The optometrist of to-day to do good work must not only be equipped with the best mechanical apparatus but must have that knowledge in its use WHICH ONLY LONG EXPERIENCE CAN GIVE.

It is this combination of mind and machinery of experience and equipment that makes Keeley's service unique in Kingston.

GIFTS THAT LAST

We realize as clearly as anyone that people to-day LOOK FOR VALUES.

We are prepared with "worthy goods," which we are selling with a full knowledge of present conditions.

We take pride in the DIAMOND RINGS and NECKLETS we offer you.

Our PEARL STRINGS will bear the closest scrutiny.

Our Silverware, Cut Glass, Leather Goods and Lamps are chosen with a desire to give you the best reasonably.

Our WOMEN'S and MEN'S WATCHES are backed by "skillful experience."

"That's worth a good deal."

The Christmas spirit is full upon us, and you know Christmas would be robbed of much of its pleasure without the exchange of gifts that last.

MONK RENOUNCES HIS VOWS AND MARRIES
After Years of Meditation, He Decides Celibacy is Matter of Choice.

Washington, Dec. 18.—"I am at peace with my conscience," was the statement made today by James Cornell Biddle member of a prominent Philadelphia family and a former Trappist monk, who renounced his vows of perpetual retirement from the world last night to marry Miss Mary Lena Gaines, of Warrenton, Va., member of an old Virginia family, and an old friend of Admiral Cary T. Grayson, navy physician, attached to the White House.

ON PERMANENT LIST

Temporary Employees of Civil Service Appointed.
Ottawa, Dec. 18.—A considerable number of persons who have been temporarily employed in the Civil Service will be placed on the permanent list by an order-in-council passed by the Dominion Government. Those who are thus taken into the service without examination have been working for some time in government offices and are considered to be fully qualified. They have been selected for permanent appointment by the deputy heads of departments. These commendations of the deputy ministers have been approved by the Civil Service Commission and the appointments have been ratified by order-in-council. The procedure is in accordance with a provision of the Civil Service Act.

NOTICE TO EDITORS

No Interference With Irish Papers Properly Conducted.
Cork, Dec. 18.—A notice from the military headquarters has been served on the editors of Cork newspapers printed and circulated in the martial law area will not be interfered with as long as nothing is published calculated to cause disaffection amongst His Majesty's subjects, or to interfere with the enforcement of martial law. Any offence will be dealt with by suspension or oppression.

Prehistoric Graveyard Unearthed.
Stargard, West Prussia, Dec. 18.—A prehistoric graveyard believed to be at least 2,000 years old has been unearthed here by German investigators under the direction of Professor Zakrzewski. In one of the graves the excavators found six black urns and one red urn with white stripes filled with clay and ashes. Among the remains were some glittering substances which the investigators believe once had been adornments of prehistoric men and women.
