Granite and Kingston lodges of the Independent Order of Oddfellows were honored on Friday by the visit of Bro. Joseph Oliver, Grand Sire of the Sovereign Lodge of America. and the occasion was marked by a the evening, which was attended by 325 members.

The occasion was an historic one because only once before was Canada honored by having one of her sons elevated to so distinguished a position, and it was the first time that Kingston has had the pleasure of entertaining the occupant of the highest office in the order. In addition to Brother Oliver there were other distinguished visitors, Bro. James A. Robb, M.P., P.G.M., of Quebec: Bro. U. M. Wilson, grand Patriarch, Napanee; Bro. "While I am grand sire, I will feel it my duty to do everything in my power to cement the people of Canada and the United States. When in the United States, I told the people that they won the war, but the Canadians took every objective they had before them," said Bro. Oliver. He told of the wonderful growth of the order and of its great record.

Was the first fraternal order to drink the toasts with cold water. This was in 1825, and in 1895 it excluded liquor dealers from its membership. As an indication of its humanitarion work, he said there were fifty-seven homes conducted under different jurisdictions in the United States and Canada. They were not charitable institutions, for those who benefited were entitled to the benefits provided. Many of these it had been his pleasure to visit. We are first and last a benefit organization. Brother Oliver gave some touching incidents that showed the gratitude felt by beneficiaries whose lives were made happy by the practical interpretation of "Friendship, Love and Truth."
