

CALLS WILSON A CASUALTY

A Touching Picture of U.S. President, Broken In Health.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 29.—Some intimate pictures of the personality of President Wilson as revealed in his daily contact with his private secretary were given by Joseph P. Tumulty, in an address at a Democratic meeting at Bethesda, Md.

Secretary Tumulty said he thought it fitting that "just before the curtain rises on the last act," he should "modestly step out from obscurity in the wings," and "tell the audience a few things about the leading actor in this great drama of the past eight years, the stormiest and most pregnant period in all the history of the world."

In vivid language Mr. Tumulty contrasted President Wilson's present physical condition with his vigor at the time of the declaration of war.

"Two pictures are in my mind," said Mr. Tumulty. "First the house of representatives crowded from floor to gallery with expectant throngs. Presently, it is announced that the president of the United States will address congress. There steps out to the speaker's desk a straight, vigorous, slender man, active and alert. He is sixty years of age, but he looks not more than forty-five, so lithe of limb, so alert of hearing, so virile; it is Woodrow Wilson, reading his great war message."

"The other picture is only three and a half years later. There is a parade of veterans of the great war. They are to be reviewed by the president on the east terrace of the White House. In a chair sits a man, your president, broken in health, but still alert in mind. His hair is white, his shoulders bowed, his figure bent. He is sixty-three years old, but he looks older. It is Woodrow Wilson."

Wounded Salute Wounded. Presently in the procession there appears an ambulance laden with wounded soldiers, the maimed, the halt, and the blind. As they pass they salute, slowly, reverently. The president's right hand goes up in answering salute. I glanced at him. There were tears in his eyes. The wounded is greeting the wounded. Those in the ambulance, he in the chair, are alike casualties of the great war."

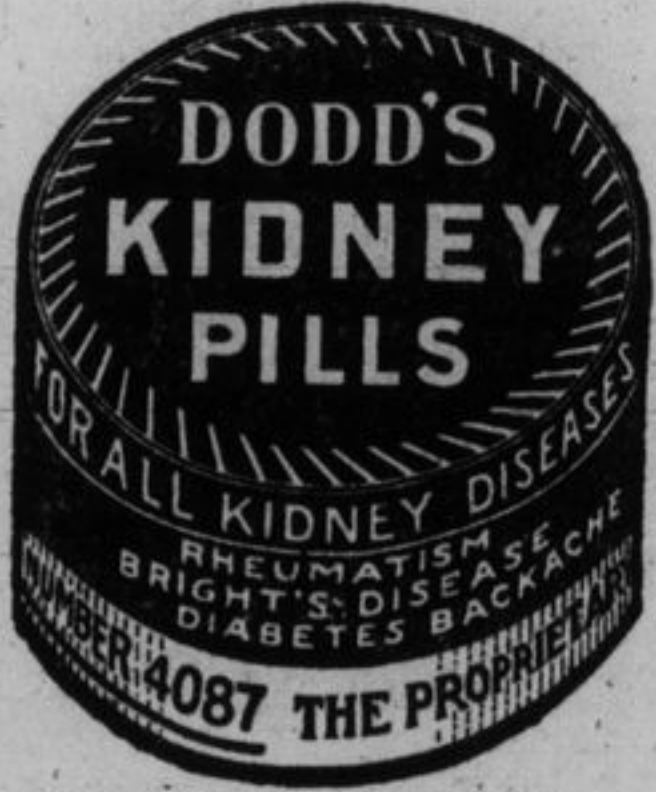

Commenting on the president's feelings with regard to his "wounds," Mr. Tumulty continued: "I do not believe in his heart President Wilson regrets his wounds. I fancy he realizes no man could die in a greater cause, but I do sometimes wonder if it ever seems to him strange that when a man has been seriously wounded in his country's service he should be met with sneers and calumnies from his countrymen. "I think already the better nature of America is awakened. Those who have joined in the chorus of calumnies begin to grow ashamed of their uncharitable conduct; begin to resent the tricks of politicians which beguiled them into base ingratitude. "Woodrow Wilson will soon make his exit from the political stage. I am human enough to want him to live for many years, not only for the sake of his personal friends and the great books which he is going to write, but also to see the vindication which is sure to come."

Every family tree has more or less dead wood.

LABOR SITUATION GROWING GLOOMY

Few Requests for Men and Hundreds for Employment in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—A gloomy winter for the laboring man is foreseen in Chicago and its vicinity. Wages have dropped and the prospects are they will continue to drop. Hundreds of skilled and unskilled laborers have been laid off in Chicago and there is practically no demand for labor of any kind.

This, in brief, is the summary of the labor situation in Chicago as winter approaches. The summary is made by officials of the Chicago office of the Illinois Free Employment Agency.

Signs of growing unemployment in Chicago cropped up in many quarters. One large department store reported that more than 200 applicants for clerical jobs lined up at its employment office this morning. It had not experienced any such rush in the last eighteen months. On the west side in Chicago slackness of employment in the garment industry is also growing.

"The prospect for labor for the winter is most gloomy," said Charles D. Probie, of the general advisory board of the Illinois Free Employment Bureau. "We are getting few requests for men and hundreds of requests for jobs."

All grades of labor from highly-skilled down to common day-laborers, and including office help and stenographers, are affected.

TO STUDY TRADE AGENCIES ABROAD

Sir George Foster Will Investigate on His Trip to Europe.

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—Sir George Foster will give some attention during his forthcoming trip to Europe, it is understood, to the question of the future organization of Canadian government agencies in Great Britain for the encouragement of trade.

For a long time Canada has had her trade commissioners and commercial intelligence service in Great Britain.

During the war special conditions led to the formation of the Canadian Trade mission. This mission is now practically completed and there has been some talk of overlapping between its functions and those of the trade commissioners. Comment of this character has been increased, no doubt, by the fact that the exchange rates and other conditions have militated late against the success of efforts to promote trade between Canada and Great Britain.

FILES LIBEL SUIT AGAINST AN EDITOR

Franklin D. Roosevelt Accuses Providence Journal of Circulating False Charges.

New York, Oct. 30.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for the vice-presidency, filed papers in a suit for $500,000 against John R. Rathon, editor and publisher of The Providence Journal, and Scott C. Bone and Edward B. Clark, manager and assistant manager of publicity for the Republican national committee, charging the defendants with circulating false and defamatory libel.

An editorial in the Providence Journal charged that Mr. Roosevelt, while secretary of the navy, had sequestered or destroyed navy department records and that he had sought personally to return to the ships of the navy men convicted of various crimes. Mr. Roosevelt made public denial of the charges, and then Mr. Rathon sent him a letter outlining specific cases referred to in the editorial. The letter also was published in the Providence Journal.

Mr. Bone and Mr. Clark are made defendants because it is charged by the candidate that they circulated the letter widely as Republican propaganda.

150 TONS OF BALLOTS

All Ready for the New York City Voters.

New York, Oct. 30.—By nightfall next Tuesday, 150 tons of ballots will have been stuffed into the ballot boxes of New York City. This estimate was made by the Board of Elections, which announced that 6,500,000 ballots, three for each of the 1,367,935 qualified voters, have been printed at a cost, for printing alone, of $200,000.

A machine has been invented for winding motion picture films so they can be shipped by mail or express without the reels upon which they usually are wound.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

"The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

HORSE SENSE in horse feeding.

It is proved common sense to feed a horse a balanced feed, which will develop every part of his body. Analysis of Purina O-Molene Feed shows that it contains in proper proportion all the elements for muscle, blood, hair and hide making, as well as a large percentage of Nitrogen free extract, which supplies heat and energy. There is no 15 to 18 percent waste as in feeding the whole oats, due to swelling whole. Purina O-Molene Feed is highly digestible.
