Some of Mrs. J. Hooper Birkett's old friends dropped in at the tea hour on her birthday, which falls on St. Andrew's day, with her many happy returns of the day, and to bring her remembrances, many of them the flowers of which she, is so fond, fragrant roses, and big, shaggy mums, that filled the cosy rooms and lent an added air of festivity to the gay little party, which took the raison de etre completely by surprise. Very many presents from far and near had reached the hostess, who has friends in many lands. A birthday cake with pretty pink candles, was one of the gifts, which shared, created much merriment, as it contained the usual treasures to be found by the lucky ones. Among those who came in to convey their good wishes were: Mrs. J. Maple Machar, Mrs. R. H. Pothill, Mrs. Robert O'Hara, Mrs. Kearney Jones, Mrs. H. A. Betts, Mrs. J. R. P. Power, Mrs. W. B. Carey, Mrs. Arthur Evans, Mrs. W. F. Nickle, Miss Dupuy, the Misses Voight, Miss Bates, Miss Edith Van Straubenzin, Misses Crisp, Miss Mildred Jones and Mr. Harvey.

Mrs. Henry Hill entertained at bridge on Monday afternoon, at her charming bungalow on Maitland street, in honor of her sister, Miss Margaret Cunningham, and Miss Parker, who is Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cunningham's guest. There were three tables in play and the souvenir of the game went to Miss Margaret Hemming. Mrs. Hubert Ryan made the tea in the cosy dining room. As well as the guests of honor, those present were, Mrs. Hubert Ryan, Miss Edith Carruthers, Miss Margaret Hemming, Miss Harriet Gardiner, Miss Helen Strain, Miss Gwendolen Waddell, Miss Doris Browne, Miss Marion Ogilvie, Miss Laura Kilborn, and Miss Katie Bermingham.

Miss Lattice Tandy, King street, entertained the Bridge club on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Garnet Lockett received for the first time in her pretty new home on Kensington avenue, on Tuesday afternoon, and many visitors filled her artistic rooms, which were illuminated with rose shaded lights. In the drawing room, where the hostess was found, were lovely Opelia roses in a crystal vase and gold and bronze mums were here and there. In the tea room, with its panelling of dark oak, Mrs. D. G. Laidlaw made the tea at the polished table, with its handsome lace cloth and centre of baby christenings in shades of gold. Mrs. Ernest Sparks was the tea room assistant.

Mrs. John Waddell and Miss Lucy Waddell, Earl street, were the hostesses of a pleasant bridge and tea on Tuesday afternoon. Four tables were in play, and the prize winners were Mrs. Helen Lafferty and Mrs. Hugh Ryan. Some more people came in at the tea hour, glad to welcome the hostess and her daughters back to their old home. The tea table in the dining room was lovely with big pink mums in a silver basket, and pink carnations in small vases, resting on the handsome centre of Florentine lace. Mrs. W. H. P. Elkins made the tea, assisted by Miss Kathleen Carruthers, Miss Margaret Hemming, Miss Marion Ogilvie and Miss Katie Bermingham.

The candidates for the various offices in the Alma Mater Society had a gay time on Monday evening going from one of the girl students' residences to another, canvassing the inmates, "Avonmore," "Queen's Residence," Earl street, and the Y. W.C.A., where they, in turn, are evidently being believers in the charms of music, the band of young men took a violinist and a pianist along, to ensure a welcome. Given music, pretty girls, and a good floor, what wonder was it, that at some of their stopping places, the canvass took place during a dance.

Mrs. R. W. Carruthers, Stuart street, entertained at the tea hour on Saturday in honor of Mrs. Jarvis, Ottawa. Miss Alline and Miss Cecily Rutherford made the tea at the handsomely appointed tea-table in the dining room, assisted by Miss

BEWARE OF BRONCHITIS

Bronchitis is generally caused by neglecting a cold, or exposure to wet and inclement weather. It begins with a tightness across the chest, difficulty in breathing, and a wheezing sound comes from the lungs. There is a raising of phlegm, especially the first thing in the morning. This is at first white, but later becomes of a greenish or yellowish color and is occasionally streaked with blood.

On the first sign of bronchitis you should check it immediately by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, thereby preventing it becoming chronic, and perhaps developing into some more serious lung trouble.

Mrs. Brice Culham, Sheffield, Ont., writes:—"In December, 1919, I was very sick with bronchitis, and had to stay in the house all winter. One day I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised, so I got a small bottle which helped me very much; I then got a 50c. size, and it completely relieved me. I cannot praise "Dr. Wood's" enough for what it did. Two of my neighbors are now using it for colds."

Don't accept a substitute for Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup; the genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 35c. and 50c.; manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Kathleen Carruthers, Miss Nora Mc-Nee and Miss Marion Ogilvie.

Mr. and Mrs. Nozley I. Huffman, Moscow, Ont., will celebrate their twenty-fifth anniversary by being at Home to their friends on Dec. 10th, from 2 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Harold Davis, King street, entertained at a small bridge of three tables on Saturday evening. The prizes were won by Mrs. T. Ashmore Kidd and Bertram Stirling, of Dundas.

Rev. T. W. Savary and Mrs. Savary, St. James' rectory, entertained the Bishop of Ontario and the clergy of the Frontenac deanery on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. H. E. Richardson, 154 Johnson street, will receive on Thursday and not again until the first Thursday in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Calvin and Miss Hilda Calvin, will sail for England on Dec. 14th, and will spend the winter in the south of France.

The sympathy of the many friends Mrs. Robert Bowie, Brockville, has made during her frequent visits to Kingston since her return from England, goes out to her and her young daughters, who have been so suddenly bereaved by Dr. Bowie's sudden death, as a good soldier, at his post.

Mrs. G. Hunter Ogilvie, Earl street, returned to town on Tuesday from Bermuda, where she has been for some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Craig, Toronto, are among the old King-stonians who will spend Christmas in town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Charles Randall have returned to the city after a most enjoyable visit with friends in Huntington, L.I., New York city and New Rochelle, N.Y. At Watertown, N.Y. they were the guests of Mrs. P. A. Brown.

Mrs. R. N. F. McFarlane, Johnson street, was hostess at the tea hour on Monday, in honor of Mrs. Kaye, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Welch, Bagot street.

Miss Mollie Cartwright is now with Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cartwright, University avenue.

Rev. Hilyard Smith and Mrs. Smith have come up from Lyndhurst and are getting settled in their new home at St. John's rectory, Portsmouth.

Charged With Violating the Volstead Enactment

Brockville, Dec. 1.—A man and a woman giving their names and addresses as James Allen, Brockville, and Mrs. George Francis, Prescott, were held on $500 bail at Watertown, N.Y., for the federal grand jury on charges of violating the Volstead Act. Bail was furnished and they were released. A gentleman, who stepped on the running-board of their car at Watertown, in search of a stolen machine, led to their arrest. Seven cases of whiskey, were found in the car, and it is said to have been smuggled across the border from this side.
