"A SLAVE OF VANITY"
 From the Play "Iris" by Sir Arthur Pinero
 It is a magnetic story of how a woman about to sacrifice herself for the luxuries to which she has been accustomed all her life, suddenly sees herself as a selfish Parasite—and chooses the harder—but better way.

Put on More Insurance!
 The sum that would have appeared adequate to protect the home ten years ago is wholly inadequate to-day.
 If, in those days, $1,000 was carried, to-day it should be made $2,000, while five should be increased to ten and, and ten to twenty thousand to maintain the protection at the same point that it reached 10 years ago.
 Let me suggest a plan for an additional amount.

 "Well, sir," said the First Bedbug, "I have found a real home. I am dwelling with a 500-pound couple. The husband weighs 250 pounds and the wife weighs 250 pounds."
 "Gosh!" exclaimed the Second Bedbug enviously. "You are living on the fat of the land, aren't you?"

GAVE PASTOR BEATING; TOOK HIM FOR THIEF
CONCERT AT HARROWSMITH
 Two Brass Collection Plates Presented to Methodist Church.
 Harrowsmith, Dec. 27.—The Christmas tree and concert held in Annesley church, (old Methodist church), on Christmas night, was a splendid success, the proceeds being over $73. The building would scarcely accommodate those who wished to see a admittance. An excellent programme was given by the members of the Sunday school, after which Santa Claus distributed the gifts from the tree.
 A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation of a purse of money to Thomas Cowdy, the efficient superintendent of the school. The pastor, Rev. A. W. Stewart, also received a large goose from the Sunday school.
 A Christmas service was held in St. Paul's Methodist church on Sunday evening, just before the offering was taken the pastor presented to the stewards two beautiful brass collection plates. These plates were the gift of two little girls, the Misses Helen and Jean Shibley, daughters of J. D. Shibley, Harrowsmith. The pastor expressed the voice of the congregation in words of appreciation for the gift.
 Rev. A. R. and Mrs. Walsh and children, Bath, also Rev. Mr. Bunt, Montreal, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Cowdy. Mrs. C. S. Redden entertained at a family dinner on Christmas Day. Relatives were present from Kingston and Collin's Bay. Arthur Botting has returned from Kingston General Hospital, and is improving after his recent operation.
 Our idea of a good photograph is one that does not look much like the original.

DETROIT CLERGYMAN, CARRYING COMMUNION VESSELS, LATE AND STARTS TO RUN.
 Detroit, Mich., Dec. 28.—Rev. Harry G. Miley, pastor of St. Paul's English Evangelical church, was mistaken for a robber and badly beaten this morning by a crowd of men who were hurrying to church carrying communion vessels.
 Noticing that he was a little late, the minister started to run. At Seventh and Buchanan streets a woman saw him and shouted "Stop thief."
 Instantly a crowd gathered and made for the clergyman. He called to them that he was pastor of the church and that he was taking vessels there. They paid no attention, but attacked him, knocked him down and kicked him. Struggling to his feet Mr. Miley tried to explain, but again and again he was knocked down, until a Deputy Sheriff arrived and held back the crowd. Then two policemen appeared, but instead of defending the crowd for attacking a defenseless man they criticized Mr. Miley for running.
 Although his lips were cut and his face bruised, Mr. Miley continued to the church, and after getting first aid preached the morning sermon with considerable difficulty. He was unable, however, to administer communion.
 Early Morning.
 It is pretty tough to have to get up early in the A. M. these cold days. But what we started to tell you was that A. M. Early lives in Dayton, Ky.
