

SHOP EARLY Founded 1847 SHOP EARLY LIVINGSTON'S

Prepared as never before for CHRISTMAS.

20% Off Our Entire Stock

(Jeager goods only excepted)

Our showing of Christmas Haberdashery is a grand display of exclusive styles—gifts that will make a man exclaim: "How'd you guess it?"

Don't think of passing us on Christmas Neckwear, if you care for something handsome. Discount allowed for cash only. Gloves, Neckwear, etc., put in fancy boxes free of charge.

"Buy his gifts where he would Buy Them."

ARROW COLLARS—all styles and sizes 25c. each

Livingston's

75-77 BROCK STREET

"If Off Your Route It Pays to Walk."

Anderson Bros. Limited

Corner Princess and Division Streets

Citizens' Opportunity to Purchase Christmas and New Year's Poultry

Wednesday, Dec. 22

Grand display and sale of select, dry-picked and specially fattened

Turkeys Geese Ducks Chickens and Fowl

Special provision by way of separate department and competent staff, affording customers an opportunity to make a selection to their complete satisfaction.

Orders to outside points packed and shipped

Phones: 458-459. Wholesale 1767.

Theatrical

"Linger Longer Letty", Coming. Suff's or no Suff's, you have to hand it to the ladies and credit them with doing something worth while in giving us "Linger Longer Letty," which begins the last two weeks of its engagement at the Grand Opera House, Wednesday, December 22nd, one night only, for Anna Nicholas wrote the comedy and Charlotte Greenwood puts it over. Miss Greenwood as Letty make "Linger Longer Letty," which is a comedy with music, all that a comedy is said to be. The story is a modern version of Cinderella. In a way, Letty is one of a bunch of sisters and is the only one that can sew and bake and because of the difficulty of getting good cooks in these modern times, she just naturally finds herself in the kitchen most of the time while her sisters amuse themselves with dances and festivals. Incited by her father to rebel, she starts a strike, comes out of the kitchen, engages a male dress-maker to attire her and makes an immediate hit with the young men who formerly were altogether too attentive to her sisters. Her co-conspirator in the plot to become beautiful is Jimmie, one of two brothers who have been paying court to her sister, Nancy. Jimmie is also angular and needs making over; so successful are Letty and Jimmie in their process of recrudescence that they fall in love with each other. Those who saw Miss Greenwood in "So Long Letty" will appreciate her in her present role, which offers more opportunity for her own particular style of comedy. She is screamingly funny, the looseness of her limbs and the way she dances, invariably convulses the audience. A big cast and beautiful chorus supports Miss Greenwood, including, Olga Roller, Curtney Englar, Muriel Cole, Chona Paula, Robert Higgins, George Sweet, Frances Bendisten and Oscar Figman.—Advt.

Coming to the Grand.

Eugene O'Brien, the popular Selznick star will be seen at the Grand Opera House, Monday and Tuesday of next week in his latest production, "The Broken Melody." This play is a romantic story of two young artists, a painter and a singer, who attempt to climb the ladder of fame through the sacrifice of their love for one another, only to find that love is the force that drives all ambitions to success. Critics claim this to be the most pleasing vehicle the star has ever had. There will also be another fine feature, "Clover's Rebellion" starring the beautiful and talented star, Anita Stewart. A strange meeting in the woods stuns Clover Dean in her rebellion against being forced into marriage with a nobleman. She preferred the young doctor with the funny looking automobile. There are reels of Big V. comedies and other subjects and a special musical programme by the Grand's orchestra who have just received a number of late selections. This bill will be seen the first two days of the week only.—Advt.

At Griffin's.

Three of the most remarkable death-defying stunts ever tried before the camera will be done by Tom Mix, the screen's dare-devil in his latest William Fox production, "The Terror," which will be the headlining attraction at Griffin's for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Despite his past achievements as an impersonator of Western characters, in the portrayal of which he has caused his audiences throughout the land to gasp at his death-defying stunts on the screen, it can be safely said that in "The Terror," he eclipses anything he has previously done. Briefly the story concerns the efforts of "no limit" Carson, a United States Deputy Marshal to run down the leaguer gold from the Sonora Gold and Copper Mining Co. Following an investigation Carson suspects Sheriff Canby and Con Norton, owner of the Odeon dance hall, who are using as their tools Fay La Cross, a dancing girl, and Phil Harland, her lover, who is confidential secretary to the president of the mining company. It is only after a series of thrilling escapades that Carson brings the culprits to justice and wins the love of the sister of Harland, one of the suspects who is found to be innocent. "The Terror" is another Mix masterpiece, a real western thriller and will pay you to see it.—Advt.

At The Strand.

For sheer beauty of settings and photography, "An Arabian Knight," starring Sessue Hayakawa, is one of the most remarkable pictures of the year, according to the critics. It is a Robertson-Cole Speed and Wild have a run of three days at the Strand Theatre beginning Monday. The experts who have seen this unusual photo-play are united in their conclusions that it sets a new standard in production methods. And when they say this they say all that there is to be said. "An Arabian Knight," from the pen of Gene Wright and adapted to the screen by E. Richard Schayer, has just as charming a story as it has beauty of finish. It is a story that breathes the very atmosphere of its locale, Egypt and the pyramids, and thanks to Mr. Hayakawa, the lovable and interest-holding hero suffers nothing by his transfer to the screen. And before much more can be said about the technical and artistic features of the picture it must be noted that the critics also acclaimed the delightful performance given by Mr. Hayakawa as Ahmed, a rolicking Egyptian boy who might have stepped out of that famous tome of romance, "The Thousand and One Nights." As Ahmed, Mr. Hayakawa departs considerably from his accepted role as tragedian; he even essays subtle—and sometimes broad—comedy and gets away with it to the entire satisfaction of the hard-boiled critics who passed on the first showing of the picture, which is a novelty in more ways than one.—Advt.

Lady Missionary Taken Ill.

News reached the city Friday by wire that Miss Edna Bailey, a Queen's student, who has been doing missionary work north east of Regina, was taken suddenly ill, and was admitted to hospital at Southey, Sask., where an operation was performed. Reports state that the patient is doing as well as can be expected.

Christian Science lecture tonight at eight o'clock.

AMATEUR NIGHT AT GRAND

Eva and Teddy Radcliffe and Frank Bezeau, the Winners. Amateur night was the big event at the Grand Opera House on Friday. The place was crowded to the doors to see local amateurs perform. Ernie Marks, who was in charge, had all the performers do their little stunt, and then, after every person on the list had acted his or her part, all were paraded across the stage, and the ones who received the loudest applause were to be declared the winners. Eva and Teddy Radcliffe, who sang a couple of songs, and Frank Bezeau, the dancer, took first money. The applause was so even that Mr. Marks decided to split the money. The others who competed were Edgar Martin, Master J. Woodhouse, Master Reynolds, Master Stewart Salisbury, A. H. Thomas and C. R. Vickery.

The Marks company put on the play entitled, "The Girl He Could Not Buy," and was well received. This afternoon and evening the company will again appear at the Grand.

AT ST. GEORGE'S MISSION

The Children Enjoyed a Christmas Entertainment.

Santa Claus, all in scarlet, with white fur, and jingling bells, arrived on Friday evening at St. George's mission house, into which eighty children, their fathers and mother's, big brothers and sisters and neighbors had packed themselves so tightly that poor old St. Nicholas found it difficult to reach the platform, where the lovely tree, with its twinkling lights and lovely presents stood ready for him to distribute its gorgeous fruit. While awaiting his arrival there was a fine programme of recitations, carols etc. some of the performers being only five years old. Rev. W. E. Kidd, M.C., passed the gifts to the children, assisted by the teachers, Miss Laura Ryder, Miss Victoria Ryder, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Frizzell, Mrs. Hallam and Miss Hilda Fenning, and then "God Save the King," was sung, and the tired, but happy children, each with a pretty gift, said good night and "A Merry Christmas."

Did Rushing Business.

The post office was open on Friday night for the benefit of citizens desiring to send off Christmas mail, and the staff did a rushing business. The stamp office was open and dispensed of over $100 worth of stamps, while the general delivery and registry office were also open for business. These departments will be kept open every evening until 9 o'clock up till the night of December 24th. The fact that these departments are open is much appreciated by the general public.

Prof. J. F. Macdonald's Poetry Prize.

A prize of $25 is offered for the best poem written by any intra-mural student of Queen's University registered in a regular course leading to a degree. The poem may be on any subject and in any verse-form but must not be more than a hundred lines in length and must be sent the registrar before March 10th.

Postage on Christmas Whig.

The postage necessary to carry today's Christmas Whig through the mails is four cents.

After six months rental we will allow money paid in rental to apply on purchase of piano, C. W. Lindsay L.A.

The British government has accepted the proposal framed by the upper house regarding an Irish council. This removed the only outstanding difference.

Christian Science lecture tonight at eight o'clock. Newman & Shaw's "Discounts."

DAILY MEMORANDUM.

See top of Page Three, right hand corner for probabilities. Christmas Cantata, "Nativity," in Sydenham Street Church, Sunday evening.

CHRISTMAS CARDS

Beautiful designs, neatly printed with Greeting, Name and Address.

Prices very reasonable.

Hanson, Crozier & Edgar

Merry Christmas Printers. Market Square, Kingston.

BORN.

STRAIN—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jaa Strain, at Amherst Island, on Dec. 10th, 1920, a daughter, (Nanetta Lucinda).

DIED.

LAWLESS—In Kingston, at Hotel Dieu Hospital, on Dec. 15th, 1920, Michael Joseph, eldest son of Mr Peter Lawless.

Funeral from his late residence, Anglo-American Hotel, Johnston, cor. Ontario street, on Monday morning at 9:45 to St. Mary's Cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung for the happy repose of his soul at 10 o'clock.

Friends and acquaintances are kindly invited to attend. Lindsay and Peterboro papers please copy.

McCORMACK—In Kingston, on Friday, December 17th, 1920, Mary Daly, widow of the late Patrick McCormack. Funeral (private) from 230 Ontario St., cor. Brock St., Monday morning at 9:45 to St. Mary's Cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung at 10 o'clock for the happy repose of her soul.

Friends and acquaintances are kindly invited to attend the Mass.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Chas. Saunders, who passed away Dec. 15th, 1919. —Her husband and daughters, Madeline, Lily and Helen.

JAMES REID

The Old Firm of Undertakers. 254 and 256 PRINCESS STREET. Phone 147 for Ambul. acc.

ROBERT J. REID

The Leading Undertaker. Phone 577. 259 Princess Street.

M. P. KEYES

Undertaker and Embalmer. Undertaking Parlors, 228 Princess St. Ambulance Phone 1639.

JOHN CORNELIUS

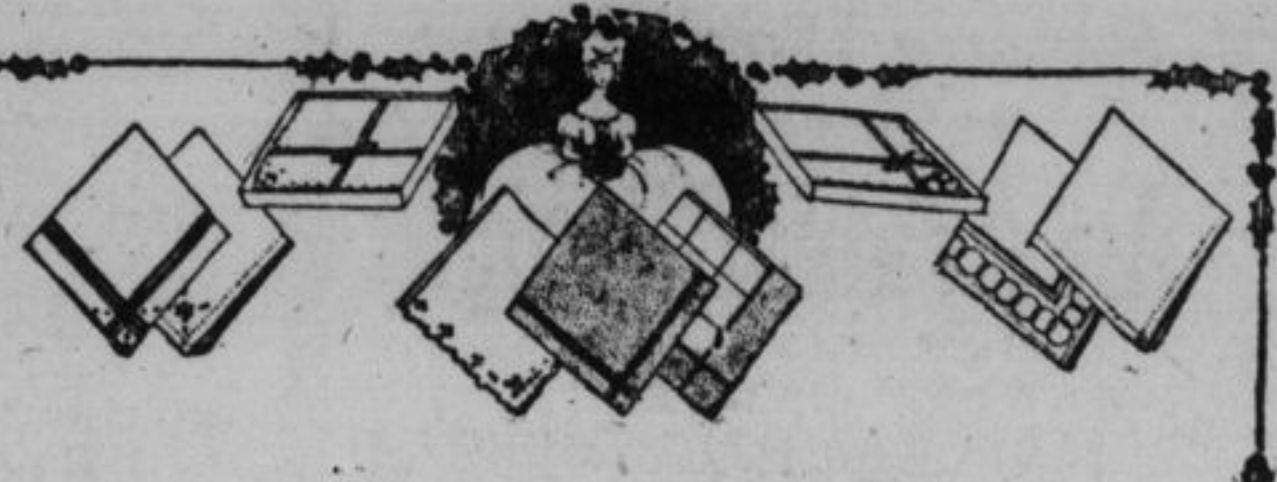

Undertaker and Embalmer. Funeral: 276 Princess Street. Phone 599.

Special Sale

7.30 O'CLOCK

TO-NIGHT OPEN UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK

LADIES' PLAIN AND FANCY HANDKERCHIEFS ON SALE

LADIES' LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS 25 DOZEN

Ladies' All Pure Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiefs; quarter inch hem; ready for use; an ideal Xmas. gift. Price 18c. each, or 2 for 35c.

LADIES' FANCY HANDKERCHIEFS 100 BOXES

Ladies' narrow, lace edge, all hand embroidered work in corners. 2 Handkerchiefs in box TO-NIGHT ..... 25c. BOX

HAPPY HINTS FOR CHRISTMAS

HOSIERY for GIFTS

Ladies' heather wool hose $1.25 to $3.00 pr. Ladies' cashmere hose $1.00, $1.25 and up. Ladies' silk hose full range, fashionable shades, special $1.50 pair. Boys' and girls' ribbed cashmere 85c. to $1.75 pair. Men's cashmere socks $1.00 pair up.

A PURE DOWN COMFORTER

makes a pleasing, useful and practical Xmas. gift; your choice of an endless variety at moderate prices. Priced— $14.50, $15.00, $20.00

GIVE HIM A PRETTY

TIE Exclusive Designs

Price $1, $1.25, $1.50 up to $2.50

A man can never have too many Neckties, and your selection for him will be greatly appreciated if it is made from our wonderful stock of Men's Neckwear.

"TIES OF QUALITY"

John Laidlaw & Son, Ltd.

XMAS SHOES

On With the Dance—Let Your Feet Be Unconfined

We have the newest shapes in Dancing Shoes for Men. A pair of these would certainly make a nice present—something every young man needs.

- Men's Patent Pumps Turn Sole. —Men's Gunmetal Calf Pumps, Turn Sole —Men's Patent Oxfords, Turn Sole. Sizes 5 to 10 ..... $7.00 a pair

Lockett's