"A cup of Cocoa"

Good at any hour of the day
Baker's Cocoa
 is especially good in the evening a short time before retiring. Its flavor is delicious, its aroma most attractive, and it is conducive to restful sleep without being in any sense of the word, a narcotic. Absolutely pure and wholesome.

Told in the Twilight

Mrs. Gullford B. Reed, Albert street, entertained at bridge on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Thure Headman, who is to her friends' regret, leaving Kingston, and Mrs. Earle, who, with her husband, Prof. Earle, is being welcomed to Queen's College. There were three tables in play, and at the tea hour a few more people came in to meet the guests of honor. At the pretty tea table, with its centre of golden marigolds, Mrs. Earle made the tea, with Mrs. G. W. Mylks, Mrs. W. Clifford Clark, and Miss May Chown, as the tea room assistants. Altogether it was a delightful little party, as pleasantly informal as Mrs. Reed's entertainments always are.

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Allen, 559 Ossington avenue, Toronto, on Tuesday evening, when a few friends were gathered together in honor of their guest, Mrs. R. W. Allen, Kingston. The feature of the evening, which was taken up chiefly with progressive euchre, was the presentation of the royal prize to the guest, who was successful in winning the coveted prize. Following the euchre, refreshments were served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated with autumn and Halloween combination. A brief musicale to continue the cheerfulness until midnight, bringing the delightful evening to a close, was an appropriate conclusion.

Mrs. R. J. Rodger, Miss Mowat and Miss W. Gordon were guests at the luncheon given by the Ottawa Chapter of the I. O. D. E. this week in honor of the visiting members of the provincial executive, Her Excellency the Duchess of Devonshire, Lady Pope, Lady Eagan, Lady Perley, Lady Borden, Miss Joan Arnold, National President of the I. O. D. E., were among those present.

Mrs. Cuthbert Gummer, Collingwood street, entertained at supper after the "Hambourg" concert on Thursday evening in honor of Messrs. Jan and Boris Hambourg and Signor Guevoro, who are very popular visitors in Kingston. The other guests included Mrs. Bruce Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. A. B. R. Williamson, Prof. and Mrs. A. S. Ferguson, Dr. and Mrs. Dyde, Miss Christie Dyde, Miss King, Prof. and Mrs. Keith Hicks and Prof. Bovadani.

Mrs. Flanner, Lower Albert street, entertained at tea on Thursday afternoon when her guests were members of the college set. Mrs. O. D. Skelton and Mrs. Arthur Clark were in charge of the tea, assisted by some of the younger guests.

Col. Beaman, D.S.O., entertained at dinner at the Country Club, on Thursday evening. The guests included Major and Mrs. Austin Gilles, Capt. and Mrs. Sidney McCann, Mrs. Howard Penhale, Miss Kathleen Carruthers and Capt. Harold Brownfield.

Roses Beautify This Gown.
 Decidedly attractive is this evening gown of white satin and net. It is particularly suitable for the young girl who affects simple but charming modes. The skirt of green is quite straight and tight. Over its shimmering folds falls a pointed tunic of white net.
 A delightful touch of color is revealed in the garlands of roses that are set about the top of this evening dress. The roses are of a delicate pink silk with light green leaves.
 The fichu of white net is draped about the shoulders so that a pleasing neckline is achieved. In the rear some clustered roses mark ends of the drapery.

Blackheads are a confession

Blackheads are caused by excessive oil collecting dirt in the pores of the skin. Their presence is a confession that you are using the wrong method of cleansing for your type of skin.

To cleanse thoroughly skins liable to this disfiguring trouble, use the following special treatment. Apply hot cloths to the face until the skin is reddened. Then with a rough washcloth work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub it into the pores thoroughly, always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with clear hot water, then with cold—the colder the better. If possible, rub your face for thirty seconds with a piece of ice. Dry carefully.

To remove blackheads already formed, substitute a fish brush for the washcloth in the treatment above. Then protect the fingers with a handkerchief and press out the blackheads.

Keep your skin free of blackheads by the above treatment and gain the clear attractive skin that the regular use of Woodbury's brings.

Get a cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap and begin tonight the treatment your skin needs. You will find Woodbury's on sale at any drug store or toilet goods counter in the United States or Canada. A 25 cent cake will last a month or six weeks.
