And they can sing and dance. From the rise of the curtain novelty follows novelty in the "Katzenjammer Kids." Virgil Bennett, who is responsible for the staging of the piece, has keyed the action of this musical comedy up to the highest pitch and as a result he has a show that defies the speed limit when it comes to singing, dancing and comedy.—Adv.

Coming to The Grand.
For real hilarity, catchy music and real dancing all presented in pictorial surroundings that will surely delight the eye, the "Katzenjammer Kids," the newest cartoon musical comedy is recommended as the one best bet of the season. This latest cartoon musical play will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House for two nights and a matinee, commencing Friday, Sept. 24th. A real fashion plate chorus, with some of the fairest flowers from the world's beauty market, Broadway, is one of the attractive features of the big show. These girls, dressed in costume exquisite and backed by beautiful scenic pictures are a delight to the eye. And they can sing and dance. From the rise of the curtain novelty follows novelty in the "Katzenjammer Kids." Virgil Bennett, who is responsible for the staging of the piece, has keyed the action of this musical comedy up to the highest pitch and as a result he has a show that defies the speed limit when it comes to singing, dancing and comedy.—Adv.

At the Strand.
From the sordid slums of New York's Chinatown to the grandeur of high mountains and the majesty of the ocean—that is the range of the setting in "The Miracle Man," a big new Paramount-Art picture, which is coming to the Strand theatre next Monday. The central figure is a white-haired patriarch reputed to heal the sick and crippled. Tom Burke and his band read of his miracles and fame up for him. To their surprise they discover that he really possesses the healing powers accredited to him. Gradually under the beneficent influence of their new environment there is worked a transformation in the hearts of the crooks. In the hands of such capable artists as Thomas Meighan, Elinor Fair, Joseph J. Dowling, Betty Compson, and others of similar merit, this powerful story becomes a vital, living thing and one of the greatest dramatic spectacles the screen has yet revealed.—Adv.

At Griffin's.
To-night will be the last opportunity to see the delightful programme which has been pleasing Griffin patrons during the last two days and is headlined by Mabel Normand in "Upstairs." The popular star is seen to splendid advantage in this production which is filled with the funniest situations imaginable. On the same programme is shown the fourth episode of "Bound and Gagged," that startling serial of intermingled laughs, thrills and suspense, in which the noted actor, George B. Sells, and Marguerite Courtot play the leading roles. To round out a good programme a special Sunshine comedy entitled "Ten Nights Without a Bar Room" lends the right finish to a worth-while programme which is sure to be enjoyed by all who see it. To-night this bill will be shown for the last time.—Adv.

CANADIAN DOCTORS SOUGHT FOR AFRICA

The Colonial Office Sends Inquiry as to the Number Available.

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—Canadian doctors are being sought for service in East and West Africa. A letter addressed to His Excellency the Governor-General, by Lord Milner, secretary of state for the colonies, asks as to the number of young Canadians who would be likely to accept service under the colonial office and for particulars concerning them. If sufficient candidates were available, the letter states, a senior medical officer of the colonial service would be sent to Canada to interview candidates and report as to their suitability.

The West African services need doctors for service in the Gambia, Sierra Leone, the Gold Coast and Nigeria. Vacancies in the East African service are in Uganda Protectorate, Nyasaland, Kenya Colony and Zanzibar and Somaliland.

Salaries commence at £650 per annum rising on a set scale to £960 before passing £300 medical officers are required to take a special course of studies. Leaves with full pay and free passage are granted after one year's service in West Africa, and 30 months' service in East Africa.

PRISONERS IN JAIL HAVE A PRIVATE STILL

Kentucky Moonshine Made in Quantities Under Jailer's Nose.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 18.—Rodney David, county jailer at Henderson, Ky., was convinced that enforcement of prohibition in Kentucky is a difficult matter when he discovered that seven of his prisoners had formed a distilling company right within the walls of his prison. Their still was constructed out of an old coal oil can with a smaller can beneath it held fire. For a siphon they had torn up a new disinfectant spray and inserted it in the top of the oil can to allow the juice to run into a tin can that had once contained tomatoes. Fire was made for the still by burning torn up blankets. The men had distilled more than a pint of pure "white mule" from sour corn bread which they had saved from their rations.
