FRONTENAC

DEAD CREEK. Nov. 23.—Sleighing is good here now. All hunters going north from here report plenty of game. News reached the relatives here of Edward Newton's death, on Nov. 14th, at Port Moody, B. C. Hospital. He had been ill about two months from pneumonia. He leaves a widow and four children, all grown up. Mr. Newton was well liked by all who knew him, and his sudden death was a great shock to his friends.

KEPLER. Nov. 23.—The recent snow storms have made good sleighing in this district. Most of our hunters who were in the back woods in quest of deer, have returned home and report game very scarce. H. Wartman and wife have returned from Canton, Ohio, where they were visiting their daughter. Mrs. W. Orser spent a few days visiting her uncle, Rev. James Lawson, Verona, recently. B. Johnston and bride, Philadelphia, Pa. have been spending a few days at his father's home, Mrs. Annie Gordon, Glenvale, was the guest of her brother, Stephen Knight, recently. Mrs. H. Dobson, Detroit, Mich., has returned home after visiting friends here. The Ladies' Aid met last Wednesday afternoon at Mr. Edward Donnell's.

FLORIDA. Nov. 23.—The weather is very cold with frequent snowfalls. The chime of sleigh bells is heard again. This place was shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Wellington Snider, Murvale. She was highly respected by all who knew her. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved friends in their loss. Visitors: Stuart Snider at Byard Snider's; Miss Norma Toner, teacher, spent the week-end with her parents, at Strathcona; Mr. and Mrs. Sperry Redden and Greta, and Mrs. M. Redden's; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Knox, Belleville, have returned home after visiting at Stuart and Byard Snider's; John Peters has returned from the north with a fine deer. Mrs. William Martin and Walter Compton are in this neighborhood.

BURRIDGE. Nov. 23.—Our recent snowstorm has made the roads quite good for sleighing. Threshing is the order of the day in this vicinity. Mrs. E. J. Madden is convalescing, after her recent illness. Many from here attended the sale at Roy Gillis'. School is progressing favorably under the management of Miss McCallum. Visitors: Rev. Mr. Comberford at Araham Barr's; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Derbyshire and son, at James McNeill's; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barr and Mrs. R. J. Barr's; Miss Edna Kilpatrick, and Douglas Barr, at the latter's sister's; Mrs. S. W. Breese; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Barr returned from Perth; Mrs. L. D. Buchanan, Binghamton, N.Y., is spending a few days with her grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. James McNeill, Mr. and Mrs. Mallet at W. H. Thompson's; Mr. Deyo has returned to Albert Barr's; Mr. and Mrs. John Barr at J. McNeill's; P. Gilhooly at Mrs. P. Mcann's.

Lennox & Addington

CAMDEN EAST. Nov. 24.—Miss Jean Riley left on Monday last for Ottawa, to spend a month with her sister, Miss Marion Riley. A number from here attended the shower for Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wign. The Women's Missionary Society met at Mrs. L. H. Stover's, last Wednesday. Master Harry McGinnis, who has been ill with rheumatism for the past two weeks, is somewhat better. A number attended Joseph Amey's sale. William Loucks left for Mountain Grove on Friday to spend a couple of weeks. Gabriel Robinson spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson. Fred Walker unloaded a car of corn last week. The public library opened on Saturday evening with Miss Maude Hawley as librarian. The cheese factory has closed for the season. All are pleased to hear that R. W. Langmore is better again. T. G. Goff spent over Sunday with his family. The hunters returned home on Saturday. We have heard of people being put in jail for stealing a loaf of bread; what about the person who stole a pig from one of our neighbors? There was no service in the Methodist Church on Sunday owing to the heavy snow storm. The Ladies' Aid will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Loucks. Miss G. Taylor is nursing in Nanaimo.

Prince Edward

BONGARD'S. Nov. 22.—Mrs. Jane Storms, relict of the late Joseph Wright, of this place, away at her home on Friday last after a short illness, aged seventy-seven years. Deceased leaves one daughter, Mrs. Vincent, Bethel, two brothers, Philip and George, Cressy, and one sister, Mrs. S. Wright, of this place, to mourn. An only son died about six years ago. The funeral took place on Sunday to Cressy, where interment took place. Miss McKay spent the week-end with Miss Grace Storms. Quarterly service was held at the Methodist Church, on Sunday, Nov. 14th. The official board met on Monday.

LANARK

FALLBROOK. Nov. 23.—Miss Margaret Shanks had the misfortune of breaking her leg at the ankle. She is being treated in Smith's Falls hospital. The deer hunters returned with one deer; C. Hollinger is shipping cattle and sheep from here. A number of farmers are shipping their cattle to Toronto on account of the low prices being paid. Mrs. Adam Long returned to her home in Port Elmsley after visiting her mother for a week. Miss Jessie Anderson and Miss Mary Emis spent Sunday at their homes in Fallbrook. Carl Cammeron returned to Golden Lake, after a pleasant holiday at his home here.

LEEDS

WESTPORT. Nov. 22.—Miss MacDonald, Lanark, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. MacDonald, Miss Sophronia McCann, Ottawa, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. McCann. The Ladies' Guild of St. Edward church held a very successful euchre party and dance on Friday.

"DANDERINE"

Girls! Save Your Hair! Make It Abundant!

Immediately after a "Danderine" massage, your hair takes on new life, lustre and wondrous beauty, appearing twice as heavy and plentiful, because each hair seems to puff and thicken. Don't let your hair stay lifeless, colorless, and scraggly. You, too, want lots of long, strong, beautiful hair. A 35-cent bottle of delightful "Danderine" freshens your scalp, checks dandruff and falling hair. This stimulating "beauty-tonic" gives to thin, dull, fading hair that youthful brightness and abundant thickness—All druggists!

evening. Mrs. F. D. Bailey left for Toronto on Tuesday, where she will visit relatives for a couple of weeks.

PHILIPSVILLE

Nov. 24.—Auction sales are being held nearly every day in this section and the prices of live stock and machinery are falling. Allen Haslam has purchased the farm known as the Pennamook estate from the executors and will turn the building into a first-class auto repair shop. He intends putting up another building in the spring. M. Myers has purchased two lots on the south side of Main street, and has put up a large building for a garage and repairing autos. George Lynn and Jessie Brown have the contract for cutting several hundred cords of wood for the farmers this winter. Morley Williams has secured the services of Richard Lawson to assist him on the Willow Stock farm. Mrs. Julie Davison has rented her farm to Mr. Baker, of Lyn, for a number of years.

RIDEAU LAKE

Nov. 21.—Many are taking advantage of the sleighing to draw up wood. The snow and cold is making this November one worth remembering. Miss Katie Scanlan spent a few days last week with her brothers here. Misses Glavin and Quigley were week-end visitors at the home of J. J. Donaghue. Miss Katie Donaghue spent day with Mrs. W. Breese. Jerry Donaghue is confined to his home through illness. S. Breese is improving slowly.

MORTON

Nov. 22.—Morley to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stacey on Nov. 17th, a daughter. A number from here attended the sale at Albert Gamble's, Jones' Falls, on Monday. #### PRICE DROPS AT YARKEE

Broad Down A Cent and Hogs Are $15.25 A Cwt.

Yarkee, Nov. 24.—The sleighing is good in the country. The first snow last fall was Nov. 27th; this year, Nov. 17th. Bread in Yarkee fell another cent on Monday. Hogs fell away to $15.25 a cwt., and farmers do not take very well to this drop in prices. Charles Silver died Saturday last and the funeral took place on Tuesday. This makes two deaths in Yarkee in less than twelve months. The special services held in the Methodist Church here by Rev. Mr. Robinson, Belfast, Ireland, came to a close last Friday night. Mr. Robinson left here for Tamworth where he is conducting special services for four weeks more.

A. A. Connolly and wife, visiting in Kingston, have returned home. A. Snare is spending a few days in Parrowsmith. Should the I.O.O.F. purchase a building they are negotiating for. Yarkerites may soon be a ball for. There was no exchange of pupils Sunday last, owing to the storm.

Maitland Lake has bought the large paint shop from A. A. Connolly on Poultry street, and will change it into a garage. Mr. Jackson, who purchased the large frame barn from J. C. Connolly, has remodelled it into a blacksmith shop, and has opened up for business. W. D. Wilson is spending a few days in Peterboro this week on business. George Woodcock, Arden, spent the week-end with his family here.

Wedded At Railton.

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Patrick's Church, Railton, on November 22nd, 1920, when Miss Margaret E. Walsh, youngest daughter of the late Patrick Walsh and Mrs. Walsh, Oates, was united in marriage to Thomas R. Marshall, of Taylor. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Francis, to the strains of a march rendered by Miss Kathleen Liston. The bride looked very smart in a chic navy suit with hat to match. She was assisted by her cousin, Miss Bessie Sedor, of Kingston, while Froster, Marshall, brother of the groom, performed the duties of best man. During the mass a violin solo was ably rendered by Jay Liston. After the ceremony the bridal party, accompanied by Rev. and Father Powell, drove to the home of the bride's mother, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple left amid showers of good wishes for their future home in Taylor, where the groom is a prosperous farmer. The many beautiful presents testified to the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

The Joy of Living

Do you feel like these children in the morning, full of energy and buoyant spirits?

Do you get up refreshed by your night's sleep ready for anything the day may bring forth?

You should and you may if the simple rules of health are observed.

It is possible that by some excess in eating, or over-exertion, your heart has not been working with its accustomed regularity, and you are not getting undisturbed and refreshing slumber.

Your sleep may be broken with terrible dreams, smothering spells, sinking sensations, and even fear of impending death.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have brought relief to hundreds of such cases. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills enrich the blood, strengthen the heart and tone up the nerves, making the whole organization work in harmony, and bringing back in a few days that blessed condition where you sleep as peaceful as a child and hail with joy the return of another day.

Mr. Harold Acker, Springfield, N.S., writes:—"I was bothered all the time with nervous headache and dizziness. I could not sleep down at times, as everything would get black before my eyes. I could not sleep at night, and my appetite was very poor. I was almost on a nervous breakdown. I used four boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and they helped me fine. I would recommend them highly to any person troubled with their heart or nerves."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by
