"The Dumbells" Coming.
The seat sale for the "Dumbells" second edition of "Biff, Bing, Bang" is now open at the Grand Opera House theatre box office. The "Dumbells" engagement in this city has been limited to three days commencing Thursday, Nov. 18th, with a special Saturday matinee, and remembering the capacity houses which provided the rule when they were here last season, it would be well for all those who contemplate seeing the new show to be on hand early for their reservations. The new show has been staged along similar lines to that offered last year, and the cast and chorus remains the same, with the addition of some new members who joined late in the season. A special feature of the new performance is a forty-five-minute version of Gilbert and Sullivan's ever popular opera, "Pinafore", in which Ross Hamilton, the famous Marjorie, appears in the role of Josephine. This has been included in response to the many requests received from the boys who saw it when it was given at Mons.—Adv.

At the Strand.
Fannie Hurst's most appealing story, "Humoresque," will be shown at the Strand theatre to-night, at the seven and nine o'clock performances. Two shows will be run on account of the hundreds of our patrons, whom we could not accommodate on Monday and Tuesday evenings and their request for two shows, Wednesday evening. Our patrons have been very pleased with the masterpiece, "Humoresque," to the extent of seeing this celebrated story over again. It is a tale of youthful genius and mother love, with the scene laid chiefly in New York's Ghetto and Fifth avenue. Miss Hurst, as is well-known, is right at home portraying with a realistic touch the characters of New York's humbler inhabitants, and "Humoresque" is said to contain intense heart appeal. Humor and pathos are deftly mingled in the picture. Alma Rubens is the feature player in "Humoresque" and Gaston Glass and Vera Gordon are also included in the cast.—Adv.

Coming to the Strand.
Few photoplays in recent years have offered such decided contrasts as "Yes or No," the latest offering of Photodrama, at the Strand theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, in which Norma Talmadge plays both parts, the story shifting from one to the other with startling rapidity. In the home of Margaret Vane we see the social elite frittering away their time while a moment later, whisked by the magic of the moving picture camera a few blocks east, we encountered Minnie Berry, laboring amid poverty to keep her home and babies in a manner worthy of the love of her devoted but preoccupied husband. Of course Miss Talmadge handles both roles, and she does it with a rare skill and charm. Both of her characterizations are excellent, her beauty contributing much to the enjoyment of the picture. Even as Minnie Berry in gingham and with hair dragged this delightful little actress is good to look upon, while in the gorgeous wardrobe she has equipped herself with for the part of Margaret Vane her beauty is irresistible. In making this picture unusual care has been taken to faithfully reproduce the settings. In the Berry home the scenes are actually "shot" in a tenement. Several of the settings for the end of the picture are actual scenes in one of the famous homes of wealth.—Adv.

At Griffin's.
Tonight will be the last opportunity to see the splendid programme which has been pleasing large audiences at Griffin's during the past two days, and is headed by the Bell Ringing Male Quartette. These four young men have created reputation in Kingston as they have in other places by their splendid rendition of catchy songs and music, and every person who has seen them so far has been delighted. Our feature picture "Old Lady 31" is another delightful item of interest. Emma Dunn plays the leading role in this rainbow comedy of life that shows old age mellowing with the blessed happiness of childhood. The play is rich in human nature, with no end of absurd though undeniably natural comedy, and filled throughout with the wisdom of love in old age, this comedy drama is an attraction you will feel more than glad you have seen. The last episode of "The Whirlwind" completes one of the most interesting programmes shown at this theatre in some time. Be sure and see it this evening.—Adv.

FAREWELL ENTERTAINMENT
To Rockwood Soldier Patients Who Leave on Thursday.
The Knights of Columbus gave a farewell entertainment to the soldier patients at Rockwood hospital on Tuesday evening that was greatly appreciated. A delightful musical programme was rendered by talented artists. Those taking part were: Miss Helen Corrigan, Mr. Vickery, Miss Madge Devlin, Mr. Pollitt, songs; Mr. Kettle and Lieut. W. G. Bailey, duet; Misses Simpson and Corrigan, violin duet. Miss Frances Devlin was accompanist. Cigarettes, cigars, confectionery and other refreshments were distributed among the men. The patients go to Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Que., on Thursday.

The Quebec Waterworks Strike is Settled
Quebec, Nov. 17.—The strike of the linemen of the Quebec Waterworks Department, which has held up repairs to a forty-inch water pipe since last Thursday, and occasioned a walk-out of other exterior employees of the department, was settled yesterday. The settlement came when the department agreed to the workers' demand for an arbitration board.

In the Supreme Court Tuesday the Kerr case was settled by the payment of $1,000 to the plaintiff, Mrs. Hogle, by Mr. Carscallon.

ZION CHURCH HOLDS A TEA AND CONCERT

The Ladies' Guild Netted $200 From Event on Tuesday.

The Ladies' Guild of Zion church, Pine street, whose fame for their successful entertainments has gone abroad through the city, scored the best success yet at their dinner, sale and concert on Tuesday evening, netting, as the result, $200. Mrs. William Harris, the president, with her band of enthusiastic workers, provided an excellent dinner, and afterwards Mr. McKie, of Queen's, took the chair and a splendid programme of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc., was enjoyed by the large audience. The piano used was loaned by the Lindsay Company, and the hall was beautifully decorated by the firemen, under the direction of Chief Armstrong.

Mrs. Harris, Sr., one of the oldest and most honored members of the congregation, was at the door taking the tickets. The Ladies' Guild had charge of the work table, Mrs. F. Irwin and Miss Irwin sold the home-made dainties, with other ladies assisting them, and Mrs. Whitfield and Mrs. Bundage were in charge of the prettily-decorated candy booth. Rev. Edwin and Mrs. Burgess, who are doing a splendid work in this part of the city, were on hand to add to the pleasure of the evening. Prof. and Mrs. W. G. Jordan were among those present.

A WITNESS CLAIMED HE WAS OFFERED $5

To Give Evidence for a Man in the Police Court.

Two Jewish citizens aired their troubles before Magistrate Farrell in police court, Wednesday morning, one charging the other with assault, but after all the evidence in the case had been taken, Magistrate Farrell dismissed the charge. C. M. Smith appeared for the plaintiff and T. J. Rigney for the defence. Part of the evidence was secured at Tuesday's session, and the remainder on Wednesday. The plaintiff claimed that the defendant spit in his face and also hit him, but this the accused stoutly denied.

A witness, who was called, caused a mild sensation when he stated during the course of his evidence, that the plaintiff in the case had been talking to him and that he had offered him $5 to come to court and say what he (the plaintiff) wanted him to say.

The witness, who was present when plaintiff and the accused had some trouble, swore that he did not see the accused commit an assault on the plaintiff. "He just told him to go away," said the witness.

STORM MOUNT COMING

Steamer Jeska Made a Quick Trip to Oswego and Back.

The steamer Stormont, which had trouble below Morrisburg recently, was at Iroquois on Wednesday, and is being towed to Kingston by two of the Montreal Transportation Company's tugs. The steamer Jeska, commanded by Capt. James Kirkwood, made a very quick trip to Oswego for this time in the season. The vessel finished discharging her cargo at Rockwood hospital, cleared early Tuesday morning and loaded coal at Oswego and was back in Kingston again late at night and just in time to escape the big snow storm.

Capt. Malcolm Shaw of the steamer, Jex, arrived from Oswego with coal late on Tuesday night, and was just in time to escape the snow storm.

Kingston Police Complete Their Course in First Aid

The members of the Kingston police took the last of the series of lectures offered on Tuesday afternoon, in the police court room. In all, five lectures were taken, and the members of the local force have made splendid progress in the work. The classes taken by the police gave special attention to cases of asphyxiation and drowning.

Ottawa city council endorsed the two-year term for members of council at the meeting last evening.
