IT'S REAL
 OUR BREAD IS REAL FOOD
 UR bread is real food. It's the food that belongs on your table. It's the bread that will help build up the health of your family. It's the bread that you should order by name to avoid substitution and that's a rather important thing to remember.

Every-body's Chance
 Hundreds of people who have never called to see the GREENE PIANO, will have a chance to see it and admire it at our exhibit at the Fair. The Greene Piano
 has a case of most graceful design that attracts at once. Its clear, liquid tone finds a response in any lover of good music, intensely satisfying, while the artist finds it easy to interpret the master minds of the best composers through its rippling melody.
 Its moderate price usually clinches a sale. Our easy payment plan is yours if desired.
 Make our store your shopping headquarters on Fair days—meet friends and leave parcels.

 Presentation At Sunbury, Sunbury, Sept. 21.—About one hundred of the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Patterson, met at their former home Sunbury, on Sept. 21 to express their regret at their removal and to present them with a framed oak library table and leather rocking chair, as a memento of the occasion. Joseph Toland read the address and presentations were made by W. Moreland and J. D. Shannon. Mr. Patterson replied in an able manner and extended a cordial invitation to all to visit them in their new home at Sydenham. After singing "He's a jolly good fellow," and partaking of the bountiful refreshments served by the ladies, dancing and games were indulged in till a late hour. The large crowd present was an indication of the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Patterson are held.
