Found Dead In Bed.
Ernest Seymour, Madoc, was found dead in bed. He was a bachelor, sixty years of age.

Leaving For The West.
Dr. and Mrs. Morden, Napanee, Ont., are visiting in Toronto for a few days before leaving for the west.

House Was Burned.
Verna Degroff's house at Bloomfield was burned. Mr. Degroff was in Picton when the fire occurred.

Made Fine Catches.
Reuben Way, on Friday, caught a 15-lb maskinonge in Picton Bay. This is the sixth muskie Mr. Way landed within the last two months, the weights ranging from 15 to 41 pounds.

Passed From The Family.
The Cornelius Huycke homestead on the north shore of Conesago Lake, has been purchased by C. Wood, Hillier, from its recent owner, J. Hutchinson. This is one of the many old homes in the country that have passed out of the family possession into the hands of strangers.

Moved To A Farm.
Mr. and Mrs. Byron Battley are removing from their farm in the Swamp Road, to the homestead, 3rd concession of Hillier, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Battley, Sr., who are retiring from the arduous work of the farm and will reside at Niles' Corners.

Back To The Old Home.
Henry Breeze came down from Toronto last week and spent a few days at his farm near Melville. His old friends are pleased to see him looking so well. Mr. Breeze is assisting his son, Harry, in the hardware business in North Toronto, and finds the work very congenial.

License Inspector.
It is reported that W. J. Connors, Picton, has received the temporary appointment of license inspector for South Hastings and Prince Edward, to fill the position rendered vacant by the death of R. C. Arnott. Mr. Connors was formerly engaged in the Windsor district.

Queen's Dramatic Club.
Queen's dramatic club, besides presenting the year play on students' theatre night, Dec. 3rd, at the Grand Opera House, has planned to present a series of representative plays throughout the session, in convocation hall, thereby hoping to initiate a "little theatre" movement in the college.

Still Short $1,000.
Although there has been over two thousand dollars subscribed to the Prince Edward Old Boys' Memorial Fund, there still remains a debt of over $1,000 on the structure, but the committee feel quite certain that the old boys and girls will rise nobly to the occasion, and the debt will be quickly wiped out.

Called to The Bar.
Ray Merrill, B.A., LL. B., was called to the bar last week. Mr. Merrill was attending Queen's University when he enlisted for overseas service, and after four years service, returned and completed his arts course at Queen's. He then entered Osgoode Hall and is now a full fledged legal practitioner.

Telephone Rates Increased.
The Westport Rural Telephone Company, Limited, operating an exchange at Westport, has increased its rates to $15 per annum. Officers have been elected for the current year as follows: President, C. E. Hull; vice-president, W. C. Taylor, secretary, treasurer, J. F. McNally; directors, M. Porter, M. Atcheson, S. McCann, A. C. Bradley.

The Late Mrs. William Styles.
Mrs. William Styles, aged seventy-four, a resident of Morrisburg for many years, died suddenly recently. Mrs. George Armstrong, Mrs. Herbert Weir and Mrs. Henry Keeler, Spencerville, Mrs. W. E. Rombough, Morrisburg, and Miss Emma Styles, Belleville, are daughters, while W. J. Styles, Record-News staff, Smith's Falls, and Charles A. Styles, Orillia, are sons.

Visits Own Memorial.
Cephas Finnemore, Winnipeg, accompanied by his bride, formerly Miss Pearl Alexander, Winnipeg, has been visiting his parents at Cobourg during the past few days and has had the unusual experience of seeing his name engraved on a memorial tablet in Victoria Hall in honor of the fallen brave men of the 133rd Battalion.

Dark and Dismal Day.
Tuesday was the most unpleasant day Kingston has experienced in several weeks. The rainfall was quite heavy at times. The engineer's department had some trouble in keeping the gates opened on some of the streets as they quickly filled up with refuse. Leaves on the street blocked up the drains on several streets.

Drummer Drops Dead.
At Clayton, N.J., Oct. 30th, Gus G. Wetterhahn, Depauville, N.Y., died suddenly from heart failure. Mr. Wetterhahn was playing the drum in the Depauville band, which came to Clayton early in the evening to take part in the Republican rally. The band leading the parade of autos in which the speakers were riding had made a circuit of the park and was about to march into the hall when Mr. Wetterhahn was stricken. He died instantly.

Not Equally Represented.
According to the unit of representation in the Ontario legislature, Kingston should have two members, while it has but one. Frontenac and Addington have one member each and Kingston, with a population equal to the two ridings, has only one member. London wants four members, Middlesex 41,000 population has three members and London with 60,000 has one member.

Expressing Appreciation.
The managers of the Grand Trunk has forwarded a message to all station staffs and track forces of the railway expressing appreciation of their efforts in caring for the flower beds and lawns around stations and tool houses during the past season. A large number of stations

COMPLAINTS AT INVERARY.

Following The Notices Sent Out By Tax Collector.
Inverary, Nov. 2.—William Demnee and wife have gone to Toronto to reside. They were accompanied by his mother, Mrs. E. Demnee, who spent a very pleasant week with her daughter, Mrs. W. Gordon, Toronto. Her son, Leon, Hamilton, returned home on Thursday. Dr. C. C. Nash delivered an instructive and interesting address in the Methodist church on Sunday night. Haystack was observed in great style by the younger set on Saturday night. Miss Ethel Arthur is suffering from an injured eye. Mrs. Tolls, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Porter and baby are here for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Lake attended the funeral of the late Mr. Snider, of Hartington, on Saturday. Mrs. Snider was formerly Miss Annie Lake of this place. Herbert McConnell spent the week-end with his family here. All the potatoes, apples and corn have been gathered in and farmers are busy ploughing.

The tax collector has made his rounds and a large number of complaints are being made owing to the great increase in taxes. Model factory is still turning out a great number of cheese daily. A number of the young men attended the play at the Opera House, Kingston, on Saturday night. John Hunter is erecting a fine new house.

DEATH OF THOMAS McNAUGHT.

He was a Former Resident of Camden East.
Camden East, Nov. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood, Enterprise, were visitors at W. Louck's. Mrs. Samuel Greenway spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. James McDonald. Mrs. Carr, Yarker, visited her sister, Mrs. Histed, for a couple of days. The funeral of the late Joseph Cook, of Newburgh, was held in the Anglican church on Friday. Interment took place in the family plot. Mrs. James Robinson is at D. K. Saul's for a couple of days.

A number from here attended the funeral of the late Frank Wartinan in Napanee. Fred Snider was home on Saturday last. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingoldby were callers in the village on Saturday. Master George Comfort entertained a few of his young friends to a Halloween party. The boys and girls enjoyed themselves Saturday night, celebrating Halloween.

News was received here of the death of Thomas McNaught, of Lewiston, Maine. Deceased was a former resident of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Simmons, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Louck, attended the funeral of their cousin, Dunstan Lockwood, of Enterprise. Mr. and Mrs. Will McWilliams spent Sunday at Yeoman's. Mrs. Welsh, of Kingston, is at G. Riley's.

The man who fails to start doesn't have to stop to think.

and surroundings have been beautified under the direction of the company's head gardener, William Glass, and the employees have taken the greatest interest in maintaining the work.

Some Fine Apples.
From the orchard of Iva K. Emory, Rockport, Ont., comes apples of the Baldwin variety, one of which weighs an even pound. The tree from which it was picked yielded ten barrels, seven of which were gathered from the tree without the pickers leaving the ground. One hundred and thirty-three of these apples filled a barrel. W. W. Emory, Cherry Valley, helped to pick and pack these apples. Mr. Emory has a choice lot of apples in his own orchard at Cherry Valley.

Had Been Long a Railroader.
George Sydenham Davy, a resident of Brockville for the past forty-six years, passed away during Friday night at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Seaton. The late Mr. Davy was born at Ernestown, Ont., and followed railroading most of his life, rising in his work to the position of conductor and following that occupation on the Grand Trunk system until fifteen years ago when he retired on account of his age. He was in his seventy-ninth year. Surviving to mourn his loss are three daughters and one son.

Death of A. MacDonald.
Allan Macdonald, who passed away at Carmel by the Sea, Monterey Co., California, on 14th October, was born near the village of Wellington, Ont. He leaves a wife, the only remaining sister of the late Mrs. Wellington Boulter, his son, Perry, so well known, and grandson, Harry, now in the navy of United States. He had only been seriously ill for a short time. He had been a resident of Picton for many years, building a home on Mary street. He was elected a member of the town council and faithfully served for the best interest of the town.

Presentation at Rosedale.
On Wednesday evening about sixty friends and neighbors met at the home of Edward Harker, Rosedale, and presented them with two handsome chairs upholstered in leather, as a small token of esteem and love, as Mr. and Mrs. Harker are leaving the farm to reside in Sydenham. About 10.30 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Harker were asked to come forward and upon doing so an address was read by George Freeman and Mrs. Freeman. Mrs. H. Bramley presented the chairs. It was a complete surprise to both. Mr. Harker responded in a few well-chosen words. Speeches were given by R. J. McFadden and others. Lunch was served, and a very pleasant evening was spent and brought to a close by singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." The guests departed for their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Harker long life and happiness in their new home.
