NERVES ALL GONE TO PIECES

"Fruit-a-tives" Conquered Nervous Prostration

R. R. No. 4, GILBERT PLAINS, MAN.
 "In the year 1910, I had Nervous Prostration in its worst form; drooping from 170 to 115 pounds."
 The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend induced me to take "Fruit-a-tives".
 I began to mend almost at once, and never had such good health as I have enjoyed the past eight years. I am never without "Fruit-a-tives" in the house". JAS. S. DELGATY.
 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c.
 At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

WITH THE FUNNY MEN
 Self-Encasement.
 "Leonidas!" exclaimed Mrs. Meekton, "are you aware that I was dropping my essay on politics aloud to you?"
 "Yes, my dear."
 "But you went to sleep."
 "Why not? You removed every doubt so thoroughly and solved every problem so completely that I saw no further reason for retaining personal consciousness."

Another Item.
 "This bill of yours—why, it makes my blood boil!" the indignant patient stormed.
 "Ah!" the man of medicine returned calmly, "in that case we must make a little change," and, taking the bill he added the line:
 "To making blood boil and thereby sterilizing system, $25."

Confirmed Economists.
 "Yes, they are a very economical couple. They eloped to save themselves the cost of a wedding."
 "Can't say that they look very happy."
 "They're not, but they are living together to save the cost of a divorce."

What Kisses Bring.
 "You claim there are microbes in kisses?" she asked the young doctor.
 "There are," he said.
 "What disease do they bring?" she asked.
 "Palpitation of the heart."—Ladies' Home Journal.

The Main Trouble.
 Tramp—Yes, lady, my folks when they died, left me a lot of money.
 Kind Old Lady—Well if they did, why do you go around begging?
 Tramp—The trouble is, lady, they didn't tell me where they left it, and consequently I never found it.

Works Both Ways.
 "One by one our children leave us," said the mother sadly, as the fourth daughter started on her wedding journey.
 "Yes," replied the father, a little more sadly, "and one by one they bring our sons-in-law back to us."

THE NEXT IN ORDER.
 Mr. Cheerup: Too bad you lost so much money in that oil stock swindle. But brace up, man. Every cloud has a silver lining.
 Mr. Sappe: Yes, I've heard a rumor to that effect but I haven't yet been offered any stock in the prospect.

True.
 The road to fame is long and rough. They only win who've got the stuff.

Sometimes Difficult.
 Little Harry—Papa, what is politeness?
 Professor Broadhead—Politeness, my son, is the art of not letting other people know what you really think of them.—Stray Stories.

Cynical Suggestion.
 "Girls do not seem to take well to athletics. Did you ever know one who could make a success of a leap?"
 "My dear man, did you never see one jump at a proposal?"

A New Breed.
 "The poet I pointed out to you at the dog show is very peculiar in some ways. He has a perfect passion for dactyls."
 "Did he have any of 'em on exhibition there?"

A Shining Light.
 "Alice wore two sunbursts, three or four moonstones and carried a Skye terrier."
 "Then she must have been easily the star of the occasion."

Smartness.
 "Don't you think this is a smart gown?" asked the lady.
 "I do," answered the gentleman. "Anything that looks especially foolish is spoken of as especially smart."

A Way of Theirs.
 "Bills have one queer quality."
 "What is it?"
 "The more you contract them, the more they expand."

A Suggestion.
 "Do you really believe a wife with good cooking can pull the wool over her husband's eyes?"
 "Just try some nice flannel cakes."

Not Fastened to the Idea.
 "Is a wife bound to obey her husband?"
 "I must say I haven't seen many who were tied down to the job."

Fossilized bones of a huge elephant recently discovered in France include a tusk weighing 440 pounds, and a tooth weighing 17 pounds. Scientists say that the animal must have stood over 13 feet high.
 Australia has cows enough to give each man, woman and child in the continent three each, while Argentina can provide five cattle to each inhabitant.
