Minister Cannot Go.
Ottawa, Oct. 20.—Pressure of official business will prevent Hon. R. W. Wignmore, Minister of Customs and Inland Revenue, from making his proposed tour of principal Canadian cities to advise business men and others with regard to the luxury and sales taxes, and to discuss other matters affecting the department.

John Sheppard of Grantham township, pausing from digging post holes to chat with a neighbor, dropped dead.

The dinner given by Arts '17 in the Red Room at Queen's on Saturday evening was a most pleasant affair. The table was lovely with yellow chrysanthemums, Queen's own flowers, and the red, blue and yellow, the victorious colors on many a field of sport, were much in evidence. On the place cards were tiny yellow "mums," and on the dainty menu cards, a replica of the '17 pin. Miss Charlotte Whitton was toast-mistress, and the toasts were, the King, Our Alma Mater, Our Year, Fallen Members and Absent Members. Dr. D. M. Gordon, principal emeritus, whose last office as principal of Queen's was to cap the graduating class of '17, spoke wisely and sympathetically as he always does, and one of the greatest pleasures of the evening to those who had been his students, was to hear his beloved voice once more. Principal Taylor, Dean Skelton, Hon. President, Wilbur Chown, permanent President of the year, were among the speakers. The other officers and members of '17 present were Howard Folger, treasurer, Miss Mary McPhail, poetess, Miss Eva Coon, prophet, Mrs. Bruce Taylor, Mrs. Skelton, Miss Wilhemina Gordon, Miss May Gemmill, Miss Jessie McArthur, Miss Bernice Clough, Miss Helen Benter, Miss Jessie Dyde, Miss Nell Clinton, Miss Laura Abernethy, Miss Nina Donnelly, Miss Maud McMaster, Messrs. W. J. Mars, D. R. Collins, W. R. Holcroft, J. A. McKinnon, Glenn Davidson, J. H. Barry, M. C. Sutherland. After the toasts had been drunk and the speeches made, the merry party spent the remainder of the evening in dancing and at its close voted the dinner of 1920 a grand success.

Mrs. Van Straubenzie and Miss Van Straubenzie, Beverley street, have returned from Port Hope where they had gone to be present at a tea given by Miss Ward, in honor of Miss Barham, a wonderful old lady, who celebrated her one hundredth birthday last week. Miss Barham who has often visited Mrs. Van Straubenzie, lived in Kingston for some years as governess to the late Mrs. Macaulay and the late Mrs. John Cartwright whose daughters, Mrs. Van Straubenzie, Mrs. Bedford Jones and Mrs. Cayley she taught. Lady Cartwright is another old friend with whom Miss Barham, in spite of her many years, still keeps up a correspondence. She was quite well and still able to make music upon the piano on the day of her birthday fete and greatly enjoyed her birthday cake with its hundred candles and the gifts, letters, and telegrams she received from her old friends and pupils. Mrs. Hugh Witherspoon, who is now with her mother, Mrs. Cumberland, was one of the guests present.

The delightful weather on Saturday drew a great many people to Barriefield where the mounted sports of the R. C. H. A. were going on in the camp grounds. A few weeks ago thousands of men were in training for active service in the great war. Mounted sports always have a fascination and the background of the woods behind the ranges where the scarlet and gold of the maples showed vividly in the distance, was an added attraction. Tea was served from a marquee after the sports and there some of the younger set went over to the Tete-De-Pont barracks for an informal dance.

Mrs. Bruce Taylor entertained at the tea hour on Saturday in honor of the members of Queen's Alumnae. Mrs. H. A. Lavell and Miss Lillian Mowat made the tea, and the hour spent in the cosy fire lit drawing room was a very happy one for the women, once under the wings of "good old Queen's" now met together once more under the hospitable roof of the Principal's residence.

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try It!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quart of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.

Thanksgiving Service.
Thanksgiving services at the Princess Street Methodist church on Sunday were of a bright and interesting nature, with inspiring discourses by Capt. H. J. Latimer, Wilton. The musical part of the programme was of a high order. Miss Grace Taft, organist, was in charge of the music, and the various numbers were given with fine effect. The anthems and solos were splendidly rendered. Solos were given by Miss Timmerman, P. H. Baker, Sergeant-Major Moyer, Mrs. Haryett, and Messrs. Eli Taylor and George Gibson, Ottawa. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.
