

"She Gave Them All The Ha-Ha-Ha"

Here's a new song that's entirely different—sung by those catchy singers, Lew Brown and Frank Crumit. This is just as good as "I Gave Her That," and that's saying something. Coupled with "My Little Bimbo Down on the Bamboo Isle," by Frank Crumit. If you want a real coming hit, ask for A2950—$1.00.

And as a follow-up hit, NORA BAYES sings all about "The Argentines, the Portuguese and the Greeks," and what they have done; with "Sally Green," the Village Vamp, on the other side. Record A2930 is going to be a sure winner.

McGILL 31, QUEEN'S 6

Shaughnessy's Team Scored High in the First Inter-collegiate Game.

With ideal weather conditions, McGill met and defeated Queen's by a score of 31 to 6 at the old athletic grounds on Saturday afternoon in the first of the senior intercollegiate rugby games. The grounds were crowded with spectators and rooters. Queen's R.M.C. McGill and Levana yells rang out once more. While the score was large it was perhaps not a fair indication of the play. McGill was better trained because the players had been under Shaughnessy's care far longer than had Queen's under Lindsay Malcolm. The tricolor boys really had practice for only eight days, and it will be another two weeks before they are at their best. McGill is a nifty team, and work their play faster than Queen's. No doubt in another week the local studs will be in better fettle and perhaps be able to give Varsity a hard battle here next Saturday.

McGill started with the wind in their faces. McGill kicked off to Edwards who returned to a short distance past the quarter. McGill kicked and recovered the ball when Ryan fumbled. At this stage "Slapper" Ellis started his line-jumping tactics which bothered Wallace. McGill kicked for some time. As soon as the ball was in play Ellis would drive the line and break up the quarter's pass thereby throwing the sole buckler over the top. Flanagan soon kicked to Ryan who was tackled behind for McGill's first point.

McGill forced the ball to Queen's line time and again, but could not break through for a touch. Finally Cope broke away and got over for the first try, which was successfully converted. Shortly after the kick-off, McKelvey began his line smashing and carried the ball from near half to McGill ten-yard line. Queen's lost the ball but it was recovered by Ellis, who kicked over for Queen's only touch. Score 7-5 at end of first quarter.

In the second quarter Queen's kicked to Russell, and Evans was hurt after making a beautiful tackle. Shortly after Cope broke through for another touch, which was not converted. At this stage Bowman received a five-minute penalty. Russell caught Queen's punt and made a fifty-yard run through the whole tricolor team. Flanagan kicked for a point. Bonham replaced O'Gorman at left outside for Queen's. After the ball had changed hands three times, Flanagan again kicked for a point.

McKelvey went through the opposing line for yards twice, and James once, but the yards were taken from them for off-sides and interference. The quarter ended with Flanagan caught Ryan's kick and was tackled by three Queen's men at once. Score, McGill 14, Queen's 5.

The Second Half. Wallace was replaced by Anderson at McGill quarter. Anderson was replaced by Wilson on the half line. Shortly after play started, Bowman, the giant Queen's back, got under way for a forty-yard run. After some see-sawing Flanagan returned the compliment to McGill and was tackled by Bowman and Carson were both hurt. Bowman and Carson were both hurt. Flanagan put a pretty drop over Queen's goal. Yule replaced Bowman and was shortly after replaced by Nickle. Flanagan got away once more and secured a touch in the extreme right corner, but failed to convert. Queen's made a rouse. Score, McGill 22, Queen's 6.

In the last quarter Veale replaced Johnson at right outside for Queen's. Lazier replaced McGregor at middle right for McGill. Flanagan and Ryan exchanged a series of punts. Evans and Edwards got away for a nice end run. Ryan was tackled inside the line for a point, and Edwards was nailed.

similarly shortly after. Little replaced Forbes. Anderson broke away for a touch which was converted. Ryan kicked well to Flanagan who was immediately tackled by Veale. Flanagan kicked shortly after for another rouse for McGill. After short play Edwards kicked to Flanagan, who was again nailed by Veale. Flanagan was hurt just as the whistle blew for full time. McGill 31, Queen's 6.

Notes of the Game. When Queen's can smash up McGill line back over for a touch from half-way and can hold them back on their own touch line many times; when they all can show as good condition and general individual ability in the first game, what kind of a "workout" will they give "Shag" before the season is over?

A little more practice, a little more training in the signals, just watch Veale should have been put on earlier in the game. He at once showed his superiority when given a chance in the last quarter.

The officials undoubtedly had a hard job and filled it to the best of their ability, but the opinion is that one of them might profit by a little more experience and a little better judgement. Bowman was penalized for what the McGill men did time and again.

They all pick on me because I'm small," said Bowman. Flanagan is a cracker-jack and so is McKelvey. "Johnny" Evans carries a head around with him on those shoulders and knows how to use it.

Where have the Queen's songs and faculty yells gone and why is the rooting not stronger? Is James all right? We'll say he is. The physical condition of the Queen's team in this game was a tribute to the work of "Billy" Hughes, their crack trainer. Too much cannot be said for the efficiency with which he has carried out his work. He was right on the job for all calls at the game.

Shipbuilders Team Win From C.L.C., 3 to 1

The Shipbuilders won from the C.L.C. in the soccer championship game on Saturday at the cricket field by a score of 3 to 1. A streak of good luck early in the first period and the superior playing of the forwards and the strong defence of the backs carried the shipbuilders to victory. In this connection reference might be made to the good showing of a new player, young Scotchman, John Dunn, who came to Canada only two weeks ago. His home was Shetland, near Glasgow, where he played soccer. On Saturday he played outside right. Atkins played a very fine game at outside left. Campbell was the second goal. He was followed by Atkins, and throughout the first period the play was all on the C.L.C. side of the field. During the second period the C.L.C. put up a stout fight, and while three shots narrowly missed their own goal, the play was mostly around the Shipbuilders' posts. But one goal was Shetland's they could make, and this was scored by Alwyn. The line up was:

Cleveland Takes Two Home Games

Cleveland Indians put joy and new hope into the hearts of 27,000 raving Ohio fans at Cleveland, Ohio, Saturday afternoon by defeating the Brooklyn Nationals 5 to 1 in the fourth game of the world series and evening the count for the world's title. Stanley Coveleskie, the big Polish spitballer, registered a well-earned win over the Robins' holding them to five hits.

The batting eyes of the Indians returned to them when they cut loose on their home field. Going after a quartet of Brooklyn pitchers they amassed a total of twelve safe drives. The Indians were a fighting band from start to finish. They attacked Leon Cadore in the opening round and before the impetus of their initial drive had been spent, two runs were across the rubber. With Coveleskie pitching unbeatable ball, two tallies were sufficient and the game was virtually over.

The wonderful fielding that has marked the series from the start was maintained. Hi Myers, the Robins' centerfielder, undoubtedly carried away the highest fielding honors by virtue of two wonderful catches. Running at top speed in the third round, Myers took a drive off his shoe tops and rolled over and over, coming up with the ball. He pulled another catch off Evans in the fourth round that was classy.

The infield of both clubs worked in regular world series fashion. Wamby, at second for the Indians, planted himself firmly in the affections of his home town fans by his sterling work.

R.M.C. Juniors Win; 2 Defeat Queen's 23-

In the opening game of the junior intercollegiate rugby union, played at Queen's athletic grounds on Saturday afternoon before the McGill-Queen's senior game, the cadets of the Royal Military College won from Queen's III by a score of 23 to 2.

The cadets with the benefit of one month's more training, had the better of the play from start to finish. They were in perfect physical condition and were able to outclass their opponents. The score at the end of the first period was 9 to 0. Half time score was 9 to 2. Third period ended 16 to 2.

Table with 2 columns: Player Name, Position. Includes R.M.C. II, McPherson, Howard, Sutherland, Hamilton, Graydon, Carr-Harris, McLeod, Richardson, McDonald, Lewis, Creswick, Gordon, Williams, and Sutherland.

Not His. One day as I was out in the back yard I noticed my neighbor's washing hanging so low on the line that it was dragging on the muddy ground beneath. Just as I was debating whether I should go and tell the landlady or telephone her the man of the house came out of the back door and hurried through the yard. As he reached the gate I called to him: "Hey, your clothes are dragging in the mud!" He started, blushed a rosy red, glanced down toward his feet, and they blurted out: "Wh—wh—what do you mean?" —Exchange.

No Chance. "No, I know nothing about must." "All you have to do is to jangle this cowbell." "But, suppose I came in at the wrong place." "You can't do that in jazz."

There's not much sense in arguing with the man who is not open to conviction. "Porgie us our debts" doesn't mean a repudiation of honest obligations.
