Mr. and Mrs. James M. Callery, Madoc, Ont. announces the engagement of their daughter, Mary Zita, to Tobias S. Forestall, Campbellford, the marriage to take place quietly the latter part of this month.

Major Riggs a Trustee
Major Riggs received an acclamation as public school trustee in the Samson Ward in Belleville. The Board of Education and the city will still have the benefit of his public experience.

Attention Horsemen.
Intimate scenes in the Daily Life of Man O'War, the wonder horse of the age. A remarkable picture of the care cherished on him, also the race with Sir Barton at the King Edward Friday and Saturday. Usual admission.—adv.

Was Ordained Deacon.
Liddon Nesbitt, late of Ottawa, was ordained deacon in the cathedral at Halifax, Nova Scotia, by the Archbishop of Nova Scotia, Mr. Nesbitt is the son of Canon A. Nesbitt, former rector of Smith's Falls, and of Mrs. Nesbitt, Ottawa. Mr. Nesbitt will shortly take up work in the diocese of Nova Scotia.

Died At Foxboro
James W. Gay, a well-known resident of Foxboro, passed away after being in failing health for some time. Deceased was seventy years of age and was born in Sydney township being a son of the late James Gay. He removed to Foxboro a few years ago. For some years deceased was tax collector for Sidney township. He was a member of the Methodist church and in politics a Conservative. A wife, one son, Stillman, of Foxboro, and one daughter, Mrs. Merritt Finkle, Belleville, survive.

Candidates in Frankford.
For the first time Frankford had nominations yesterday, the village now being incorporated. Walter E. Windover was elected reeve by acclamation. Dr. J. U. Simmons, Chas. P. Rose and A. J. Hendricks were also nominated but withdrew. There are thirteen nominations for council.

Wanted At Headquarters
No crime has ever been committed, no matter how cleverly planned and ingeniously executed, that it did not leave a clue of some sort to be picked up and followed by the gifted sleuth. The disappearance of the vast treasure is an incident in "Wanted At Headquarters," at the King Edward Theatre to-night.

Toronto Judge To Decide
A Toronto judge will be asked to decide a point of law in connection with the case of Everton Reynolds who was found guilty of taking out letters from criminals in Portsmouth penitentiary. It is understood that the result of the other three charges, which are against him at the present time, will depend on the decision of the Toronto judge.

Municipal Elections at Deseronto.
At Deseronto W. J. Malley was elected by acclamation as mayor; Thos. J. Naylor goes back for the tenth consecutive time as reeve. For the council only five qualified: Messrs. J. C. Burns, Charles Brennan, Jas. Stainton, Alfred McCullough and J. R. Dunn. Another nomination to fill the vacancy on the council will be held later. It is five years since Deseronto has had a municipal election.

R. E. Wright Leaving Picton.
In the resignation of R. E. Wright from the management of the Old Homestead and Boulter Canning plants at Picton and his decision to go into business in Toronto, Picton and Prince Edward county loses one of its best known and most valuable citizens and the Dominion Canners a most faithful and efficient manager. R. E. Wright has been associated with the canning business for many years. His father, the late W.

R. Wright, was one of the pioneers in the canning industry.

College Spirit.
A college spirit movement is being organized in the University of British Columbia. At a recent meeting Dr. H. T. J. Coleman spoke. The report says: This professor, although a newcomer, has won his way into the heart of the student body by his keen interest and his sympathetic feeling for the students. He received a great ovation when he declared that he felt quite at home in the University of British Columbia even though he had arrived only two months ago. He declared that the college spirit was not lacking, but that it was the organization that was needed and he appealed to the students to get behind this movement.

Almonte Council May be Paid
The question of the payment of the Almonte town council will be one of the issues before the electorate of the January election. The by-law to give effect to it was introduced at the meeting of the council on Tuesday evening by Councillor O'Reilly. It was given first and second reading without a dissenting voice, but the third reading was left over for the council of 1921. Thus it will be a matter for next year's council to deal with, and all that is required to make payment of members of the council an accomplished fact will be for the new council or any succeeding one to give third reading to the by-law.

The Late Richard G. Steacy.
Leeds county lost a prominent citizen in Richard Graham Steacy on Monday. He had been ill for about two years. Deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Steacy, Brockville, and was born here sixty-eight years ago. He was educated at the public schools of this town. In early life he adopted farming as a profession. His farm about two miles west of Lyn was a model.

A number of years ago he was married to Miss Harriet Shipman, daughter of the late Nelson Shipman, descendant of the pioneers of the county. She survives with one daughter, Mrs. S. G. Easton, Leeds, Alberta, and one son, Richard Steacy, at home. The deceased was an Anglican in his religious faith, a staunch Conservative and was a man of an upright character and one holding a number of people in high esteem.
