

Warning!!

Don't go out without a Daylo—when you are in darkness, these lights will show the way—quickly and safely. Ask the owner of a Daylo how he finds them—he'll say the same as we: "The only thing for a man in the dark"—and that means nearly everybody.

We stock them in all sizes—Lanterns and Candles—ones that are suited for milady's satchel to ones that are made for a car. Come in and let us show you the size you need.

Fresh Batteries and Bulbs always on hand.

Women May Serve as Coaches for Football

Philadelphia high schools are facing the alternative of woman football coaches, or no professional coach at all, according to William A. Stecher, director of public school physical education.

At the last examination for physical instructors in the high schools no men applied. There were ten women applicants.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON GIVES AUTHORITIES INFORMATION
Christy Mathewson has turned over to the authorities further inside information concerning the activities of Hal Chase, Lee Magee, and Heine Zimmerman, all of whom have been dropped from organized baseball. He has sent an affidavit to the official investigating the White Sox baseball scandal.

In the course of the affidavit "Maty" declares that Magee worked for Chase, and one time they both bet $500 that the Boston team would win. "The game will not suffer greatly despite the fact that it has received because a few betrayed their teammates and their clubs," Mathewson said.

CANADIAN INDIANS TO MAKE TRIP
The Mississauga Indians of the reservation north of Peterboro are planning to make Tris Speaker an honorary chief of their tribe when he makes his annual hunting trip to the Kawartha Lakes district upon the conclusion of the world series.

FAME IS FLEETING.
Hamilton Spectator.—The Selkirk hockey team, world's champions, is shot to pieces. Mike Goodman is expected to come east to join the pro ranks; Penson and Halderson are headed for Saskatoon, where they have received offers to play amateur hockey which equal the best inducements the professional club could make; Johnson is to enter school at Boston, while Frederickson, who captained the famous team, left for England last Wednesday, and upon his return is expected to settle down in Toronto, providing arrangements are suitable.

YOUTHFUL PRODIGES

Girls in England Turn in Remarkable Scores.

Children in America play tennis with considerable skill and dash, but usually their presence on the golf links is not encouraged. It would seem, however, that the game is not so exclusively for older heads and hands as Americans have believed. In England they are staking championship matches for girls, with the result that more than one infant prodigy has been brought to light. On the St. Andrew's links, Barbara Griffiths, aged 14, recently did a 92 in one of her rounds. And on the ladies' course at Sunningdale, a 13-year-old miss, Ruth Phrasyn, made rounds of 89, 73 and 77. English golf writers assert that children readily acquire a natural swing and for this reason they believe more youngsters should be taught the game.

PROFESSIONALS AFTER AMATEUR HOCKEYISTS.
Efforts to lure the amateur hockey players into professional ranks are not meeting with success. Geo. Kennedy, of Canadiens, with headquarters at Montreal, recently offered a contract to Charles Langlois, a Montrealer, but the latter declined. Conacher and Burch, T.C.C. Juniors, and Cooper, Reame and Reise, Hamilton Tigers, have also been approached.

Doesn't Seem Right.
At Montreal considerable surprise is expressed that a player from the United States should be picked as one of the team of Canadian curlers which will invade Scotland for a six weeks' tour, and will leave St. John, N.B., on the thirtieth of December next. The man picked is Dr. J. D. McGregor, Butte, Montana, and it is explained not only that the Butte Curling Club is affiliated with the Manitoba Curling Association, but that its representative is a Scotchman.

"Chick" Childs in Calgary.
Calgary hockey clubs are lining up strong teams for the coming season, but they will be fortunate if the C. A. H. A. does not take action. Brandon and Oliver, of Selkirk, are expected to play for the Calgary Canadians this season, as are also Alexander Irwin, former pro, and Childs, Oshawa goalkeeper.

Calgary Tigers have signed "Mickey" Mackay and several other capable players.

MONTREAL-MCGILL MATCH ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Montreal A. A. A. and McGill rugby teams will meet on Thanksgiving day in what promises to be the biggest attraction of the season. Last year these teams won the championship of their respective leagues, and there was a great demand for a game on the part of the public, but it was impossible on account of the severe weather. With both of the Montreal clubs strong contenders for championship honors again this season, the game will be watched as a contest between the game as played in the two leagues. Many thought that Shag's boys would have had their hands full with the Red and Blue squad last season, and while the teams are not the same this year, a hot argument is sure to take place when they meet.

The rules under which the game will be played will be a combination of the intercollegiate and inter-provincial rules. Of course, the differences are very slight, but where any argument will be adjusted by conferences between the two clubs.

HORSEMEN COME FAR TO SEE GREAT RACE.

Horsemen from all over the country will be present at Windsor, next Tuesday, to witness the match race between Man of War and Sir Barton. No turf event in many years has excited such widespread interest. Many New York sportsmen are making plans to leave here late this week for the Canadian city and on Sunday a big delegation will leave.

Samuel Hiddle will go to Windsor in a private car, accompanied by Jockey Clarence Kummer and a number of his friends. Commander Ross and a party of his friends will go from Laurel on Sunday, and will be at Kenilworth in time to see the final workouts of the rival horses.

A Letter to Carpenter.

Perhaps no better proof that Georges Carpentier is one of the best known celebrities in the world can be furnished than the delivery to him the other day of a post-card addressed Georges Carpentier, Amatrice, France, with no other mark or address than just the plain "Amerique." Speaking of mail to Carpentier, among the many letters from home invitations to dinners, or asking him to appear at benefits; some from silly women admirers and others just plain begging letters there was one that started from Brussels, Belgium, and was addressed to his Paris address. On the back of the envelope was the following message: "Bonne chance contre Levinsky. Les Papiers du bureau 9, Paris." Translated "Best wishes against Levinsky. The clerks at station 9, Paris." The letter was some time in transit and the message was written two days after the match was first announced in America.

Proving that the Paris public is keeping well-posted on Georges' movements.
