At The Grand.
A strong detachment of our infantry detrained here this morning, and after slight skirmishes with the station guards and minor engagements with the taxi "bandits," they advanced along Princess valley in artillery formation. After a short preliminary bombardment they attacked and captured the Randolph ration dump, which position they immediately proceeded to consolidate. Operation orders have been issued to all concerned and it is learned from the general's batman that the main attack will be launched at stand-to assembly on the Grand theatre line. The P.B.I. will be in the jumping-off trench at least twenty minutes before zero hour and at eight-fifteen precisely an orchestra of all calibres will open up a heavy curtain-fire. Under cover of this barrage the "Poor Bloody Infantry" will kick off and drive home their attack with the utmost élan. It is confidently predicted that Gloom strong-point and Enul redoubt will fall before the first onslaught of our shock-troops. The following objectives will be covered in seven jumps under cover of a barrage of heavy laughter. The final objective in a history-making attack will be gained at 23.00 hours, when the show will be all over but the cheering—and the wee tot of S.R.D. for the tripes.—Advt.

Coming To The Grand.
"A Fool and His Money," a new Selznick picture, starting Eugene O'Brien, which will be shown for three days at the Grand commencing Tuesday, is adapted from the novel of the same name by George Barr McCutcheon. The story deals with the mysterious happenings in an European castle, which has been purchased by an American "best-selling" author. It is full of mirth and mystery, and the action takes place amid the most picturesque settings. Incident crowns upon incident, and the picture ends in the approved McCutcheon manner, with the author winning the "only girl" and the audience satisfied. There will be another extra fine feature, "A Tokio Siren," starring Tsuru Aoki. It is the story of an American doctor who marries a little Japanese girl to help her escape from a distasteful alliance, and the complications which result when he brings her to his native land. Other will be reels of comedies and other subjects and a very attractive programme by the Grand's orchestra. This bill will be seen Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday only.—Advt.

At The Strand.
Published originally as a novel in Munsey's magazine, written by Frank L. Packard and later dramatized by George M. Cohan and presented with phenomenal success on Broadway, the Paramount-Artcraft picture, "The Miracle Man" comes to the Strand theatre to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday. As a motion picture this absorbing story has been hailed by the critics as one of the finest productions ever seen on the screen. With scenes laid in the haunts of criminals in New York's Chinatown, in a little village on the side of a giant mountain, and on the shore of a roaring ocean, the opportunity for wonderful photographic effects has been realized to the limit. But the chief interest is in the striking story, which centres about the venerable figure of an old patriarch, who is credited with the power to heal the sick and make cripples walk whole again. To him come Tom Burke and his band of crooks from New York's Chinatown with the idea of cashing in on his powers. But it doesn't work out as they calculated, for hidden away in each of them is a heaven of good, which slowly comes to the surface under the influence of their wholesome environment. In a most marvelous way the criminals are reclaimed from the paths of crime. A cast of unusual ability enacts the important roles in the picture, headed by Thomas Meighan, a well known leading man, and including Elinor Fair, Betty Compson, Joseph J. Dowling, Lon Chaney, W. Lawson Butt, J. M. Dumont, Lucille Hutton and F. A. Turned.—Advt.

At Griffin's.
"The Street Called Straight," a picturization of Basil King's famous novel, will headline the programme at Griffin's for to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday. The story differs from that of the average film production in that its theme involves mental rather than physical complications. "The Street Called Straight," has a deep thought underlying it, and appeals to the intelligence of the spectator as well as to his emotions. Technically the picture is as close to perfection as modern motion picture art can make it. The sets represent perfectly the high station in life occupied by the characters, and beautiful photoplay reveals many unique lighting effects. Milton Sills and Naomi Childers head an all star cast. Episode number seven of "The Whirlwind," that sensational serial, and a good Christie comedy make up the balance of our entertaining programme which cannot fail to please the most blasé theatregoer.—Advt.

Holland Brothers Win Prizes.
Holland brothers, Kingston, who have specialized in certain lines of poultry for several years, won twelve prizes out of fifteen entries at the General Canada exhibition at Ottawa. The following were their winners: Black Langshans, first cock and first hen; first second and third cockerels, first and second pullets; black cochins bantams, third and fourth cock, third hen, second and fourth cockerels. It is interesting to note that Holland brothers won several prizes at the Ottawa fair ten years ago in the same classes.

Underwent An Operation.
E. O. Sitter, principal of the Collegiate Institute, was taken seriously ill on Sunday afternoon, and underwent an operation at the General hospital, for appendicitis. He stood the operation well, and on Monday was reported to be doing as well as could be expected.

Making Bird Houses.
The Kingston Humane Society hope to have a good exhibit of bird houses at the fair next week. The boys who meet on Monday evenings in St. George's hall have a good many houses started and other boys are making them at home.

BIG REALTY CHANGES.

Reported in the Thousand Island Summer Region.
Alexandria Bay, N.Y., Sept. 20.—A number of the island homes have been sold during the past season to people who have learned the lure of the river and are joining the already large summer colony.
Among the transfers is that of the Strauss Cottage on Cherry Island, sold by J. H. Dawes, of Pittsburgh, to Lawrence Frank, of New York City, a brother of Julius Frank, of Ogdensburg.
J. F. Maycock, of New York City, has sold his summer home near Seven Isles to S. S. McClellan, also of New York.
Mr. Soper, of West Virginia, has purchased Totem Lodge, on Tar Island, and Uta Isle, owned by Mrs. Daw, has been sold to Llewellyn Aldrich, of New York, a brother of DeWitt C. Aldrich, of Philadelphia, editor of the North Country Advance.
The fine Jackson estate Kewayden, has been purchased by W. T. Dewart, of the New York Sun, who, with his family, has spent several summers at the river.
Earlier in the season Ewing L. Rafferty purchased Photo Island, and is having the cottage rebuilt by J. B. and R. L. Reid, into a fine summer residence.
Other transactions are pending and much interest is shown in prospects.

AT CHRIST CHURCH, CATARAQUI.
Thanksgiving Service and Jubilee of the Congregation.
The year 1920 marks the jubilee of the congregation of Christ church, Cataraqui. The harvest thanksgiving services were held on Sunday. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the ladies of the congregation, with flowers, fruits and grain, and large congregations were present at the two services. The preacher in the morning was Canon J. W. Jones, secretary of the Ontario Synod, and in the evening Rev. W. E. Kidd, St. George's cathedral. During offertory Mrs. Kidd rendered a couple of very beautiful solos. The thanksgiving amounted to $130 and this is to be used as a commencement for a jubilee fund, and devoted towards redecorating and beautifying the interior of the church.

Sang in St. George's.
Peter Fair sang "There is no Death," Gordon Johnstone's words set to music by Geoffrey O'Hara, in St. George's cathedral on Sunday morning. His sweet full voice rang through the big church, carrying the message of his beautiful song to his hearers with the clear enunciation which is one of this boy singer's great charms.

Telephone Lines Burned.
The Bell Telephone company's lines passing through Barriefield were burned off by the fire that destroyed the barracks on Saturday afternoon. All the lines were cut off, and the linemen worked all day on Sunday connecting up the service cables, and by evening the lines were restored, a record accomplished.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of Mr. Robert Holden, who departed this life, Sept. 18th, 1919.

Just when his day was brightest,
Just when his day was best,
He was called from a world of sorrow
Unto eternal rest.
I do not know the pain he bore,
I could not see him die,
Only know he passed away,
And could not say good-bye.
—Sadly missed by his daughter, Mrs. Charles Frazer.

CARD OF THANKS
The Commanding Officer of the Canadian Permanent Machine Gun Brigade desires to express his thanks and appreciation to the many people who rendered such valuable assistance during the fire at Barriefield Barracks on Saturday, and also for the subsequent assistance of many to the personnel of the brigade.
It is regretted that it is impossible to thank each one personally for their share and it is hoped that all those who helped take this in lieu of a personal letter.
