CLEVER COMEDY AT GRAND

"The Law Divine" Will be Presented Again To-night.

"The Law Divine," the latest comedy from the pen of H. V. Esmond, the English actor, presented by the celebrated playwright and Miss Eva Moore (Mrs. Esmond), at the Grand on Tuesday night, is deserving of the warmest praise. That the play pleased the audience was manifested by the liberal applause and numerous curtain calls. It affords a treat of the kind that leaves a marked impression, and is of the type that sends one home from the theatre feeling that he has witnessed something worth while, and with pleasant memories of all that has been said and done.

The principals have a strong supporting cast. Every part is in able hands, and the entire production is given with a finished touch that is most refreshing—in fact all taking part appear to be fitting the parts, not merely acting, and what more can be said in praise of their acting? "The Law Divine" impresses one because of the human nature interest it contains. After witnessing it, one regards it as a story from real life, and not merely something penned by man. And then again, it is presented in the very best of English—and this counts.

The story of the play centres around the home of a family doing their "bit" to help win the war. The husband served at the front, was wounded, and on his recovering, serves in the war office. A son dons the khaki, but the story proper deals with the wife who becomes so interested in carrying on war work at home that she neglects her home life and continues until she almost brings disaster to her home and all she holds dear.

She finds no time to devote to her husband who seeks her love and affection, so busily absorbed is she in various movements. But there comes the time of her awakening—when she realizes her neglect, and there is a happy re-union. The part of husband and wife in this play is taken by Mr. and Mrs. Esmond, and each one gives a masterly interpretation. Miss Violet Campbell also marked ability in the role of Claudia Meritonas, one interested in the family while Miss Faith Liddle was most charming as Daphne Gray. Miss Florence Wood as Mrs. Graythorne was an outstanding character. John Reed, as Bill, the soldier chap, and Leonard Uptonas, the sailor, shared honors. Their bright chatter was a special feature. Both took their parts well.

"The Law Divine" delighted another audience this afternoon, and will be given its final presentation to-night.

ANTI-JAP LAW WILL NEVER LEAD TO WAR

California's Governor Says That England Has the Same Regulation.

El Centro, Calif., Nov. 10.—"The new anti-alien law will stand," Governor William D. Stephens declared here in an address made in connection with the campaign for recruits for the new superdreadnought California.

"I am glad to see that the voters of California have passed the anti-Japanese law and I am here to see that it will never lead to war," he said. "There may be diplomatic interchanges between Washington and Japan but the law will stand and Japan will never go further than protesting.

"The reason for this is simple. No foreigner can own land in Japan and no foreign workman can enter Japan. England, Japan's own ally, and Australia have both placed in force laws similar to the California law, and Japan has done nothing."

REFINERS TIRING OF THROAT-CUTTING

Sugar Slump is Said to be Due to "Ridiculous Price Cutting."

Montreal, Nov. 10.—Trading in the sugar market yesterday was almost at a standstill on account of what one refiner characterized as "the ridiculous price-cutting of the last few days." One refiner appears to be determined to undersell the others, and they quoted their price at $13, a drop of fifty cents from the price set yesterday afternoon, which was, in its turn, a decrease of fifty cents from Monday morning. The general impression among local dealers is that the situation will soon be normal, for, according to the majority, the refiners are becoming tired of "cutting each other's throats."

To Investigate Pillage

Constantinople, Nov. 10.—Pillage by the Turks of the Imperial Russian watering-place of Abbas Tooman in the Caucasus mountains, is being investigated here. A large quantity of the furnishings and paintings belonging to the luxurious villas of this little city, where many of the aristocracy of Russia used to pass their vacations, has been discovered in Constantinople. Some of these furnishings are in the palace of Enver Pasha, former Turkish War Minister, on the Bosphorus, now occupied by the French general staff.

NEWS OF NORTHBROOK.

Some Fine Deer Have Been Shot Out There.

Northbrook, Nov. 8.—The heavy rains have in no way hindered the hundreds of hunters taking to the woods and already some fine deer have been shot. Marshall Vanness shipped a deer that weighed 250 pounds. Ervin Shier and William Both shot the first one. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wood are living at Point Anne for the winter.

Harry Leveir was surprised, when nearing Kaidar with his Ford stage, to see his hind wheel spin past him. Mr. and Mrs. William Niven and family, Harrowsmith, have purchased the George Wheeler farm. Mr. and Mrs. R. Robinson, Queensboro, are the guests of Mrs. William Both. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fuller, Pleton, are spending a few days with Mrs. Fuller's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson. Sam Both, clerk of the Ore Chimney mines, made a trip to Denbigh last week. Miss Velva Thompson is spending a few weeks at Harlowe. Mr. Lisk, Clifton Spring, New York, is at the Ore Chimney mines where many enthusiasts know for a certainty that the mines' future is a surety. Wonderful veins of rich ore have been unearthed during the summer and the work of installing the electric plant is fast being completed. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rutan

Notes From Lyndhurst. Lyndhurst, Nov. 8.—Mrs. W. Neal was taken to Kingston General Hospital on Tuesday, to undergo an operation for appendicitis. She underwent the operation and is doing nicely. The members of the Orange order held a party in St. Luke's hall on November 5th, and all spent a most enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs.

J. Kirkland are in poor health. Mr. Kirkland was removed to the home of his son, and Mrs. Kirkland to the home of her daughter, Miss Jessie Blackman, Watertown, N.Y., is with her brother, C. Blackman, Seesley's Bay, for some time. If the financial backing can be secured, Montreal is the logical city to fill the empty twelfth place in the new National Baseball League schedule.
