The Hottest Weather. Kingston had about the hottest weather of this year on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the mercury rising to eighty-six degrees, a real summer temperature, the equal of anything in many years.

Brockville Merchant Dead. Crawford Smart, long identified with the mercantile interests of Brockville, and member of one of the town's oldest families, died on Friday, following a long illness. His wife and grown-up family survive.

To Teach School. Miss Daly, Port Hope, is principal, and Miss Stewart, B.A., Consecon, assistant of the new continuation school, Marmora, which opened with an attendance of almost fifty pupils, with a few additional ones expected.

A Very Large Plum. G. S. Ackerman, Picton, exhibits a Bradshaw plum grown in his garden, Centre street, weighing seven and a quarter inches in circumference and weighing five ounces. This is the largest on record.

Presentation to Church. Mrs. Earl Knapp has presented to the Anglican church at Rockport, an altar service book and a prayer book, bound in Morocco leather, "to the glory of God and in memory of her parents Bowle and Louisa Bash."

Injured in Auto Smash. Dr. W. C. Brown, collector of customs at Prescott, was taken to the Hepburn Hospital, Ogdensburg, N.Y., suffering from severe injuries received in an automobile accident when returning to Prescott from Brockville where he attended the fair with a party of friends.

Again in Trouble. At Stirling McGee's gents furnishings store was broken into and goods stolen. It is alleged that four young men were implicated in the affair and one James Naylor was apprehended, charged with the offence. Naylor a few days ago was allowed his liberty on suspended sentence for an infraction of the law.

Purchases Hotel. J. Ford McCahey, formerly of Galt, has purchased the hotel at Brockville.

Advice to Dyspeptics Well Worth Following. In the case of dyspepsia, the appetite is variable. Sometimes it is ravenous, again it is often very poor. For this condition there is but one sure remedy—Dr. Hamilton's Pills—which cure quickly and thoroughly.

Sufferers find marked benefit in a day, and as time goes on improvement continues. No other medicine will strengthen the stomach and digestive organs like Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They supply the materials and assistance necessary to convert everything eaten into nourishment, into muscle, fibre, and energy with which to build up the run-down system. Why not cure your dyspepsia now? Get Dr. Hamilton's Pills today, 25c per box at all dealers.

"MYSTERY MAN" OF WALL STREET EXPLOSION. Edwin P. Fischer (centre), arrested in Hamilton, after sending postcards to friends in New York, warning them in advance of the Wall street explosion. The picture was taken on Fischer's arrival in New York. The other figures are those of American detectives.

nanogue, who has been manager of the Albion House at Potsdam, N.Y., for the last year, has now purchased the hotel, which he will continue to operate.

Loses Sight of One Eye. David Keith, a machinist in the employ of the Marsh Engineering works, Belleville, was hammering a piece of steel when a piece broke off, the end of the hammer striking his right eye. The injured optic had to be removed.

Brockville Protests Cancellations. The Brockville Board of Trade proposes protesting the cancellation by the C.P.R. of two passenger trains which leave here daily, making connections for Ottawa at Smith's Falls and Carleton Place. These changes take place with the advent of the winter time table.

To Curl in Scotland. Capt. H. J. Alrith, Rentfrew, brother-in-law of C. S. Anglin, Wellington street, has been selected to go to Scotland next winter to curl for Canada against the exponents of the game in the Old Land. Capt. Alrith is one of six curlers to go from the Perth district. These six are the only players who use metals, all the others playing with the granites.

Victim of An Accident. Many in Brockville will learn with regret of the death in Toronto on Thursday of Helen J. Alder, daughter of the late James S. Lanskill. The deceased was the victim of a street car accident in June last, from which she never recovered and which ultimately resulted in her death. Miss Lanskill had been for many years on the teaching staff of the Toronto public schools. Her remains were buried at Brockville.

Has Skull Fractured. His skull fractured as the result of the breaking of a flywheel on a gas-engine during engine cutting operations, John Thompson, aged eighteen, residing in the township of Mattilda, six miles in the rear of Iroquois, is in the general hospital, Brockville, in a dangerous condition. The piece of metal struck him square on the forehead, inflicting a terrible wound. The result of an operation there is a chance for his life.

Appointed to Board. Prince Edward county council appointed Miss Fiona Barker, Bloomfield, Mrs. W. R. Bryne, township of the Maitland, as members of the commission, local board for Prince Edward, and the following names were recommended: W. H. Monaghan, Wellington; J. Hazel, Picton; D. W. Robinson, Consecon; H. R. Way, Demorestville; James Lochlin, Consecon; H. H. Horne, Consecon; B. Yarwood, Picton; W. I. B. Striker, Millford.

Lansdowne Folks Married. On Wednesday morning at Escott, Rev. John Putnam officiated in the marriage Miss Beulah Grace Graham, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Graham, Lansdowne, and Bryce Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Burns, Lansdowne. Miss Burns, a sister of the bridegroom and Arthur McConnell were the witnesses. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Burns left on a motor trip, on the completion of which they will reside in Lansdowne.

Medical Society Meeting. At a meeting held in Kemptville a few days ago, the Leeds and Grenville Medical Association elected the following officers: President, Dr. C. H. Bird, Gananoque; vice-president, Dr. R. R. Paul, Athens; secretary to be selected by the president. Papers were read by Dr. W. T. Connell, Kingston and Dr. F. Kidd, Ottawa. A resolution of regret was passed at the impending removal from Kemptville of Dr. Wallace, who will shortly move to Ottawa to practice.

Albert Rodway Injured. An accident occurred on Friday at the Old Homestead factory, Picton, resulting in serious injuries to Albert Rodway, a farmer living in the Fish Lake neighborhood. Mr. Rodway has just finished unloading a load of corn and stepped out on the wagon tongue, it is supposed, to get a line that had fallen on the ground. In that fall between the horses and they became frightened, running away and dragging Mr. Rodway under the wagon. He was seriously bruised, the wheel running over him. Fortunately, the horses were stopped after running only a few rods, and

Mr. Rodway released from the lines, in which he had become entangled. He was rushed to the hospital, and at last reports is recovering.

Filling the Silos. In nearly every section about Tweed farmers are busy cutting corn for their silos. Already a number of farmers have housed large quantities of ensilage. It is stated that there is a record crop of corn. Farmers who have a large number of cattle are very glad that the corn crop turned out so well as the hay crop was rather light.

"Safety Week" Observed. The Ontario government has issued a proclamation that the week from Oct. 19th to Oct. 25th, be known as "Safety Week." The proclamation is contained in the Ontario Gazette of this week. The proclamation says: "We express the earnest desire that each and every citizen of our province of Ontario will do his or her part in eliminating unnecessary accidents and fires, and we urge the fullest co-operation of all classes so that our province, as a whole, may benefit from this humanitarian movement."

Married At Perth. A quiet wedding was solemnized on Sept. 15th, at Perth, when Miss Jessie F. Stewart, daughter of Mrs. John Stewart, Elphinstown, was united in marriage with Albert E. McKeacher, Perth. The bride wore a lovely gown of navy blue serge suit opening with flesh georgette blouse and hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a cameo necklace set with pearls. After the ceremony the happy young couple left for Ottawa, and on their return motored to the bride's home in Elphinstown where a dainty supper was served in honor of bride and groom. They will reside in Perth.

Catarqui Wedding. A quiet wedding took place Wednesday, Sept. 22nd, at noon at the home of Mrs. John Aylesworth, Catarqui, when her only daughter, Meda Vera Fern was united in marriage to Edward Norman Eastman, son of William Eastman, Guelph. Rev. C. V. Fairbairn performed the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in silver grey, and the groom was attended by Miss Mildred Stover as bridesmaid dressed in Alice blue serge suit, black and grey hat and fur. The best wishes of a host of friends go with the young couple to their future home at Catarqui.

Comes Highly Recommended. Mayor Riggs has received from Chief Alexander Kidd, Parry Sound, his acceptance of the position of chief of police of Belleville. The new chief takes charge on the first of November. Chief Newton, who has for upwards of forty years been the custodian of law and order in this city, will shortly retire as chief and will be appointed police court clerk at the salary of $1,200 per year, it is understood. So Belleville will not lose the services of all the years of experience which Chief Newton possesses. His successor, Chief Kidd, is a young man who comes highly recommended, as he has done duty in Parry Sound and Peterboro and served overseas.

Send-Off At Willettscholme. Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd, Willettscholme, who are going west, had a gratifying send-off on Sept. 13th. Friends and neighbors met at their house and presented them with an address and a purse of money. Alexander McLean read the address, which expressed regret that Mr. and Mrs. Boyd were leaving the neighborhood after such a long residence amongst them and wishing them every success in their future life. The presentation was made by Walter Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd returned thanks in a feeling manner. Supper was partaken of and a pleasant evening spent. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd left on the 15th, amid the good wishes of their many friends.

Died Very Suddenly. Shockingly sudden was the death in Smith's Falls on Sunday of Mrs. John Wood, Perth. She had been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mervin Joynt, and met at their house and presented them with an automobile for Smith's Falls to attend Plymouth Brethren services. Just as she had her hand on the door to enter the meeting place she took a weak turn. Restoratives were applied and she appeared to rally. A little later, however, she again became faint and passed away, a victim of heart trouble. En route from Mr. Joynt's a blowout had occurred occasioning several minutes delay, and the excitement of this is supposed to have contributed to the fatal weakness.
