Girls' Basketball Series. Several of the Sunday schools which have basketball teams in the S.S.A.A.A. basketball series have suggested to the president that a girls' basketball league should be operated in connection with the association. On Tuesday, the president got in touch with several of the schools, with the result that three have stated definitely that they are prepared to enter a team if a league is formed. First Baptist, Bethel and Sydenham street Methodist are the schools which are prepared to enter. A meeting of the executive will be called immediately to arrange this matter.
