TORTURED BY TERRIBLE ECZEMA

Suffered Three Years Until She Tried "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

DAME PETER LAMARRE

Pointe St. Pierre, P. Q. "I think it my duty to tell you how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered for three years with terrible Eczema. I consulted several doctors and they did not do me any good. Then, I used one box of 'Sootha-Salva' and two boxes of 'Fruit-a-lives' and my hands are now clear. The pain is gone and there has been no return. I think it is a marvellous cure because no other medicine did me any good and I tried all the remedies I ever heard of, without benefit until I used 'Sootha-Salva' and 'Fruit-a-lives'." "Fruit-a-lives" cooled the blood and removed the cause of the disease, and 'Sootha-Salva' completed the cure."

Dame PETER LAMARRE (file). 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

Died at Perth. A. C. Lister, Perth, passed away on Sunday, at the ripe old age of eighty-two years. Only a few weeks ago he and his aged partner celebrated the sixty-first anniversary of their marriage. Two sons and five daughters survive.

He Stole Canoe and Got Away. The breaking into of several cottages at Fernbank, near Brockville, during the past few days by a foreigner, believed to be a Pole, was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Steacy, who had an exciting experience with the burglar. The latter eluded the efforts of an armed posse to land him in jail and got away, supposedly crossing the river in a canoe stolen from H. W. Goin's cottage at the same summer resort.

He is Coming Out. Almer J. Hartin, who has been residing in various parts of the northwest, for nearly three years, lately at Weyburn, Sask., is on his way home to spend the future months until after Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hartin, Robindale.

Great Need For a Patrol. In these days of so many autos, it is a difficult matter for the Kingston police to chase thieves without a car of their own. When they get a rush call it is a very difficult matter to secure a taxi and the delay caused results in the guilty party or parties getting away.

Made the Inspector. Principal P. W. Brown, of the collegiate institute, North Bay, has been appointed public school inspector for South Nipissing in the place of P. S. I. Bannister, who has been appointed to a position on the normal school staff. Mr. Brown, though leaving the collegiate, will remain a citizen of North Bay.

Carried Twenty Cargoes. The schooner Mowat cleared from Picton, on Tuesday, after discharging a cargo of coal for W. H. Lake & Co., and will bring back a load for the schooner "Belleville." This next trip completes twenty loads for the season, the best record yet made. She will go into winter quarters in Picton after unloading at Belleville.

Plea From "Kiddies." With the drop in the price of sugar, the "kiddies" are now wondering when they will be able to get more candy for their money. They have certainly been getting the short end of the stick for a long time, and are looking for the good old days when they could buy all the candy they wanted at one time for a nickel.

Purchased a Plant. Farrow Bros., Brockville, have made a purchase of the old Merrickville Post plant, which for some time has been stored in the public library building. E. Barber has written from Parkdale, announcing the sale. Farrow Bros., the purchasers, recently lost much of their plant by fire. There is another unused printing plant in Merrickville, that owned by J. D. Hall and for it there is a prospective buyer.

Surviving relatives beside her husband and father and mother are two brothers, Barton, Rochester, N.Y., and Horace, Ameliasburg, and four sisters, Zeila, Rochester; Mrs. L. Drummond, Allisonville; Mrs. Frank Hickerson and Mrs. Grant Gibson, Ameliasburg.

Death of Mrs. Harry Grier. Sympathy will go out to Harry Grier, Tweed, in the death of his wife after an illness extending over a very brief period. The deceased was about on Monday of last week doing some shopping. She was taken ill the following day, and passed away on Saturday. Diabetes was the cause of her death. She was only nineteen years of age, and was married in March last to Mr. Grier, shortly after his return from overseas.

Succeeds in Financial Circles. W. E. Wilder, son of R. E. Wilder, Wellington, is a Prince Edwarder who has made his mark in the financial world. Mr. Wilder is a partner in the firm of Wood, Gundy and Co., one of the well-known bond houses of Toronto. Mr. Wilder has earned rapid promotion. Although a young man he is recognized as one of the outstanding men in the business. Recently he has been made the firm's representative on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

Country Club Site. Members of the recently organized Belleville Country Club have been inspecting various available sites on the shores of the Bay of Quinte for the location of a club house and laying out of golf links. Boating will also be a feature of the club's activities and it is expected that interest in yachting will be revived. It is expected that a site will be chosen on the bay shore between Belleville and Trenton as the club's membership includes citizens of both places.

Eats Tablets With Fatal Results. On Oct. 21st, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kimmitt, Ernestown, suffered almost instant death from eating several tablets from a paper-box which in play she had found upstairs in the house. Though the tablets, when taken according to directions were not regarded as poisonous, such an overdose taken by one so young caused violent convulsions, from which she never recovered. C. B. Brethen hurried the child and mother in a car to Dr. Galbraith, Dr. Vrooman was instantly summoned and the two physicians did all in their power to save the little one, but she died a few minutes after reaching Napanee.
