OTTAWA HOCKEYISTS

FALLING IN LINE

With the opening of the hockey season two months distant, the Ottawa Hockey Club has started signing its players. Contracts are being offered to all the members of the Stanley Cup team of last season. One of the Ottawa officers said to-night that four were already under contract, and that they would again have their team intact. Sprague Cleghorn has not yet signed, and is said to be negotiating with the promoters of the Canadian Hockey Association.

None of the other Ottawa players take the proposed new league seriously, and most of the telegrams are now in the hands of the Ottawa club officers. Evidently the manoeuvres of the C. H. A. are not worrying the Ottawa. One of the Ottawa players received a telegram from a R. C. A. officer stating that Hamilton would be in the Canadian Hockey Association. In this connection an officer of the Senators said:

"Hamilton was admitted to the National Hockey League over a month ago. They have already paid a big installment on their franchise. If St. Patrick's are refused ice at the Toronto Arena they will play their games at Hamilton."

ORPEN SENDS A CHECK

TO MAN O' WAR'S OWNER

A. M. Orpen, of the Kenilworth Jockey Club at Windsor, in a long-distance telephone conversation from his home in Toronto with one of his representatives, said that a cheque representing the purse won by Man o' War by his defeat of Sir Barton, was on its way to Samuel D. Riddle, owner of the champion racer.

This statement was made as the result of a report that Mr. Riddle had not received the money for the victory. Mr. Orpen explained that some time had been required to settle the affairs for the meeting and to get the bank draft necessary, as the purse was to be paid in American money. He said that the cheque was mailed to Mr. Riddle a day or two ago, and had probably been received by him now.

Keeps Children Well Makes Them Robust

HERE IS GOOD ADVICE FOR THE HEAD OF EVERY FAMILY

Rapid growth, work at home and in the school-room, are sure to tax the strength of every child, and often prove the beginning of a chain of weakness that lasts through life.

Give your sons and daughters a fighting chance! Give them good home surroundings, fortify them with education—but above all else do everything possible to insure for them perfect health in years to come.

In no way can you destroy weakness and build up health so surely as with Ferronzo. It's the concept, trained nourishment in Ferronzo that enables it to do so much good. It contains the very elements that are useful in building up bone and sinew, in vitalizing and strengthening the blood. The appetite Ferronzo brings will gladden any parent's heart, and when color, spirits, vim, and energy increase day by day then you know what grand work Ferronzo is doing. Because it makes it keeps you healthy, because it is pleasant, harmless and sure to do enormous good—you and your children should use Ferronzo every day. Sold by all dealers in 50c boxes, six for $2.50.

Collins To Manage Yankees?
According to sources close to the New York American League baseball club, Eddie Collins, of the Chicago White Sox, will succeed Miller Huggins as manager of the Yankees. It is generally understood that the midwest manager has run his race as boss over Babe Ruth and the Bambino's supporting cast. Collins began his baseball career in New York City, being a member of the Columbia University team before going to Connie Mack's school at Philadelphia where he remained until he was sold to the White Sox. He has always been rated as one of the greatest second basemen in the history of the game and one of the brainiest players. There is no questioning that he would be an ideal selection, but can you imagine Connorsky disposing of Collins after what transpired last month? Neither can we.

Engineers Win in Practice Match.
Yesterday afternoon the stalwarts of Science '23 and Meds. '23 gathered on the Lower Campus in battle array for nothing more dangerous than a game of rugby. The sawbones strove mightily and with great valour but the sturdy and persistent engineers wore them down and at last won out by a score of 3 to 0. Many fine players appeared on both sides and the game did not lack interest at any stage. The kicking (with the feet) was good and both the medicals and the science showed a strong tendency to commit petty larceny on the ball. However this bit of light-fingered work only added interest to the game and both sides are eager for another meeting in the near future.

What Next?
Hamilton Herald: If the Tigers defeat Argos here on Saturday, and the Scullers then go on and win the Big Four championship it will be a rather hollow victory. Hamilton's would regard it is such, at any rate. There would always be the feeling here that the best team in the union didn't win.

Attell Willing to Testify.
Abe Attell told a Montreal newspaper that no extradition proceedings would be needed to make him go back to the United States to testify in the baseball scandal case. "When I am ready," he said, "I will go back of my own free will and tell all I know."

When troubles start they come one's way like a string of beads.

SCARCITY OF MEN FOR PROFESSIONAL HOCKEY

Discussing the season's National Hockey League prospects, George Kennedy, managing owner of the Montreal Canadiens, said the only thing that will prevent the extension of the N. H. L. circuit next season will be the lack of players. This, therefore, should be a fine chance for clever amateurs, he contended.

Another well-known hockey authority states, however, that clubs and business and financial houses offer such wonderful inducements in the way of easy and highly paid positions to amateurs to play hockey for them that it pays them better to remain amateur.

BOXING IS LEGALIZED IN MASSACHUSETTS

Boxing is on a new basis in Massachusetts. For the first time in a quarter-century professional matches are open to public participation under legal sanction, and it is no longer necessary for a man who wishes to see a bout to first join a club over the meetings of which referees have been the moderators and bookers. The familiar announcement in introducing fighters that "both are members of this club" is heard no more.

The new order of things is the result of a law establishing a state boxing commission, and stipulating some of the conditions under which the sport must be conducted. These provide for ten round bouts, the rounds of three minutes each, to be conducted by clubs licensed by the commission under bonds of $5,000. Decisions are given by the referee and two judges, licensed by the commission.

The members of the board, four days after their appointment, laid down supplementary regulations under which each judge is required to write and sign his decision and the referee decides if they disagree. Under the commission's rules there can be no draw.

BISON CHANGE HANDS

The Buffalo International Baseball Club, Buffalo, has been incorporated at Albany, with an authorized capital of $200,000. The incorporators are: J. H. Meahl, R. K. Robertson and C. A. Lannin, of this city.

It is understood that J. J. Lannin has withdrawn from the Buffalo club, and that there will be a change in the management before the opening of the season of 1921. George (Hooks) Wiltz, who has been pilot of the Bisons for some years, is expected to go to one of the major league clubs in an advisory capacity and as scout.

NOT A CHIEF.

Tris Speaker Disappointed the Che-mong Indians.

Tris Speaker, "Chick" Halford, Leslie Numaker and the Peterboro members of the party that spent the last ten days at Idyl Wylde, Rice Lake, Ont., returned to Peterboro yesterday, and the manager of the Cleveland Indians and the party from Cleveland returned to their home city. H. Clay Folger, who was in the party, has already returned to Cleveland.

The Mississaugas, and the Che-mong Indian reserve, near Peterboro, were disappointed when they learned that Speaker and his party would not have time to visit the reserve, as had been intended. All week the redskins had been preening their ceremonial feathers and roles in anticipation of making Speaker a real chief of the tribe.

To Fight in Havana.

The bout between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier for the heavyweight championship of the world, will be held in Havana, Cuba, it was announced.

Selection of Havana as the scene of the contest was made by Tex Rickard, Charles B. Cochrane and William Brady, who stated they had received an offer of such proportions from a syndicate of Cuban capitalists that it was finally determined the championship battle would be staged in Havana.

The Virtues of "Golf."

J. Stitt Wilson, formerly socialist mayor of Berkeley, Cal., sums up the virtues of golf as follows: "I know of no game so exacting on truthfulness, honor, integrity, courage, generosity and friendship in victory or defeat. Every moment of golf is a demand on a man's skill and character. His brains must reach the end of his club and across the field, with accuracy and precision. And every hour on the golf links is a test of honor and training of character."
