The Red room of Queen's University, with its blazing grate fire, made a charming setting for the dance given by Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Dyde on Saturday evening, as a farewell party for Reid McCallum, who will spend Christmas on board ship, on his way to the halls of learning in the old land. Mrs. Dyde and Mrs. McCallum received and Miss Christine Dyde was a charming young hostess. Supper was served from a table in the hall, gay with Christmas green and red. The dance was a jolly one and many good wishes were expressed for the Rhodes scholar, who had won the coveted prize that entitles him to the opportunity of further study.

On Saturday Mrs. T. A. James, then Miss Helen Drummond, was the hostess of a very charming tea party at the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, when her guests were the doctors and nurses with whom she has been associated and the little children who have come under her special care. The hour over the tea-cups was a happy one, and the good wishes that will follow the bright young nurse were very healthy ones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Minnes, "Hillcroft," will have a large Christmas house party. On Thursday Miss Eleanor and Miss Anella Minnes will come down from Branksome Hall and with them Grant Minnes and Lawrence Heggie, of Vernon, B.C., from T.C.S., Port Hope. Mr. and Mrs. William Minnes will come from Lindsay. Capt. Edward McKay, M.C., from Renfrew, and Dr. Charles Abbott, New York, will join the party on Friday.
