Bright for Varsity. The Toronto Telegram says Things certainly look bright for Varsity. They look brighter than at any time this season. And if the Blue and White do not trample over the Sons of Shaugnessy at Kingston on Saturday, there will be no excuses to offer. Harry Hobbs will be back at quarter and Westman will start at left middle. That will give Coach Cassels the same line as started against McGill in Toronto But the backfield will be strengthened. Frank Sullivan and Warren Snyder are battling for the centrehalf position, as it seems almost certain that "Joe" Taylor will not play. Taylor's specialty is punting, but he is not that much better than Sullivan or Snyder. In the other phases of the game Taylor does not measure up to the other two. He is not aggressive and seems unable to stand up under hard punishment.

Sullivan will get the assignment to do the kicking, and if he does "Red" McKenzie will most likely be placed up on the second line of defence when McGill has the ball, leaving Sullivan and Breen to handle circles, and their many friends are Quotations Furnished by Bongard, the punts.

PATIENTS LEAVE.

Soldiers Depart From Rockwood

Praise for Dr. Ryan. The transfer of the seventy-four soldier patients from Rockwood hospital to Ste. Anne Bellevue, took place Thursday, and the men said farewell to Dr. Edward Ryan and all of the officials who had been so kind toward them during the stay at the institution. They were accompanied on the G. T. R. train by officials of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment and they will find accommodation equally as good as that furnished at Rockwood. As stated previously in the Whig, the removal of these patients was required by the policy being carried out by the D.S.C.R., which is caring for soldier patients in their own hospital. All patients in civilian institutions are being sent to Ste. Anne Bellevue, those at Brockville leaving that place at the same time. The men had the highest praise for Dr. Ryan when taking their leave.
