Jaw Bone Broken.
 James Reeves, a resident of Turiff, North Hastings, met with a painful accident, while engaged in felling a tree. The tree became lodged and in getting it down Reeves was pinned beneath it, with the result that his jaw bone was broken.

41-lb. Masco.
 Rueben Way captured in Picton bay a mackinonge which weighs 41 pounds, is four feet five and a half inches in length and 22 1/2 inches in circumference about the middle. The fisheries of Prince Edward this year have produced abundance of the best fish that swim.

Leaking Bottles.
 The breaking of a bottle of liquor in a trunk as it was being unloaded from a Grand Trunk express train at Brockville, from Montreal, led to the seizure of the trunk by a provincial officer, who was standing close by on the platform.

Attending the Congress.
 John M. Campbell, president of the Board of Trade, and J. G. Elliott, one of its councilors, are in Toronto attending the ninth congress of the Imperial Chambers of Commerce. There are some 200 delegates from all parts of the Empire in attendance. The meetings are held in Toronto University Convocation Hall.

To Compromise.
 The opinion is expressed in railway circles that a compromise may be effected in the dispute regarding the Lyn station on the C. N. R., which it is proposed to abolish on the union of the G. T. R. and C. N. R. lines there, by converting the C. N. R. station into a flag station. It is also proposed to move the G. T. R. station across the tracks from its present location to make it more accessible to residents of the village and more convenient for the operation of trains on the two lines.

More Big Potatoes.
 Keith Ostrander, son of Walter Ostrander, South Bay, shows potatoes from his school garden. The two specimens together weighed 2 1/2 lbs. They are of the Green Mountain variety. From the four pounds furnished from the Department of Agriculture, Keith had six bushels. This is a wonderful yield. W. H. Whattam, Picton, has a potato from his garden which just lacks half an ounce of weighing two pounds.

A Position of Distinction.
 In the egg-laying contest at Ottawa, the Kingston hen of Mr. Coldham is the leading individual bird. It has again put in another full week and increased her total to date to 230. By her registering a mark on Sunday, this bird obtains another position of distinction which calls for special mention in so far that she is the first bird of this contest to qualify for the Advanced Record of Performance.

Burial of G. H. Todd.
 The funeral of the late George Herbert Todd took place from his late residence, Simcoe Island, to Christ's Church on Friday afternoon under the direction of James Reid undertaker, and it was one of the most largely attended on the island in years. The casket was banked with floral tributes expressing the esteem in which the deceased was held by a wide circle of friends. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Leach and the pall bearers were John and Robert Todd, George Bews, Rodney Yott, James Kelly.

Gave a Splendid Gift.
 There is surely no more public spirited or progressive citizen in Picton, than George Cook, proprietor of the Regent Theatre. His purse is always open to help any object for the advancement of Picton, the town in which he intends to spend the remainder of his days. Mr. Cook's latest act of generosity is in connection with the Prince Edward Old Boys' Memorial. Mr. Cook is all filled up with the beauty of the structure, and wishing to see two extra pillars erected, most generously forwarded Miss Hazard a cheque for $200 to be applied for that purpose.

The Good Roads.
 W. A. McLean, deputy minister of provincial highways; George Hogarth chief engineer, and Mr. Milne, of the engineers' department, inspected the road under construction to Lanark and were well pleased with Mr. McLean spoke very highly of the manner in which the road is being built and said Lanark county had the best road system in Ontario. The visitors inspected the highway between Ottawa and Kingston and have endorsed the following route: Ottawa, Hazeldean, Bell's Corners, Ashton, Ashton Station, Carleton Place, Perth, Rideau Ferry, Lombardy, Portland, Elgin, Seeley's Bay to Kingston. The work of straightening the road and building culverts will start at once.

To Fix Incinerator Smoke Stack.
 Arrangements have been completed with Edward Paradis to cut off the top part of the smokestack of the incinerator, which was blown in the windstorm on Thursday afternoon. At the present time about twenty feet of the stack is hanging over the side and Mr. Paradis agreed to assume all risks in removing the projecting portion. He intended to start work on Saturday morning but was compelled to postpone it on account of the high wind blowing. It will likely be done the first part of this week if weather conditions are favorable.

Having a Competition.
 Ernest Prickett and George Pearson, Jr., Deseronto, are having a little fishing competition. Last week Mr. Prickett captured a small-mouthed black bass that was nineteen inches long and weighed (an hour after it was taken out of the water) four pounds, five ounces. On Saturday, Mr. Pearson landed a beauty at the light near Foresters Island. This bass was also nineteen inches long, and weighed four pounds, eight ounces.

Talked With Fischer.
 In Sydenham Street Methodist church on Sunday morning Taylor Statten, Toronto, who was speaking in the interests of the Boys' Movement, stated that last week while travelling on the train from Niagara Falls to Hamilton, he was in conversation with Edward P. While travelling on the train he had lunch with this man, and he was in a position to state that he was mentally defective.

 An enjoyable evening was spent last Thursday at the home of Harry Silver, Cataragi, when Mrs. Silver, Mrs. Rupert Aylesworth entertained several one hundred relatives and friends at a variety shower in honor of Miss Meda Aylesworth, the bride of this month. The gifts were presented by Nelson Silver, Sunbury, and Norman Eastman in a few well chosen words replied on behalf of Miss Aylesworth. The presents were numerous and costly, including substantial cheques from the bride's mother and brothers. Refreshments were served about midnight.

Filling the Silos.
 In nearly every section of the surrounding counties farmers are busy cutting corn for their silos. Already a number of farmers have hoisted large quantities of ensilage. It is stated that there is a record crop of corn. Farmers who have a large number of cattle are very glad that the corn crop turned out so well as the hay crop was rather light.

Whig was talking to a farmer who stated that he intended to winter forty milk cows. He figured that he would require one hundred and fifty tons of ensilage.

Damages Plane To Save Crowd.
 Aviator Stuart J. Davies, of Utica, N.Y., undoubtedly saved the lives of several persons at the Cape Vincent fair on Friday, when he deliberately turned the nose of his biplane into the ground to avoid mowing into a large crowd which swarmed the flying field adjacent to the race track. The accident happened at the end of the pilot's thirteenth flight and with him were two passengers. No one was injured but the propeller was broken, the landing gear was stripped and one of the wire wheels exploded. The upper structure of the plane was not damaged.

months old.
 Bobby felt sure he would grow very restless if he had to live in such close quarters for three months.
 Bobby never forgot his visit with the Hornbill family, and whenever he got lonesome he went to the limb of the tree and chatted with Mrs. Hornbill and her babies. He was sorry when the three months were up and the Hornbill family moved away.

Penaps.
 (New York World)
 Now that Mayor Hylan has told Lloyd George what to do in the MacSwiney case, perhaps the British prime minister will reciprocate and tell Mayor Hylan how to settle the traction question, what to do about the housing problem and how a police force can be used to protect life and property.
