No Return Of The Trouble Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

103 CHUROE St., MONTERAL. "I was a great sufferer from Rhoumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists; took medicine; used lotions; but nothing did me good.

Then I began to use "Fruit-a-tives". and in 15 days the pain was easier and the Rheumatism much better. Gradually, "Fruit-a-tives" overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. I cordially recommend this fruit medicine to all sufferers."

Should Show Lights. There are a number of autos going around the city at night without their lights burning. Complaints have been made to the police, and a watch will be kept for the guilty parties.

To Much Speed. Complaints continue to be made about the speed of automobiles on the city streets. The Wellingtonstreet pavement is a popular place for a speeding, and several nights last week there was too much of it.

Was Elected President. At a meeting of the Woodstock Old Country Club, M. McIntyre Hood, formerly of Kingston, was elected president. At this gathering the club made arrangements for a splendid programme for the winter season.

Lad's Leg Broken A lad named Austin met with a painful accident on Sunday while loitering about McCallum's granite works. A monument toppled over and jammed his leg, breaking it. He was removed to the Hotel Dieu.

Picton Has New Doctor. Picton has an addition to the ranks of the medical profession, Dr. Howard Walmsley, B.A., M.D., is a Prince Edward county boy, a native of the township of Athol, son of James Walmsley. He was educated at Queen's Medical College.

Engagement Announced. The engagement is announced of Miss Natelie Sliter, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. Sliter, Napanee, to Harold J. Farnan, Hamilton, Ont., eldest son of H. Farnan, London, Ont. The marriage is to take place quietly the latter part of October.

Fell From a Scaffold. Cooper Lennox, an employee of the Collingwood Shipbuilding Company, was the victim of a painful accident on Saturday at noon when he fell from a scaffold upon which he was working. He sustained injuries to his head and shoulder, and was removed to the Hotel Dieu.

A Quiet Holiday. Thanksgiving day was a very quiet day in the city. The church services held in the morning were well attended, and in the afternoon the theatres and the horse races at the fair grounds drew large crowds. The traffic on the railways both in and out of the city was quite heavy.

Tailor Shop At R.M.C. The Royal Military College has established a permanent tailor shop for the manufacture of all articles of uniform for the cadets, and the system of letting contracts to outside firms has been abolished. This has been brought about by Major-General Macdonell, the present commandant, as being more economical and in every way more satisfactory.

Horse Rides On Cow Catcher. A live horse riding on a cow catcher of a C.N.R. freight engine was th sight that met the eyes of Watchman Peter Evans at the Bay Bridge R. R. Crossing. The train was moving slowly westward and picked the animal up east of the small bridge over the marsh. The equine had his left hind leg injured. Its owner is E. Kellaway.

Was Quite a Monster. So heavy was the monster locomotive turned out by the Canadian Locomotive Works on Friday last, that no chances were taken in passing over the switches in the Kingston yards. A man went ahead of the engine and spiked the switches securely to the ties in order to avoid the possibility of accident. The engine can pull a train of 2,500 tons up heavy grades.

Case Disposed Of. A case of interest was tried at the assizes at Picton. It was an action for $10,000 damages brought by W. Mackintosh, formerly of the Mackintosh Rubber Company, Belleville, against J. C. Wilson et al, for alleged malicious prosecution. After deliberating for two hours the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff, fixing the damages at $400. The verdict also carried the court costs.

To Piace a Tablet. Judge McDonald, Brockville, and F. Eames, Toronto, want to place a suitable brass tablet in the Gananoque high school, commemorating the establishment of a school there by the late Col. Stone. It will be supplied without cost. A committee, J. A. Jackson, F. B. Cowan, and Dr. C. H. Bird, will go into the matter.

Gave Them Gifts. A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McConnell, Sharp's Corners, on Sept. 17th, when over one hundred and twenty-five of the neighbors and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Richmond met at the home of the bride's parents and presented the young

> Phase In Child Welfare. An interesting phase in child welfare occurred recently in the county of Prince Edward. Mabel G., a tenyear-old child was, a year ago, living in destitution and, to say the least, poor moral surroundings. With the assistance of the Belleville agent for the protection of children, she was placed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parliament. In their home, she was nurtured and cared for as a

The Advantages of a Long Term Bond

Long term bonds, yielding an attractive interest return, are the best insurance against changes in market conditions, particularly when the security behind such bonds is the pledge of a wealthy Canadian Province.

We offer, in denominations of $500 and $1,000, Province of Saskatchewan 6% Gold Bonds, maturing October 1st, 1940.

At 96.62 and interest, these bonds afford an interest return of 6.30% for twenty years. Mail your order and delivery will be made at your local bank free of expense to you.
