At The Grand.
To-night Ernie Marks and his company of advanced repertoire and vaudeville players will present that great comedy drama, "The Price," and sure is a hearty laugh and a delightful play from start to finish. The play has been a great success for several seasons, because it's chock full of fun, brimming over with good humor, and a story that grips the attention. There is entertainment galore in "The Price," with its music, clean, bright comedy, and scenes and situations of thrilling excitement and touches of pathos, all so true that it seems like a page torn from Nature's book, a great play for the children. Popular prices prevail. For an evening of enjoyment go to the Grand Opera House on the opening of the Ernie Marks Stock Co., supporting the excellent actress, Kittie Marks. This clever company of entertainers will appear at the Grand Opera House for the entire week commencing tonight, with a change of play nightly and six big new vaudeville specialties between acts. —Adv.

At the Strand.
Exactness of detail in his productions has always been one of the hobbies of Dustin Farnum, the screen star. This same hobby was very much in evidence during the making of "Big Happiness," his latest vehicle, a Dustin Farnum Productions Company picture which opens to-day at the Strand theatre for a three days run. "Big Happiness" is released by Robertson-Cole as a super-special and upholds the excellent standard for settings established by these distributors. Following out Mr. Farnum's idea of exactness it was necessary to engage more than one hundred experienced people for the filming of one scene. Mr. Farnum insisted on having talented players instead of "extras" to produce the necessary "atmosphere." The picture is an intense drama with many colorful scenes of the gay, cosmopolitan life of Paris before the great war. A cafe setting used is an exact reproduction of the famous Cafe de Paix of Paris where men and women of the upper strata of society and fashion gather to laugh and chat over sparkling beverages. An excellent cast in support of Mr. Farnum is gathered, a wonderful portrayal of twin brothers, adds much to the quality of this unusual picture. Kathryn Adams, a graduate from the legitimate stage and a screen artist of recognized ability, is the heroine. Miss Adams has appeared in many important picture parts including the leading feminine roles in "Raffles" and "Baby Mine." —Adv.

The Richardson Children Are in Montreal

It has been learned that the two boys, aged eight and ten years, sons of Mr. Richardson, who resides at 424 Princess street, who were taken away by their mother, about three weeks ago, are in Montreal. The mother of the two children, who had not been living with her husband for some time, secured the children as they were returning from school, and that night left the city. She first took the children to the home of her mother at Cornwall, and the following night left for Montreal.

Received Holy Communion.
Three-fourths of St. Mary's congregation received holy communion Sunday, the feast day of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The members of the Holy Name and of the A.O.H. received communion in a body at the half-past seven o'clock mass, with the front sections of the centre aisle reserved for them at that mass.

Giddap!
"Men are so stubborn!" I hear women wail.
No wonder the men folks they pan;
They'd rather drive a soft-headed nail,
Than drive a hard-headed man.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Wants Things Opened Up.
Kingston, Dec. 12.—(To the Editor): You said a remark was made that education was gathered from the ten-minute railway through the city, and hoped it would be continued. Very good. But still I think we could gather more and better education, and enable those willing to work to secure a living for themselves and families, if they would allow the trams to run on Sundays, and employ those out of work. There could be profit both ways as in other cities. Open up the picture palaces on Sunday and employ only those who had no work all week.

Yours truly,
E. HOWLEY,
63 Stephen street.

P.S.—And another point, sir, open up the printing press and employ a Sunday paper called the Sunday Times. All would find work for the unemployed. —E. H.

FRENCH ARE PRISONERS.

Released Captive Says Germans Still Holding
Paris, Dec. 12.—That French soldiers are still kept prisoners in Germany was the sensational statement of Private Joseph Blin, of the twenty-sixth Territorial Regiment, before a court of inquiry at Le Mans. Blin, who was captured early in the war, has only just been allowed to return to France after the personal intervention of General Dupont, head of the French mission in Germany. It appears that he received severe injuries to his head when working as a prisoner at the time of the armistice and was shut up as mad. Later he was released, but the Germans refused to give him papers or allow him to leave the country until General Dupont took up his case.

Blin claims positive knowledge that other Frenchmen are in the same situation and the French mission has been instructed to hold an inquiry.

ARMENIA BEYOND PALE.

Not Wanted in League, Having Gone Bolshevik.
Geneva, Dec. 12.—The small nations, which intended making an issue of the change of opinion by No. 5 about the admission of Armenia at the instruction of the Allied premiers, will not raise the issue. As Armenia has gone Bolshevik, her admission to the league would be a de facto recognition of the Bolshevik regime. No one in Geneva wants this.

Dies at His Winter Home.
Palm Beach, Fla., Dec. 12.—Horace E. Dodge, millionaire auto manufacturer, died Friday night at his winter home. Mr. Dodge had been the sole head of the Dodge Brothers automobile interests since the sudden death early this year of John Dodge, his elder brother.

Atta Boy!
"I lost in Wall street," said Bill Beal, "And I'll throw no more coin away;
I'll buy a hay press and I'll deal in good Consolidated Hay."

A dispute between Chili and Bolivia in the League of Nations assembly Saturday has raised the possibility of the withdrawal of one country or the other from the league.
