"Winnipeg Kiddies. The strangest audience ever faced by any show on earth was that which greeted the Original Winnipeg Kiddies in the bowels of Mother Earth—down one of the world's deepest mines in Mother A group of grimy miners comprised the audience-flickering headlamps the "footlights" for this strange spectacle. It was during a tour of the American northwest, in which the Winnipeg Kiddies were assisting Uncle Sam in its recruiting work when that nation entered the war that the Kiddies were taken down the mine-one of a thousand courtesies shown this famous troupe by the American authorities. So surprised were the miners who toiled in the black pits many hundreds of feet below the surface that the Kiddies decided to give them an extra surprise-and staged a short impromptu concert. It was a weird spectacle. The Winnipeg Kiddies bring their sensational production to the Grand Opera House to-night.

A Griffin's. For to-day, Friday and Saturday, the management of Griffin's has secured a premier attraction. It is a Thomas H. Ince special production. 'Homespun Folks." "Homespun and vitality. The atmosphere of the picture is splendidly real. "Homespun Folks" will appeal to all interpret the various roles of this charming play. On the same programme is shown the tenth episode of that startling serial, "Pirate Gold," which brings this thrilling story to a most satisfactory ending. and will be eagerly waited by the numerous followers of the serial. Our usual selected comedy, and those beautiful Prizma pictures. round out a delightful programme. which cannot fail to please all who see it .- Advt.

The new Dorothy Dalton picture, The Dark Mirror," which is coming to the Strand theatre for three days, commencing today, is declared to be most unusual and absorbing in theme. It was adapted from Louis Joseph Vance's well-known novel of the same name and is a Thomas H. Ince production. Miss Daltor has a dual role, playing two sharply con-trasted types. As Priscilla Maine, a charming society girl, she admires a Doctor Fosdick, a young physician. To him she confides a serie; of dreams which she has had. In them she sees herself as a girl of the underworld who has several unusual adventures. She can even recall the names of the people in the visions. Shortly afterward Doctor Fosdick, reading the account of a murder, recognizes the folks involved as those mentioned by Priscilla. Nora O'Moore, a girl of the slums and loved by "Red" Carnahan, a gang leader, is one of them. She is Priscilla's exact counterpart. Mistaken for her, Priscilla is kidnapped and falls into some thrilling adventures that finally result happily. Huntley Gordon is Miss Dalton's leading man, and Pedro de Cordoba and Walter Neeland are also in the cast.

At the Allen. Georgina's husband was a perfecty good man-too good, in fact, to ive. After his death, Georgina, released from three years of boredom, visited her brother-in-law in New York, determined to look up a sinner, and if he were wicked enough to marry him. She flirts with a man in Central Park. He makes love to her. Thinking he's "bad" she leads him on, not knowing that he is a very moral man and a friend of Jeffry, her brother-in-law. Jeff and his wife are called away on account of his mother's illness. Garrison, her park acquaintance, visits the apartment and is told by Georgina that she is Jeff's wife. Unwilling to betray his best friend Garrison hur-riedly quits the apartment, but later, lured by Georgina's wiles, makes more violent love, when his conscience hurts him. Again he quits the apartment, announcing his intention of "going to hell." Garrison grabs the wildest woman on Broad-way and Jeffry sneaks out of measle- quarantine to see how his home is getting along. His ideals

IN MEMORIAM. In sad and loving memory of our dear daughter, Muriel Baird, who passed away January 6th, 1913.

The flowers we place upon her grave, But Oh the love we bear for her Will never fade away. Just eight years ago she left us,
How we miss her loving face,
But she left us to remember
None on earth can take her place,
