It is about time the aldermanic crop of candidates had announced themselves, but the candidates appear to be backward in coming forward. There is very little talk on the street these days about candidates for the municipal field.

Write It "Christmas."
"I think there should be a campaign to make people write it 'Christmas' instead of 'Xmas,'" said a citizen to the Whig to-day. "People, no doubt, want to shorten the word, but I think that it is a word that should be written in full."

Hospital for Sick Children
COLLEGE ST., TORONTO.

Great Provincial Charity Makes Christmas Appeal to Friends of Childhood.

Dear Mr. Editor:
The most vital fact in public health service throughout the province is, as you know, the tremendous strides made in child welfare work. Modern science is harping back to the ancient proverb that "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." It has been the privilege of the Hospital for Sick Children—the greatest institution of its kind upon the continent—to find that ounce of prevention.

In bygone days, dependence was put more largely in medicine. Now, as a matter of fact, there is a closer partnership between the pediatrician and Dame Nature. Since the erection of our Baby's Ward and the establishment of well-baby clinics the infant mortality in Toronto alone has been reduced from 155 to 82 per thousand. Further statistics which might be given would merely corroborate the actual life-saving value of the Hospital's work. And it is unnecessary to explain to you that the information as to the researches which make such a record possible is at once communicated to the Health Officers and practicing physicians throughout Ontario.

Consequently the Hospital has surely a claim upon the Christmas-time generosity of every friend of little children. An institution which is securing the new-born child twice the chance, not merely of good health, but of life itself, is entitled to the abundant support of the public.

During the past financial year, revenue from all sources fell one hundred dollars a day behind necessary expenditures.

It has always been the ambition of the Hospital for Sick Children to gain not only the support but the sympathy of the people of Toronto, and so today, with a debt exceeding $150,000, it appeals to your generosity to help along with some gift, whether it be great or small. A contribution of $2,000 from an individual or a society gives the privilege of naming a cot for all time; a donation of 25 cents will run the whole Hospital for half a minute. Between these two amounts there is surely some sum which can be sent by everybody to the secretary-treasurer at 63 College Street, Toronto, as a token of interest in a charity whose field is as large as this province. The Hospital for Sick Children is one of the largest and most highly regarded in the world. It is an institution in which the people of Ontario may take legitimate pride, for it is through their generosity that success has been possible.

Two hundred and fifty children, pale of cheek or with twisted limbs, will be the immediate beneficiaries of the Yuletide remembrances of your readers. Thousands more throughout the coming year will benefit by their kindness.

No Stage-door Johnny.
Despatches tell of a young fellow who was caught trying to break into the room of an actress staying at a Woodstock hotel. He was chased out of the hotel and fined in police court. He should have been content to meet the lady from the chorus at the stage door, with the rest of the Johnnies, as is done in Brockville.

Will Get It Under Way.
At a meeting of the Rotary Club of Ottawa on Monday night Rotarian D. Johnson read a list of prospective charter members for the proposed Rotary Club in Kingston, and Ottawa members were requested to communicate with Kingston business and professional men and assist in getting the new organization under way.

Another $1,000 Gift.
It is announced that George Burns, Pembroke, has placed his name in the ranks of the generous contributors to the $200,000 general hospital fund at Pembroke, by a donation of $1,000. Mr. Burns by this handsome gift, as well as by the active assistance which he is personally giving to the campaign, shows that he is sincerely behind the efforts being made to liquidate the debt on the new wing.

The Late Mrs. S. Latta.

On their return they will reside at 29 Grosvenor avenue, Westmount. A. D. Shibley is a brother of Mrs. W. B. Carey, Kingston.

Law Library Presented to County.
At the session of the Lanark County Council on Saturday, Major J. A. Hope appeared before the council at the request of Mrs. Honore Senkler and family and presented the late judge's law library now in the court house, to the county as a county law library in memory of him. One condition to the gift is that the current English and Canadian Law Reports, which now form part of the library, be brought up to date and continued from year to year. The gift was accepted and a brass tablet will be placed in the judge's chambers at the court house in memory of the late Judge Senkler.

Smith-Herbison Wedding.
The vestry of the First Presbyterian church, Brockville, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday, when Rev. R. M. Hamilton united in marriage Miss Vera Bessie Herbison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Herbison, to Eugene Franklin Smith, a prominent young resident of Buffalo, N.Y. The bride, unattended, wore a gown of sapphire blue chiffon, with hat to match, and a seal opopuntia trimmed coat. She also wore a corsage bouquet of Ophelea roses. Following the ceremony the bridal couple left for New York on their honeymoon and will later take up residence at Buffalo.

Would Give Them Short Shift.
"I am on the side of justice for Ireland, but I want to see every Irish-American agitator up against a wall with a bullet through his head—I have no plans for the professional agitator," said Dr. J. L. Morrison, professor of Colonial History, Queen's University, at O.C.I. hall, Ottawa, on Wednesday night. The subject of Dr. Morrison's address was "Ireland." The attendance was large. The lecturer made it plain that he merely ventured his personal opinions.

Perth Winners.
The Minister of Education has announced the seventh award of the scholarships provided for by the will of the late J. I. Carter, Sarnia. These scholarships are awarded to the three candidates who obtained the highest marks on the 1920 June upper school examinations in Toronto and in each of the twenty-four counties or groups of counties in the province. The Lanark winners are as follows: 1st, Miss Mary C. W. Buffam, Perth; 2nd, Franklin B. Relyea, Perth; 3rd, Miss Bessie H. Hubbell, Smith's Falls. The values are 1st, $100, 2nd, $60, 3rd, $40.

Property on King Street.
An enquirer asks information regarding No. 99 King street. From personal observation, the writer is inclined to believe the place was not finished and put to the use for which it was intended, but left without floors, or divisions. It remained in this state for a great number of years and was known as the Garrett property. Many years ago a spool factory was started there with the late Sergt. Sutherland in charge. This industry did not last long. About forty years ago it was converted into dwellings, as it now stands.

Another correspondent says the terrace of small houses to the west was the old Garrett distillery. The house mentioned and now used as a box factory, was the residence of Michael Doran, of the Kingston Foundry, bought the property and made the upper part into a terrace with a store on the west end.

Wolfe Island Presentations.
After the presentations from Trinity church, Wolfe Island, and the members of the A.Y.P.A., to Rev. Mr. Leech and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Ranous, on behalf of Christ church parishoners, presented Mr. and Mrs. Leech with a well-filled purse and expressed regret at their departure from amongst them. The members of Christ church W.A. presented Mrs. Leech with a handsome silver card tray. A the barman laid in the township hall, Wolfe Island, Louise Davis read an address. William McDermott presented Mrs. Leech with a pretty china chocolate set on behalf of the members of the J.W.A. Mrs. Leech thanked the children for their gift and said that she had very pleasant memories of the time spent amongst them and hoped they would continue to do their part in the church's work, remembering they were the people of the future.

Real Estate Conditions.
Local real estate transactions are reported to be very quiet this season. As a rule, activity begins with the approach of the new year, but there are very few inquiries as yet. Many people think in buying older property they receive better value than in the date and continued from year to year. The gift was accepted and a brass tablet will be placed in the judge's chambers at the court house in memory of the late Judge Senkler.
