New York Brokers Grip U. S. Commerce

Washington, Oct. 19 .- A small coterie of New York stock exchange brokers have unlimited power over the finance of the country. John Skelton Williams, comptroller of currency, charged in a statement issued yesterday. These brokers, Williams stated. meet daily to fix the renewal rates on brokers' loans, which govern in nearly all New York banks. They are accountable to no one, Williams asserted, and their power gives them "a grip on the heart of our commerce."

Joseph Hickson, ex-warden of Northumberland and Durham, and a well-known farmer and stock-raiser, has been in Cobourg hospital for several weeks with a very bad attack of blood poisoning, caused by a bruise. A tablet in memory of the late Rev. Dr. Barclay, for many years
