Decide to Help The Kingston General

Crystal Springs, Nov. 5 .- The annual meeting of Crystal Springs U. F. W. O. club took place Wednesday afternoon. A discussion took place in regard to the work for the coming winter. It was decided to promote the social and educational life of the community, also to take up some work in aid of the Kingston General-

Hospital. The club intends as soon as possible to remodel two more rooms in the school building which they are using as a community centre. This will enable them to carry on more successfully the work which they have planned.

Mrs. J. D. Morris, president of the club, was chosen as delegate to attend the annual convention of the U. F. W. O. to be held in Toronto, in

The officers for 1920 were unaninously elected for the ensuing year. One director resigned, and another was chosen to fill her place. Mrs. Murton moved a vote of thanks to the officers for the efficient way in which they had carried on the work of the club during the year.

The officers are: President, Mrs. J. D. Morris; vice-president, Mrs. Hugh Day; second vice-president, Mrs. T. Auld; treasurer, Miss Murton; secretary, Mrs. F. A. Graham; directors, Mrs. Bridgland, Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. A. Day, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Crosier, Mrs. Campbell.

Married at Crofton. A pretty wedding was solemnized in Crofton church on Oct. 29th, when May Anna Squire, youngest daughter of Rev. T. and Mrs. Squire, became the bride of Lorne Cuthbert Burr, Rev. Mr. Squire, father of the bride, officiated, assisted by Rev. W. K. Burr, grandfather of the groom. The youthful bride looked charming in a gown of white silk, wearing the customary bridal veil caught with white blossoms and carried a sheaf of pink dahlias. The bridesmaid, Miss Flossie Ainsworth, was becomingly gowned in blue silk and crepe de chene and carried pink dahlias. The groom was ably assisted by his cousin, Charles Ainsworth, After congratulations the bridal party and immediate relatives repaired to the the bride's home where the wedding dinner was served. After a few days' honeymoon they will reside at the groom's new home at Burrs.
